GENERAL PROSPERITY.

Crops are Excellent and Building is Being Pushed at Brownville.

BROWNVILLE, Aug. 13.—There is no late news from the mining camp, but it was expected that the Brownville mill at the Poorman would be ready to begin crushing ore last Monday, and the citizens are waiting anxiously for the news from the first run of the pioneer mill. A furnace for clearing the tunnel of smoke and foul air has been put in, and a car and track has been built in the Poorman tunnel. It was found necessary to move the mill down the hill nearer the creek in order to have more water, and so the chute to the mill had to be lengthened, and many other changes were made, but it was expected that everything would be ready by last Monday.

The weather is fine and the farmers are in the midst of harvest and the indications look favorable for a very large crop in this section. Hops are doing very well and a heavy yield is looked for.

Work has been commenced in clearing the lot for the new hotel building. F. X. Dolan has purchased the old Waters house and will move it down into the Railroad addition. More improvements are going on here in the way of building walks, improving streets and putting up houses than ever before in the history of the town.

A DESPERATE DEED.

A Prominent Memphis Citizen Chloroformed and Robbed in a Hotel in Memphis.

Minnesota Towns Visited by a Wind and Hail Storm—Hail Stones as Big as Goose Eggs.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Aug. 13.—R. M. Fraysier, president of the Security and Memphis city banks, secretary of the Memphis City Railway and principal owner of the Public Ledger, and one of the most prominent and wealthy citizens of Memphis, was this afternoon chloroformed and robbed at the Gayoso hotel, by a man asserting he was John A. Morris, of New Orleans. Morris engaged a room at the hotel, sent for Fraysier, who went to the hotel. After a talk regarding a matter on which Morris asked information, the latter asked the other to take a drink. Mr. Fraysier drained a glass. Turning to face Morris, the latter pulled two revolvers saying: "I am a desperate man. I have no money and my family in New Orleans is destitute. I must have cash. You indorse a check for $5000."

Fraysier argued the matter. The parties finally compromised by Fraysier indorsing the check. Hoping the cashier at the bank would suspect something wrong and refuse to cash it, he indorsed the check P. D. Frazier, an unusual indorsement. His checks are usually indorsed P. Dudley Fraysier. Morris then chloroformed Fraysier and sent a bell boy to the bank for the money. This evening cries of "Murder, thieves," were heard issuing from the room. The door was burst open and Fraysier was found unconscious, his watch, $50 and some valuables he had about him were gone. The check was on the table, payment at the bank having been refused. Morris' whereabouts are unknown.

BLOWN TO PIECES.

Ellsworth, Minn., Almost a Complete Wreck—Loss $25,000.

ELLSWORTH, Minn., Aug. 14.—The most terrific windstorm that ever passed over this section of Minnesota, struck Ellsworth yesterday afternoon and left the town a complete wreck. The Iowa, Minnesota and Dakota elevator was completely blown to pieces. The Congregational church was partially blown down. Dwellings and the Burlington depot suffered great damage. Fortunately no lives were lost. There is not a building in the village that is not damaged. The loss will reach $25,000.

Hail as Big as Goose Eggs.

LAKE BENTON, Minn., Aug. 14.—This place was visited yesterday by a destructive hail storm in the country. Everything in the shape of uncut grain in the path of the storm was annihilated. A terrible rain and hail storm passed over Fulda, Minn. Hail larger than goose eggs poured down for half an hour, breaking hundreds of windows and stripping leaves and small branches from trees. Farmers report corn and flax badly damaged. Most of the wheat, oats and barley had been cut; what was standing will not be one-third of the crop.

No Trouble Getting Return Papers.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The Herald quotes a Chinaman as saying that many of the Chinamen who are carried in bond by the Southern Pacific from San Francisco to New Orleans, on their way to Cuba, find little trouble in returning to the United States. To the Chinese consul at Havana they say they have lived in the United States and wish to return. He gives them the proper papers and the United States consul recognizes them, having no means to disprove their statements.

OUR PORTAGE RAILWAY.

The Dalles Company's Proposition Unfavorably Received.

PORTLAND, Aug. 14.—The Evening Telegram prints today a series of interviews with individual members of the chamber of commerce who express themselves unfavorably to the proposition made by The Dalles and DesChutes Railway and Navigation company to construct a portage road on the Oregon side of the Columbia. They think the road should be built by the chamber of commerce and believe it can be built at a less figure than $250,000. They also think that if built by the chamber of commerce there will not be so much probability of the road ever coming under the control of competing lines.

ACCUSED OF MURDER.

The Soldiers Accused of Lynching Hunt on Their Way to Trial.

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 13.—Lieutenant Slavin, Sergeant Buckley, Corporal Symons and three guards arrived in this city last night from Fort Walla Walla, having in charge six prisoners who are to be tried at Fort Sherman, for the murder of gambler A. J. Hunt, at Walla Walla last winter. They were taken on today.

Dr. J. T. Reddy swore out a warrant today for the arrest of Dr. E. P. Penfield for illegally practicing medicine. The trial is set for the 18th of this month. This action is in retaliation against the course of reputable physicians causing the arrest of unlicensed practitioners.

Sunset on Tillamook Bay.

Tillamook Watchtower.
Far out over the long black sea billows, ocean's vapors arise, pass and change, group themselves and revolve round the great, central, luminous orb, and these dissolve and resume themselves, here resume beauty and there terror. Domes of gold, realms of beauty unfold an image of splendor and solemn repose. The night dews are falling, all is sombre and still, the indistinct light reveals war in the skies, armies of gold o'er the embattled mountains rise and rest, while far up the dim airy crags the shapeless sleepy clouds which seem to be brilliant fragments of some golden world, hover in the light around the rims of the sunset. Then all those phantasmagorical images wane and dim and draw off in silence, to meet the powers of night which now gathering afar, buffet the last smile of the sun in his setting. In this last light of day, a ship far away asleep on the waves now mingles with the wild shapes of this cloud world, but lasts only a while, for the sun has gone down and the purple and gold in the west has turned ashen. The bay from whose glimmering limits the last transient pomp of the pageants of sunset departed, drew into its bosom the darkness.

Good Manners in Low Life.

New York Sun.
People say that gallantry is going out of fashion. This is what was written by a woman from one of the Southern springs: I do believe the colored people are the most polite in the world. You know what a wretched memory I have for names?

Well, an African gentleman has been in the habit of bringing me my coffee every morning, and from the depths of my pillow I always address him as William. At last one morning when I was rather more wide awake than usual, I said to him "By the way, is your name William?"

And he answered: "Well, no Miss, it ain't William, it is George, but if it gives you any pleasure to speak to me as William, it makes me more than happy!"

Can anybody say chivalry is dying out when such an answer as that is received.

Congress Will Decide.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Acting Secretary Nettleton has written Vice-President Bryan, of the world's fair commission, stating it is advisable to permit congress to determine what, if any, conditions shall be imposed upon the Chinese who desire to enter the country to visit the fair.

A Disastrous Cloudburst.

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Aug. 14.—Information has just reached here of a disastrous cloudburst at Campo, this county, Wednesday. The town is situated at the mouth of a ravine and a torrent of water came down on the town, washing away everything moveable. Many head of live stock were killed. No lives were lost.

A dispatch that arrived at this office this afternoon and appears in another column, intimates that the members of the Portland chamber of commerce are in favor of having The Dalles portage built by that body and controlled by it. This is good. We believe the directors of the portage incorporation wont stand in the way a moment. What they want as well as we, if we mistake not, is a portage on this side and it is a secondary matter who shall build it if some big railroad company does not get a hold of it. By all means let the chamber of commerce build the road.

The Grain Market in Berlin.

BERLIN, Aug. 14.—The grain market here still shows an upward tendency.
