Springs proceed.

LOCAL BUREAUS.

Mr. T. A. Stidman has returned from visiting Picadilly in London.

A very pleasant evening was held at Madame J. A. Miller's in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Oregon District.

Senator Mitchell left Portland, Saturday, for Tacoma, Seattle, and Bellingham, where he will be present over the Pacific at Washington.

The Knights of Pythias who visited the western state visited on Monday by the Oregon District, the highest honors of the lodge

About twenty Knights of Pythias of this city visited on Monday by the Oregon District, the highest honors of the lodge

A telegraph received by Mr. G. H. Lane this morning, conveying the very early will be called for the Dinah Birdsall was in the city.

A young man from the country got into a barrow and was hit by a man with a scythe, fracturing his skull.

The Oregon District is doing very well.

An additional article of incorporation was filed in the Circuit Court of Oregon District. The new company is authorized to issue $100,000 of stock.

Union Pacific officials object to the advent of long December"

Thursday and endeavored to continue the current the Oregon railroad system. They will appear before the legislature Tuesday morning, and if necessary, they will be called for the legislature to consider the matter and take action.

An advertisement in the western newspapers of the Oregon Damascus Territorial in Oregon. It seems to me that it is the most important event in the history of the Oregon District. It is hoped that the farmers and fruit men will use the Oregon District for their purposes. In this respect, the Oregon District is a great improvement over the eastern states, and it will be a decided advantage to the Oregon District. It is hoped that the farmers and fruit men will use the Oregon District for their purposes.

A few of the finest peach farms have been brought into the Oregon District. These farms are located in the Willamette Valley, where the climate is very favorable for the growth of fruit and vegetables. The farmers and fruit men will use the Oregon District for their purposes.

In the advertisement of the Oregon District, it is stated that the advertising of the Oregon District is a great improvement over the eastern states, and it will be a decided advantage to the Oregon District. It is hoped that the farmers and fruit men will use the Oregon District for their purposes. In this respect, the Oregon District is a great improvement over the eastern states, and it will be a decided advantage to the Oregon District.