against organized newspapers, characterized by having assumed an even more acute form.

The same is true in many other states, where the evils that have been brought to light have been generally recognized as the result of a want of control. The most recent evidence is that John McKenzie is no longer able to support himself. He has been forced to sell his farm and is now living in a poorhouse. The same is true in many other states, where the evils that have been brought to light have been generally recognized as the result of a want of control.

In the case of the newspapers in question, the editors are attempting to increase the circulation of their papers by exhibiting in the public libraries. This is a violation of the law, and the editors are now being prosecuted for their违法行为.
