Colonel Snnot claims to be the only living witness to the only fist fight that Abraham Lincoln ever had. It occurred in Peoria, Ills., away back in the fifties. When asked, "Where are the other witnesses?" he replied, "They are all dead like myself."

Two strangers, apparently respectable men, were brought before Justice Doherty today at the instance of one Buffenton from Antelope and Tom Sullivan of this city. The trouble occurred on the streets of the city at an early hour yesterday morning. One of the men was discharged and one plead guilty and was fined five dollars.

A Practical Joke.

There is an orchard within the limits of a town not a hundred miles from The Dalles that was the scene of a well executed practical joke last Saturday night, and the story will do to tell for the amusement of the CHRONICLE readers. Pat, the youngest of three young men, who are working on the same job, was smitten, last week, with an intense longing for some of the big luscious peaches in the aforesaid orchard and had, on several occasions suggested to Joe, one of his chums, the propriety of making a nightly raid on them. The chum thus approached, who had been brought up piously, understood the temptation for a time but at last consented and fixed Saturday night at 9:45 o'clock for the raid. Jim, the third chum, being one of the bosses on the job on which they were all working was not supposed by Pat to know anything about what was going on although he knew it all. Meanwhile a fourth party, a business man of the town, had been let into the secret and furnished with a borrowed policeman's star, for what purpose will immediately appear. True to time Pat and Joe appeared at the trysting place and were soon inside the orchard fence. Pat afterwards remembered, though he took little notice of it at the time, that Joe kept very close to the fence while he urged his companion to hurry off and fill his pockets with fruit. No time was to be lost and in a little while Pat's pockets were bulging out with green peaches, "hard enough" as the pseudo-policeman afterwards said to "knock down a bull."

At this moment the hand of the false policeman was laid roughly on Pat's coat collar while he demanded angrily, "What are you doing here?" Pat was dumfounded but he managed to say something to the effect that it was none of his business. "I arrest you for stealing peaches" said the policeman. "Go to—" stubble field; as The Dalles paid the rent, when this city kicks it will be time enough for Company K to begin and not till then. The fact that the boys signed the pay roll before receiving their checks is only conformity with the custom. It is done so all the time. The boys of Company K promised to pay thirty-five cents each for the mattresses. When this amount is deducted from their checks they kick, and they kick because they are built that way. It was they and the company from Baker City that made all the trouble that was experienced during the encampment and the best thing that the adjutant general ever did in his life would be to fire both companies out of the regiment.

The Brains of Oregon Going to Utah. Governor Penoyer can appreciate a joke as well as anybody. Seeing that the Times-Mountaineer had been criticizing the governor's appointees to the Utah convention for lack of brains, business capacity, want of intelligence on matters, relating to irrigation of arid lands, and because they were not representative men, and learning, perhaps, that if Mr. Michell were appointed he might treat the convention to his famous essay on the destructive effects of the Hessian fly on the orchards of Oregon, he determined to amend the wrong he had unintentionally done to the state, by appointing such lunk heads as the editor of the CHRONICLE, and when the opportunity came, by the resignation of Mr. Morgan, Mr. Michell was promptly appointed to fill his place. That settles the whole question of brains, business capacity, intelligence and representation with one dash of the pen. The CHRONICLE extends congratulations to Mr. Michell and the state of Oregon and thanks to Governor Penoyer. The only fear we have is that one engine will hardly be sufficient to haul to Salt Lake City two such great men as the editors of the CHRONICLE and Times-Mountaineer.

SAID HE WAS IN HEAVEN. The Odd Story of a Boy Who Sleeps Many Days at a Stretch. Little Jessie Stritt, of Seymour, Ind., is asleep again. Eighteen months ago he startled the medical fraternity in this part of the state by his continued sleep of twenty-one days. From this he rallied and said to his parents that he had been in heaven, from which place he looked down upon his father while engaged at work in Illinois.

That Encampment. The following article is copied from the La Grande Gazette and is published here to show how utterly low down some men can get. Some more of Colonel T. A. Houghton's fine work has come to light in connection with the 3d regiment encampment recently held near The Dalles. The pay allowed militiamen in encampment is two and three dollars per day for commissioned officers and a dollar and a half a day for non-commissioned officers and privates. Company K turned out forty-eight men and last week the pay roll came up in which privates were allowed nine, and commissioned officers twelve an eighteen dollars for the six days' encampment. The pay roll in this condition was duly signed, but when the time came last Tuesday evening for receiving checks each member's pay was discounted thirty-five cents. This was explained as being the amount due from each soldier for the use of alleged mattresses during the encampment. As a matter of fact the mattresses were made of a couple of wool sacks and each mattress accommodated six soldiers, and in this way every mattress, provided at an expense of about seventy-five cents, has yielded a return of $2.10. It is a dead, rank steal and that's all that can be made of it, and the transaction shows itself to be such on the face of it. Otherwise it would not have been necessary to procure the boys' signatures to the pay roll and then give them a check for thirty-five cents less than the amounts signed for. This amount could not be deducted on the pay roll so as to show for itself as a straightforward transaction, but must be fished from the boys at the last moment, when it was thought that the amount being so small that no one would make a kick but would—as they in fact were—be glad to get anything.

Popular With Americans. HAMBURG, Aug. 17.—This famous health and pleasure resort is especially popular with Americans this season. Among those here at present are: Miss Mackay, and the Princess of Colombia and family, who occupy a garden villa adjoining the Hotel Russia, and entertain largely; Miss Costa, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robinson and Peter Marc, of New York; Hon. William Walter Phelps, the American minister, and family; Mrs. Matinee, annt of Lady Cummings; the Dales and Wares, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Aquer, and others too numerous to mention. All seem delighted with Hamburg.

Berlin Wheat Takes a Drop. BERLIN, Aug. 18.—The grain market opened lower this morning. August rye opened at a decline of 10 marks. August wheat opened at 6 marks. The decline was caused chiefly by the news of the government's action in ordering a substitution of wheat meal for rye in making bread for the army.

Hamburg's Importance Recognized. BERLIN, Aug. 17.—The government has decided to form a marine station and torped harbor at Cuxhaven, at a cost of 25,000,000 marks. A bill will be introduced in the reichstag in November, making the necessary appropriation for the work. The location of this important improvement at Cuxhaven is recognition of the claims of Hamburg as the leading port of the empire.

Yesterday W. B. Townley, of Keno, started his header into 900 acres of fine grain. Townley goes 'em a pretty big bunch every time he gets in. This going into a few acres may call a small, faint smile from the lower corner of Dame Fortune's mouth, but if you want to coax out the great, strong, shining expressions of favor from the dear old Madame, go in big! Let your motto be "Big licks!" and your man servant and your maid servant will catch the mighty spirit, and the cattle within your gates will be great and even your hog, dog, cat and canary bird will be greater than those of your neighbor.—Klamath Star.

The Weather. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—Forecast for Oregon and Washington, light rains.

Something New. The bankrupt sale of dry goods, etc., now going on at H. Solomon's old stand is a "new thing" for The Dalles, where a failure in business is a rare occurrence. Close and careful buyers, however, are improving the opportunity by buying goods at greatly reduced prices thereby proving the rule, "What is one man's loss is another's gain." 8-15-tf

From San Antonio. Aug. Hornung, a well known manufacturer of boots and shoes at 820 Nolan St., San Antonio, Texas, will not soon forget his experience with an attack of the cramps which he relates as follows: "I was taken with a violent cramp in the stomach, which I believe would have caused my death, had it not been for the prompt use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose did me so much good that I followed it up in twenty minutes with the second dose, and before the doctor could get to where I was, I did not need him. This remedy shall always be one of the main stays of my family." For sale by Snipes & Kinerley, druggists.

WE ARE IN IT! 75 pair of Misses Shoes worth $2.25 for $1.00 100 Corsets worth $1.25 for 50 cents. OUR ENTIRE LINE OF DRESS GOODS AT ACTUAL COST. A. M. WILLIAMS & CO. The Northwestern Life Insurance Co., OF MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN. Assets over $42,000,000.00. Surplus over $6,500,000.00. Prof. E. L. Shaug, Dayton, Ohio. DEAR SIR:—Replying to your request for a statement of the facts concerning my experience with the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York in their late settlement with me, I would state that in the early part of 1881, my age being 56 years, I took out a Ten-Payment Life Policy in the Equitable upon their Ten-Year Tontine Plan, for $20,000. My premiums during the period amounted to $37,512.00. The Tontine period expired early in January of the present year, and the Company then offered me the following terms of settlement: FIRST—A paid up policy for $40,000.00 and cash $751.00. SECOND—A paid up policy for $4,000.00 and cash $4,000.00. THIRD—Surrender my policy, and receive in cash $6,496.80. I was so little satisfied with the results of my investment that I chose the third, cash, proposition, but when I so decided, the company, through several of its representatives, labored to induce me to take one of the other forms of settlement, but finding that I was determined to surrender the policy and take the cash, they finally instructed me from the home office to send policy and receipt for the amount, $36,496.80, to their State manager in Cleveland, and he would remit me the amount. I followed their instructions and sent the policy and receipt through my bank in Springfield to our correspondent in Cleveland, only to have it returned from the Cleveland bank with the information that the State manager of the Equitable states that he "had not sufficient funds to meet it." This forced me to return to the New York office, and compelled me to wait some twenty days after maturity before receiving final settlement. I have given no statement endorsing the Equitable, or expressing my satisfaction with their settlement with me. On the other hand I have positively refused to do so. The fact that my returns were $1,015.20 less than my total investment renders further comment unnecessary. During the time I carried the Equitable policy and up to the day when they submitted the above proposition to me, I was kept in total ignorance of the condition of my investment. In marked contrast with this has been my experience with the Northwestern, in which in 1882, I took a Ten-Year Endowment Policy, Ten-Year Tontine, for $10,000, that company having from time to time furnished me with a memorandum of the surplus on my policy over the signature of their actuary; so that while my policy has not yet matured, and will not until next year, I have the satisfaction of knowing that at maturity it will not be from $4,000 to $5,000 more than the face of the policy calls for. Very truly yours, ROSS MITCHELL.
