A FEROCIOUS BEAST.

A Child Killed by a Dog and its Mother Seriously Injured.

MONTREAL, Aug. 26.—The little son of Homer Frechet, of 103 St. Hubert street, of this city, was bitten to death by a ferocious dog last night. When the frantic mother of the child endeavored to drive the dog away, he attacked her, and only desisted when cut to pieces by a neighbor who came to her assistance. Mr. Frechet, who is an amateur fancier, recently purchased three dogs, one of which was a cross between a hound and a bulldog. The latter was considered peaceable, and gave no signs of being dangerous.

Shortly after 7 o'clock last night, while Mrs. Frechet was entertaining a visitor, she heard her four-year-old son, who was playing in the yard, scream. Rushing to the widow, she was horrified to see the dog attacking the child, and tearing great pieces of flesh from its body. With all the heroism of a mother's darling, the woman flew to the rescue. The sight she saw was a horrible one. The boards of the yard were covered with blood, while pieces of flesh were scattered around. Though fainting, she attacked the infuriated beast, and a terrific struggle ensued.

It was an unarmed woman against a demon, and she was fast being overcome by the brute, when J. B. Masse, who resided near by, came to her assistance. At this moment the woman fainted and the dog turned his attention to the new intruder. Another desperate battle ensued, but Masse was armed with a knife which he wielded to good purpose, but the dog having secured a grip on the man never let go till his head was nearly severed from its body. Medical assistance was summoned but the child was beyond all human aid and soon expired. The face was unrecognizable, while over a dozen pieces of flesh had been torn from the body. The injuries sustained by Mrs. Frechet and Masse, while serious, are not fatal.

DANGER IN THE AIR.

Trials and Troubles of the Czar to Escape Assassination.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—A Copenhagen dispatch says that the czar is surrounded with more restrictions than on his previous visits to Denmark. The reason for this is not made public, but rumors are rife of fear of nihilists. It is known to the Russian police that many of the exiled Jews swore vengeance against the czar in person, after they had got safely beyond the frontier, and that these threats were not passing expressions of anger. There is no place where the czar exposes himself as freely as in Denmark, and there has undoubtedly been some apprehension that his enemies would take advantage of this fact. At any rate since the czar's arrival, the police have been active in protecting the royal and imperial party from too near populace contact and the guards at the palace are doubled.

A Deplorable Financial Condition.

CITY OF MEXICO, Aug. 27.—The financial condition of Guatemala is deplorable. For the past three months neither the army nor federal employees have been paid. There is a great scarcity of food in the city of Guatemala, in consequence of which there is much suffering. At Tegucigalpa, the capital of Honduras, is a small-pox epidemic.

FORTY PEOPLE KILLED

A Train Jumps the Track on a Trestle Killing About Forty Passengers and Wounding Many More.

The Chilian Situation—What the Minister at Washington Has to Say—A Fatal Street Fight.

STATESVILLE, N. C., Aug. 27.—The western north passenger train on the western North Carolina railroad jumped a trestle near here early this morning. The train plunged into a ravine 200 feet in depth, dashing the cars into splinters. At least forty passengers were killed outright. The wounded number twenty-five, and many of them will die.

Thirty-six dead bodies have so far been recovered from the wreck. No names are known yet.

SITUATION IN CHILI.

What the Chilian Minister Has to Say Regarding It.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 27.—"The war is over," said Senor Pazano, the Chilian minister. Commenting on the cable dispatch received from Chili and Foreign Minister Foster, the insurgent representative said he received the following cablegram late last night: "Iquique, Aug. 26. Notices inspired by dictators agents in lime are absolutely without authorization." Foster further said in case the insurgent party were defeated it only meant the prolongation of the war and that the insurgent force would be increased in every possible way and the dictators fought to the end.

The Insurgents Defeated.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—The Chilian minister at Washington today received a cablegram dated Valparaiso, Aug. 26, saying that on the 25th the insurgent army was completely defeated in Vino del Mar. A division of the Chilian government army cut off their retreat to ships and obliged them to surrender unconditionally.

His Triumph Complete.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—The Telegraph this morning publishes a statement of a private cablegram from President Balmaceda to the Chilian Legation declaring his triumph complete.

The Report Confirmed.

PARIS, Aug. 27.—A dispatch received by the Chilian legation in this city from Buenos Ayres confirms the report that the insurgent forces surrendered to Balmaceda.

Killed in a Street Fight.

GEORGETOWN, Ky., Aug. 27.—In a street fight today with Milton Kennell and his four sons, A. J. Montgomery and two brothers named Jarvis were killed. The Kennells were desperadoes; and the wildest excitement prevails.

A POOR POLITICIAN.

He is Equally Unsuccessful as a Newspaper Correspondent.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—Lord Randolph Churchill, after making a failure of politics, has scored an equally poor record as a special newspaper correspondent. His letters from Africa to the Graphic, besides proving a disappointment to his admirers at home, have raised a good deal of ill-feeling in South Africa, where they have been reprinted by the Cape Argus, through an arrangement with the Graphic. The Amateurish letters, the hasty production of a rather calous traveler, are criticised as ill-digested, but what is worse, they are full of insulting references to colonists, though it is notorious that the latter have exerted themselves to the utmost to show a genuine friendliness to the visitor. England merely laughs at the letter, but not so Africa, who resents the lack of common politeness involved in insulting those whose hospitality the writer has accepted.

Trampled to Death.

TANGIERS, Aug. 26.—The elephant presented by Queen Victoria to the sultan of morocco is being utilized by that potentate at Fez in trampling the life out of the unfortunates taken captive in the recent rebellion.

The sultan is highly pleased with this new mode of crushing his enemies, and has a new lot brought on every day. They are laid in a row and the elephant is made to step on them. The strange animal has struck terror into the Moors, who never saw one before, both on account of its size and the interesting use to which it is being put by the sultan. One step is said to be enough if applied in the right place.

The Effect of the McKinley Bill.

BERLIN, Aug. 27.—Exports from the consular district of Chemnitz from January to July show a decrease of nearly 50 per cent., due to the operation of the McKinley law.

Senator Pomeroy Dead.

WORCESTER, Aug. 27.—S. C. Pomeroy, ex-United States senator from Kansas, died at Whitesville this morning, aged seventy-six from Bright's disease.

GAMBLING SCHEME.

New Proposition for the World's Fair Commissioners.

New York, Aug. 26.—A special to the Herald from Chicago says: "Henri P. Omaged, of Monte Carlo, representing the great gambling interests there, has been in Chicago three or four days, and it is said that his mission is to make a proposition to the world's fair people for the establishment of a facsimile of the famous Monaco gambling house here during the Columbian exposition. According to the story, Mr. Omaged is authorized to purchase $1,000,000 of world's fair bonds for cash and offer one-third of the gross receipts of the gambling table to the fair directors for the privilege sought. In addition he guarantees the erection of a building to cost $1,000,000, wherein the gambling is to be carried on. There are two drawbacks to the scheme, one being that the laws against gambling are very severe and the other is that the directors would not dare to accept owing to the howl it would raise." It is reported that M. Omaged submitted his scheme to one of the Chicago fair commissioners now abroad and was advised to come to Chicago which he proceeded to do, landing in New York last Thursday and arriving here on Saturday.

ENGLISH EFFORTS FAIL.

To Create Any Ill Feeling Between Chili and the United States.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The efforts of the London Times to arouse jealousy on the part of the South American republics toward the United States have not aroused the feeling intended, judging from the remarks made today by an attache of the Chilian legation who said "the United States has respected the rights of Chili more faithfully, or at least as faithfully as any nation in the world, and the fact has made a deep impression, which cannot fail to be favorable to the great North American republic. The sentiment toward America has undergone, so I learn, an essential and important change in Chili. Europeans have been the most active abettors of the rebellion, and of the three men executed at Valparaiso for leading a plot to destroy the imperial, one was a native of Great Britain and another of Austria. If Europe had acted as the United States has acted, the war would have been over long ago and peace restored in Chili." As to the latest story of alleged cruelty by Balmaceda, the attache said it was too absurd to be noticed.

Mosier New Notes.

MOSIER, Aug. 26, 1891.
EDITOR CHRONICLE: Items in Mosier are few and far between this week.

The weather is quite warm and forest fires are raging on all sides of the Columbia.

Mosier grange met last Saturday, taking in two members. This grange is in quite a prosperous condition. Miss Lula Rand and her brother Jason, of Hood River grange and Will Oleson of Columbia grange, Washington, were among the visitors. We are glad to see them taking such an interest in grange work and hope they will come again.

Mr. Ernest Wellburg, who has been working at Bridal Veil mills, is home with a cut hand this time. He seems to be very unfortunate. We expect to see him come home with his head cut off one of these days.

Mr. and Mrs. Root and Mr. Albert Swasey were in The Dalles last Monday. The fruit wagons may still be seen making their daily trips to the depot laden with fruit. There has been quite a lot of fruit shipped from this section of country this year. M. G.

The Latest Fad.

"Melon socials" are the latest. Various churches in Portland, Salem and elsewhere are advertising "melon socials." The local reporter of this paper saw a "melon social" yesterday. It was a social success. There were just two, the man and the melon. The time was 3:45 p. m.; the place was the large and sunny I. R. & N. dock, just after the departure of the Oregon Ware and the crowd that saw her off. The man was not a society leader; he was negligent as to clothes, the rim of his hat was absent, and he had no shirt to speak of. His hairy chest heaved with joy as he cut the melon in two with a big case-knife, and raising one half, slobbered and slobbered in its vermilion juices. He was unconscious of all things except that he was eating melon and enjoying it, and as the juice ran down his chin and splashed on the dock and his jaws worked, he looked as if he didn't care whether wheat was fifty cents a bushel or fifty cents a ton.—Astorian.
