LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Central Market has been removed across the street in the Masonic building.

The first meal cooked on the Regulator was eaten yesterday by the captain, steward, cook and deck hands.

The academy will open on Monday, as has been previously stated, with a full corps of teachers.

Chrisman Brothers will open the city market tomorrow in the building back of Newman's bakery.

Before the French fleet sailed for the Baltic, the officers laid in a supply of champagne which cost $5000.

The Sunday Welcome plant has been sold to John J. Burnett a former proprietor of the paper for the sum of $2,500.

If you have trouble with your eyes or glasses consult the specialist from Portland, now at the Umatilla House. 9-2.

Hereafter all freight for The Dalles & Goldendale stage line must be left at Leslie Butler's grocery for shipment.

Joles Bros., will be on deck just as soon as they can get goods from Portland. They will locate temporarily in a tent.

Uncle Jamney Farris and his son J. W. Farris, came into town last evening. Uncle Jamney spent a good while of today visiting old friends who are glad to welcome him back to the city.

William C. King stopping at one of the Mepple places on Mill creek was thrown from a fractious horse yesterday evening sustaining a fracture of the collar bone. He came into town this morning and had the fracture reduced by Dr. Hugh Logan.

Piere Kimsey gave the CHRONICLE office a pleasant call today. Pierce says he came very near being a printer one time in his life. When he was a kid he went into a printing office and they kicked him out the back door. Pierce never finished his apprenticeship.

And now the critics have discovered that Major Robert B. Hendershot, who, for twenty-five years, has been regarded as the "drummer boy of Rappahannock"—the one who lead the Union troops over the bridge on Dec. 11, 1862, was not there at all and that the title rightfully belongs to John T. Spillane, a police officer of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Joles, the Misses Amber and Pearly and Mr. Robert Teague returned Wednesday from their summer trip to Hood River. We are pleased to learn that the health of Mrs. Joles is very much improved. They report having spent a very enjoyable time. Fishing was excellent, and while the camps was supplied with all the fish they desired, they brought home with them between 30 and 40 pounds of dried and smoked trout.

The man Benjamin Jager who was arrested Tuesday for driving three skeleton horses through the city, was very properly fined (as he had no money) by being ordered to have the horses properly fed and cared for during the night and then clear out for Mosier bright and early in the morning. We suppose the order was strictly obeyed and that before these lines are set in type the good people of Mosier will have had an addition to their live stock, in the form of three horses so utterly poor and collapsed that all the hay on the original Mosier donation land claim would not suffice to fill them out.

The people living on the north side of the river, who remember the inconvenience of being deprived of boat connection with the rest of the world when the U. P. company tied up their boat for several months last winter without any substantial reason except that it suited their convenience to do so, are terribly in earnest about patronizing the Regulator. A gentleman from Klickitat landing was in the city yesterday who wants to purchase a lot of supplies but he merely took with him what he could carry in his hand, preferring to wait till he can ship by the new boat. Every paper in Klickitat county speaks a good word for the Regulator at every opportunity.

Orders have been given for the erection of a building 50x100 feet, on the Mays lot, on the corner of Federal and Second streets, for the firm of Mays & Crowe.

Monday last the youngest child of D. J. Cooper fell from a wagon and broke her arm. The fracture was reduced by Dr. W. E. Rinehart and the child is getting along as well as could be expected.

G. J. Farley had packed a box with his own most valuable whips, varying in price from three to five dollars and removed them to the alley for safety. This morning the box was found broken into, and the whips gone.

The mayor has requested all parties who have goods saved from the fire and the owner is unknown to leave them at the CHRONICLE office where they will be taken care of and distributed to the proper owner.

F. Barden is carrying his right hand in a sling by reason of a glass sliver fully two inches and a half long, by actual measurement, having been forced into his hand between the first and second fingers. Dr. Logan had to cut it out.

The mayor regrets that in the hurry of writing "Order No. 2" revoking martial law and appointing a committee to receive subscriptions and applications for help for the destitute that the name of Councilman Henry Maier, was inadvertently omitted. Mr. Maier has kindly consented to act in conjunction with the other members of the committee.

From Mr. H. M. Pitman of Dufur who is in the city today we learn that the crop of Mr. William Vanderpool of that place has just been threshed and produced an average of 25 bushels to the acre. This includes wheat, oats and barley. The wheat is shrunk and it is feared that very little in that neighborhood will be found in a different condition. It is believed that all the threshing crews out that way are now running at full blast.

Markie Vanbibber, the youngest son of Mr. W. H. Vanbibber, has the honor of having killed a black bear yesterday morning on his father's ranch on Chenoweth Creek. The bear which was about a half grown cub was first seen by Markie on Sunday. It had been on the Anderson ranch and stopped all the night before it was killed, in an orchard. Joe Crate saw its tracks yesterday morning and procuring Mr. Vanbibber's two dogs the bear was run out of the brush and one of the dogs caught and held him till Markie dispatched him with his rifle.

News From Mosier.
 Mosier, Sept. 1, 1891.

Editor of the Chronicle:
 Everyone in this vicinity is rejoicing since the weather has turned cooler. The small boys' vacation sport is over; once more they are called back to the school room, and say good bye to fishing, hunting and so forth.

Mr. Albert Sutton who for the past week has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Brown, returned to Albina Sunday evening.

Mr. E. Wellburg came home last week, this time with a cut on his hand. He returned to Bridal Veil Monday being able to work again.

Mosier people have wondered why Mr. John Miller paid the valley so many visits; the mystery at last is solved. He returned last week bringing with him a bride. We are glad to welcome her to our neighborhood. Now boys who will be the next to make a trip to the valley.

There was another quiet wedding last Saturday. Miss Prathie was married, but we did not learn the name of the fortunate young gentleman.

There is to be a Sabbath school teachers' meeting Wednesday evening. We hope all those who are interested in sabbath school work will come out and take part. All are invited to attend.

Fires are still burning in the mountains on both sides of the Columbia doing much damage to settlers. Mr. McIrvin's place was burned over, burning everything with the exception of the house.

Balmaceda Banished.
 CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 3.—The Anglo American says: "Prominent gentlemen of this city well known in the Anglo American colony received the following dispatch in cipher:"

"Valparaiso, sept. 1., President Balmaceda aboard Condell and expects to disembark in San Francisco. However, as he is pushed by the insurgents' war ships, he may land in Mexico."

Two Jersey heifer calves were turned loose during the fire, one solid red and one red and white spotted. Will any person knowing of their whereabouts please inform me. J. W. CONDON.

One day last week a prominent farmer of Upper Crooked river stopped operations in the field, tied up the team and with his harvest hands went in pursuit of wild cats that had become rather too sociable. After spending an hour chasing three wild cats and a skunk, they returned to where they had left the team to find the horses had run away and torn up a $40 set of harness. Rather expensive sport for the farmer.—Ochoco Review.

Gibbons & McAllister are located in the Masonic block.

WHY HE GOT UP.

There Was no Hypothesis About. But Mrs. Lease Got the Seat.

The other day it was raining hard when Mr. Lease boarded a street car. The car was chucked full and all the men on the seats sat closer back and evinced a determination to keep a position of sedentary comfort. Mrs. Lease cast her eye down the car and at the same time a stooped man in the corner started to raise.

"Don't," said the man next to him, grasping his arm. "That's Mrs. Lease. Don't you know her? She believes in equality of the sexes. Woman suffrage, you know."

The stooped man smiled and got up. "Come," said the speaker, still more importunate, "you're not going to get up, are you? If she thinks she's equal to a man let her stand. Give her a dose of her own medicine. See, eh?"

But Mrs. Lease has taken the man's seat, greatly to the discomfiture of the other, who wanted to see her stand. Next day he met the stranger on the street.

"Hello," he said, "you're the man that gave up your seat to Mrs. Lease. You missed a good chance to take her down a little. There wasn't another man the car who would have given way. Wasn't it impolite, you know. Just a little joke. What made you get up? Did she hypnotize you?"

"See here," said the man addressed, "I guess you don't know me."

"Can't say that I do. Who are you anyway?"

More Than a Bluff.

A young man in a down-town wholesale house early yesterday morning slipped into the law office of a friend of his and wanted to borrow $10.

"What's that for?" inquired the lawyer. "You had $50 in your pocket last evening at 7 o'clock."

"But I haven't got it now," groaned the visitor. "Where is it?"

"Sat in a game last night from 10 to 1."

"Oh!" exclaimed the lawyer as the plot was revealed. "That's it. Pot full of money on the table; I had ace up; the other fellow had a pair of deuces. I got rattled; he got the pot."

"I was a bluff then?"

"Bluff nothing. It was a precipice, and I fell over it. Gimme the $10 and let me get back to the office."

Work of Art.

We saw in the gallery of Colonel Houghtons yesterday four pictures of the Smith French family that as works of art will compare favorably with the best of the kind we have ever seen turned out of any art gallery. The pictures are those of Mrs. Smith French, her son and two daughters. They are done in crayon, enlarged from ordinary cabinet photographs to life size and set in exquisite frame work.

An examination of the pictures will satisfy the most critical that there is not the slightest need for any one to go outside The Dalles for crayon work. The Colonel has just finished an oil painting of the late third regiment encampment thirty by forty inches in size, which is very handsomely executed and from which he proposes to take photographs as souvenirs of Camp Chenoweth.

Something New.
 The bankrupt sale of dry goods, etc., now going on at H. Solomon's old stand is a "new thing" for The Dalles, where a failure in business is a rare occurrence. Close and careful buyers, however, are improving the opportunity by buying goods at greatly reduced prices thereby proving the rule, "What is one man's loss is another's gain."

Twenty Dollars Reward.

The Northwestern Life Insurance Co

OF MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN.

Assets over $42,000,000.00.

Surplus over $6,500,000.00.

LAGONDA HEIGHTS, SPRINGFIELD, O., June 15, 1891.

DEAR SIR:—Replying to your request for a statement of the facts concerning my experience with the Northwestern Life Insurance Society of New York in their late settlement with me, I would state that in the early part of 1881, my age being 56 years, I took out a Ten-Year Payment Life Policy in the Equitable upon the Ten-Year Tontine plan, for $40,000. My premiums during the period amounted to $17,512.00. The Tontine period expired early in January of the present year, and the Company then offered me the following terms of settlement:

FIRST—A paid-up policy for.....	$40,000 00
And cash.....	9,753 69
THIRD—Surrender my policy, and receive in cash.....	54,603 00
.....	36,496 80

I was so little satisfied with the result of my investment that I chose the third, cash, proposition, but when I so decided, the company, through several of its representatives, labored to induce me to take one of the other forms of settlement, but finding that I was determined to surrender policy and take the cash, they finally instructed me from the home office to send policy and receipt for the amount, $36,496.80, to their State manager in Cleveland, and he would remit me the amount. I followed their instructions and sent the policy and receipt through my bank in Springfield to our that the State manager of the Equitable states that he "had not sufficient funds to meet it." This forced me to return it to the New York office, and compelled me to wait some twenty days after maturity before receiving final settlement.

I have given no statement endorsing the Equitable, or expressing my satisfaction with their settlement with me. On the other hand I have positively refused to do so. The fact that my returns were $1,035.20 less than my total investment renders further comment unnecessary. During the time I carried the Equitable policy and up to the day when they submitted the above proposition to me, I was kept in total ignorance of the condition of my investment.

In marked contrast with this has been my experience with the Northwestern, in which in 1882, I took a Ten-Year Endowment Policy, Ten-Year Tontine, for $10,000, that company having from time to time furnished me with a memorandum of the surplus on my policy over the signature of their actuary; so that while my policy has not yet matured, and will not until next year, I have the satisfaction of knowing that at maturity it will net me from $4,000 to $5,000 more than the face of the policy calls for.

Very truly yours,
 ROSS MITCHELL.
