LOCAL BREVITIES.

The city is full of insurance men adjusting losses. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Criddlebaugh were in the city yesterday.

Charley Stubbling has rented the store west of the old Germania saloon.

If you have trouble with your eyes or glasses consult the specialist from Portland, now at the Umatilla House. 9-2

Julius C. Baldwin has kindly offered his row of buildings west of the Umatilla house for a temporary residence for the homeless, free of charge.

It is an ill wind that blows nobody good. Yesterday Fish & Bardon sold twenty-one stoves, all to persons who had lost theirs in the fire.

By a mistake of the types we were made to say yesterday that the loss of Joles Brothers was $75,000. The amount ought to have been $7,500.

Joles Brothers will not open out in a tent as they announced yesterday. They have purchased the stock in trade of Moscoe & Gibbons, and will be again ready for business as soon as an invoice is taken.

Parties who have been compelled by the fire to change their residences would confer a favor on many by leaving their present addresses at the CHRONICLE office. They will be published without charge.

From Mr. Farley who came up from the Cascades to look after his property, we learn that the cars for the portage road were shipped on the 27th ult., and are expected to arrive by tomorrow or Monday. The locomotive is to be shipped today or tomorrow and ought to be here by the 14th. Everything will be ready for the locomotive when it arrives and Mr. Farley expects the portage to be ready for business by the 15th.

Miss Selma G. Krihbel, preceptress of the academy, arrived by this morning's train. Miss Krihbel is a resident of Cleveland, Ohio, and a graduate of Cleveland Normal school, and later of Boston University. Since graduating she has been teacher of mathematics in the leading private school of her native town; teacher of languages in an academy at Weeping Water, Nebraska, and principal of the high school at Syracuse, Neb. Her high scholarship and successful experience will be of the greatest value to pupils of the academy.

While Mr. C. Clarke, of Snipes & Kinersly's, was trying to save his household goods from the fire he came upon a ham that he found he would be unable to remove. The happy thought struck him of putting it in a bucket of water and setting the bucket out in the yard. So when the fire had subsided sufficiently to allow him to approach the ruins he found a nice boiled ham cooked to a turn.

In response to the call of Mayor Mays the relief committee met in the court rooms at 2 p. m. yesterday. The mayor not being present the committee organized by electing C. N. Thornbury chairman and M. A. Moody secretary. On motion the following committees were appointed by the chairman:

For ascertaining what aid is necessary, George Ruch, M. A. Moody, Mrs. J. Fish, Mrs. B. S. Huntington, Miss Lang. For receiving and distributing contributions, Geo. Liebe, D. M. French, Mrs. J. O. Mack, Mrs. H. Glenn, Mrs. E. French. Any wishing to offer contributions should report to the chairman or secretary or to Geo. Liebe, chairman of the last-named committee. It is found that there are a number of families entirely destitute and immediate aid must be had. The secretary acknowledges with thanks the receipt of the first subscription of $100, from the Catholic society and generous offers from Wood Bros., J. C. O'Leary and others.

Crandall & Burgett are slightly disfigured but still in the ring. Their furniture was somewhat damaged by water and moving but they bent all their energies to save their undertaking goods and were fortunate enough to succeed. Their establishment is again open and they are ready for business at the old stand.

A. J. Wall of Eight Mile is in the city. A. T. Thayer representing Webbs Safe & Lock company of Portland is in town.

We are pleased to note that the genial and good natured Sam Thurman has returned from his summer outing at Col-lin's Landing.

The pastors and officers of the Methodist, Baptist and Congregational churches (with others interested) are requested to meet at the county clerk's room this (Friday evening) for consultation. W. C. Curtis.

An Indian woman named "Old Sally" a tillicum of the squaw Caroline was found dead yesterday morning, near the Company's ice house, west of the city. So far as is known "Old Sally" had been imbibing too much fire water and fell off the bluff and broke her neck.

O. H. Pickett has lost twenty yards of reddish color 3-ply carpet, the sides and foot of ash bedstead, one woven wire mattress, one flake mattress, one comforter and two pillows. The comforter and pillows were tied up in a sheet with Mr. Pickett's name on them.

By a simple inadvertence in yesterday's CHRONICLE we omitted to mention the New Columbia hotel among the list of caravansaries that have survived the flames. It has long been the boast of The Dalles that she possesses the best and amplest hotel accommodation of any city on the Pacific coast. One alone, and it the smallest, was in the path of the fire, while the three that remain have sufficient accommodations to board and lodge, if necessary, nearly every person rendered homeless by the fire.

While the teachers who were certainly heroic in their efforts to save the brick school, did all in their power yet they desire it to be understood that Mr. Glasius who imperiled his life deserves the main credit, without him the brick would have been lost. While the heat was so intense as to set fire to the roof of the building and actually did burn the shoes from off his feet he was let down from the ridge to the eve by a rope tied round his body and thus with a wet sponge wiped out the fire. About twenty school children also did very efficient service and deserve very great credit.

Very great credit is due to our special police force for their efficient and untiring services in preserving the peace of the city and protecting the scattered property of its homeless inhabitants from the depredations of the thieves and tramps. Without desiring to make any invidious distinctions we mention with special pleasure the name of Mr. W. O. Bentley, a comparative stranger, who has been on duty in some form or other, ever since the fire began. We learn that Mr. Bentley telegraphed east to his father, when he found that many of our citizens were rendered homeless and almost clothesless, and in response received intimation that a box of clothing would be on the way to The Dalles as soon as possible.

Clear Grit. Everybody knows Harry Hampshire. He is not much bigger than a pint of soap but when it comes to corralling a hobo or rounding up a common drunk Harry is not afraid to tackle the best of them. At nine o'clock last night as the scribe was wending his way homewards the little man was marching his third prisoner to the calaboose—a big strapping fellow who might easily, if size counted more than grit, have put Harry in his pocket and walked off with him. Night before, Harry was appointed on the special force, and supplied with a gun two or three feet longer than himself. His beat was somewhere on Court street and during the night he spied a hobo crawling on his belly towards a bundle of clothing that had been saved from the fire. "What are you doing there," asked Harry. "Looking for a place to sleep," said the hobo. "Come with me and I'll find you a place to sleep," said Harry, as he leaned up his gun against an adjacent wall and col-lared his prisoner, and thus marched him to the city jail and locked him up. Harry was half way towards the jail before he ever thought of his gun and when he had disposed of his prisoner he hastened back and was delighted to find it leaning up against the wall where he had left it. But the long thing was so unhandy that he swapped it off before morning for an ax handle.

A Card of Thanks. To the Editor of the Chronicle: In offering the sincere thanks of my family and myself to the faithful friends whose wonderful exertions saved our residence, we mean to be understood as feeling more than words can express. Those who saw the building surrounded by the flames will appreciate the hard, dangerous and toilsome work required to save it. And, while thanks always are inadequate, yet once more we tender our most heartfelt gratitude to all who did such brave and efficient work for us, and assure them that we shall always hold them in grateful remembrance. GEORGE RUCH.

Mays & Crowe have purchased the entire stock in trade of Fish & Bardon and are now ready for business in the latter's old store. Mrs. J. C. Meins has a large parlor that would be suitable for two gentlemen roomers. 9-4-tf

Additional Losses.

Heppner $2000, insurance $500; Mrs. Heppner $2000, insurance $1000; James Carnaby $1000, no insurance; Wm. Stewart $500, no insurance; Mrs. Kelly $500, no insurance; Mrs. Frisby $500, no insurance; Emil Schanno $6000, insurance $5000; John Sieber $2000, no insurance; W. N. Wiley $5000, insurance $1700; A. R. Thompson $350, no insurance; Frank Egan $2000, insurance $500; Thomas McGrath $1500, insured; J. P. FitzGerald $800, insurance not known; Mrs. Jno. Baldwin $2500, insurance $1500; Mrs. Gray $2000, insurance $1500; Mrs. Kiss $2500, insurance $1500; Smith French $2500, insurance $1500; Mrs. Knags $2500, insurance $1500; Robert Mays $9000, insured; Geo. P. Morgan $4000, insurance $450.

P. J. Nicholas has lost a bundle containing two pillows, one blanket, comforter, two sheets and a quilt, all wrapped up in a flowered bed spread, also a high cane bottom, baby chair.

Mr. S. P. M. Briggs, has lost a large dish case with wooden doors, green screen on sides, lined with red calico; an eight foot light oak extension table and a number of books with the name of Mamie Wagley written on the fly leaf.

The secretary of the relief committee acknowledges the receipt today of fifty dollars in cash subscriptions. The committee appointed to look up those needing aid find many families who are without shelter or food. As soon as the needs are ascertained a list of supplies necessary will be published and a depot established for receiving articles contributed.

Lost Property. Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Ferguson have lost their enlarged pictures.

Mr. W. O. Bentley reports the loss of surveyor's instruments, level, line rods, level rod and chains, set of single harness and a package of men's clothing.

Wm. Nebeck has lost two trunks filled with ladies and children's clothing and a bundle of bed clothes.

There is a small trunk containing a new suit of men's clothes, a child's silk dress etc., at Mr. Wheelton's residence on the bluff.

Wm. Killebrun has lost a trunk containing men's clothing and also a suit of back clothes wrapped in a piece of printed calico.

The Aggregate Loss. The aggregate amount of gross losses by the fire last Wednesday, so far as we have been able to list them, up to the hour of going to press, is a little over $800,000. Nearly all the losses not yet enumerated are in smaller amounts but they must number several hundreds. We think the estimate first made by the CHRONICLE that the total loss will foot up a million dollars is conservatively correct.

Card of Thanks. I wish to record my gratitude and thanks to every man that assisted during the fire in saving my building (occupied by McFarland & French) and I feel under special obligations to Jud Fish, Wm. Moody, Captain Geo. Thompson, Harry Hayes, James Sanners and J. O. Mack. ROBERT MAYS. The Dalles, Sept. 3, 1891.

Notice. The CHRONICLE will be pleased to publish, free of charge, a list of all property that persons may have lost during the fire and cannot find or may have in possession and cannot find the owner. In all cases where convenient, goods may be left at this office.

E. W. Trout has a new 12x14 four feet wall tent for sale cheap. It may be seen at this office.

CHRONICLE SHORT STOPS.

For coughs and colds use 2379. 2379 is the cough syrup for children. For headache use S. B. headache cure. For physic always use S. B. headache cure.

Get me a cigar from that fine case at Snipes & Kinersly's. For O. N. G. diahoroea S. B. pain cure is the best thing known. For ice cream cramp use S. B. pain cure.

Persons leaving the city for a summer outing can have the CHRONICLE sent to them without extra charge. For 4th of July colic use S. B. pain cure.

For 4th of July colic use S. B. pain cure. Chas. Stubbling has received a car load of the famous Bohemian beer which he has now at retail at ten cents a glass or twenty-five cents a quart. This beer is guaranteed to be an eight month's brew and is superior to any ever brought to The Dalles.

For 4th of July colic use S. B. pain cure. Long Ward offers for sale one of the best farms of its size in Sherman county. It consists of 240 acres of deeded land at Erskineville. There is a never-failing spring of living water capable of watering five hundred head of stock daily. The house, which is a large store building with ten rooms attached alone cost $1700. A blacksmith shop and other buildings and the whole surrounded by a good wire fence. Will be sold cheap and on easy terms. Apply by letter or otherwise to the editor of the CHRONICLE or to the owner, W. L. Ward, Boyd, Wasco county, Oregon.

Unnecessary Sufferings. There is little doubt but that many persons suffer for years with ailments that could easily be cured by the use of some simple remedy. The following incident is an illustration of this fact: My wife was troubled with a pain in her side the greater part of the time for three years, until cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has, I think, permanently cured her. We also have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy whenever needed and believe it to be the best in the world. P. M. Boston, Pennville, Sullivan Co., Missouri. For sale by Snipes & Kinersly Druggists.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria. When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Notice. Sealed bids for the Pool Privilege at the third annual fair of the second Eastern Oregon District Agricultural Society will be received at the office of the secretary up to 6 o'clock p. m. Tuesday, Sept. 1st, 1891. The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids. By order of the board of commissioners. J. O. MACK, Secretary. The Dalles, Aug. 20, 1891.

An Old Adage. There is an old adage: "What every body says must be true." Henry Cook, of New Knoxville, Ohio, in a recent letter says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has taken well here. Everybody likes it on account of the immediate relief it gives." There is nothing like it to loosen and relieve a severe cold. For sale by Snipes & Kinersly, druggists, dw

SPECIAL NOTICE. Notwithstanding the fire we still have a half million (500 thousand) feet of ROUGH AND DRESSED LUMBER Suitable for buildings of all kinds; also our PLANING MILL is the only one now in the vicinity and ready to turn out mill work of every description. d9-3 JOS. T. PETERS.

Something New. The bankrupt sale of dry goods, etc., now going on at H. Solomon's old stand is a "new thing" for The Dalles, where a failure in business is a rare occurrence. Close and careful buyers, however, are improving the opportunity by buying goods at greatly reduced prices thereby proving the rule, "What is one man's loss is another's gain." 8-15-tf

NOTICE. R. E. French has for sale a number of improved ranches and unimproved lands in the Grass Valley neighborhood in Sherman county. They will be sold very cheap and on reasonable terms. Mr. French can locate settlers on some good unsettled claims in the same neighborhood. His address is Grass Valley, Sherman county, Oregon.

Twenty Dollars Reward. Parties have been cutting the supply pipes above the city between the flume and the reservoir, thus doing much damage. This must be stopped and a reward of $20 is hereby offered for evidence that will lead to the conviction of persons doing the same. By order of the Board of Directors.

Notice. City taxes for 1891 are now due. Dalles City tax assessment is now in my hand and will be held in my office for sixty days. Sixty days from date, July 18, 1891, city taxes will be delinquent. O. KINERSLY, City Treasurer.

Wanted. A girl to do general house work at a road ranch seventeen miles from The Dalles. Apply at this office. 8-17-tf.

Two Jersey heifer calves were turned loose during the fire, one solid red and one red and white spotted. Will any person knowing of their whereabouts please inform me. J. W. COXSON.

The Northwestern Life Insurance Co OF MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN.

Assets over $42,000,000.00. Surplus over $6,500,000.00.

Prof. E. L. Shuey, Dayton, Ohio. LAGONDA HEIGHTS, SPRINGFIELD, O., June 15, 1891.

DEAR SIR:—Replying to your request for a statement of the facts concerning my experience with the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York in their late settlement with me, I would state that in the early part of 1881, my age being 56 years, I took out a Ten-Payment Life Policy in the amount of $7,512.00. The Tontine period expired early in January of the present year, and the Company then offered me the following terms of settlement:

FIRST—A paid up policy for $40,000 00 And cash $251 69 SECOND—A paid up policy for $4,600 00 THIRD—Surrender my policy, and receive in cash $6,496 80

I was so little satisfied with the results of my investment that I chose the third, cash, proposition, but when I decided, the company, through several of its representatives, labored to induce me to take one of the other forms of settlement, but finding that I was determined to surrender the policy and take the cash, they finally instructed me from the home office to send policy and receipt for the amount, $36,496.80, to their State manager in Cleveland, and he would remit me the amount. I followed their instructions and sent the policy and receipt through my bank in Springfield to our correspondent in Cleveland, only to have it returned from the Cleveland Bank with the information forced me to return it to the New York office, and compelled me to wait some twenty days after I have given no statement endorsing the Equitable, or expressing my satisfaction with their settlement with me. On the other hand I have positively refused to do so. The fact that my return were $5,018.20 less than my total investment renders further comment unnecessary.

During the time I carried the Equitable policy and up to the day when they submitted the above proposition to me, I was kept in total ignorance of the condition of my investment. In marked contrast with this has been my experience with the Northwestern, in which in 1882, I took a Ten-Year Endowment Policy, Ten-Year Tontine, for $10,000, that company having from time to time furnished me with a memorandum of the surplus on my policy over the signature of their actuary; so that while my policy has not yet matured, and will not until next year, I have the satisfaction of knowing that at maturity it will net me from $4,000 to $5,000 more than the face of the policy calls for. Very truly yours, ROSS MITCHELL.
