HOBOS AND FIRE BUGS BEWARE!

The noted "one hundred" have been organized and the climate of The Dalles will soon become remarkably unhealthy for all who cannot satisfactorily account for their presence here.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Dan Crowley of Antelope is in the city.
 R. B. Hood has lost the half of a set of double harness.
 Engineer George Lang has recovered from his late tedious and dangerous illness and is again able to work.

Any person having in possession a barrel containing clothing and unwashed shirts bearing initials S. L. B. will oblige by leaving same at this office.
 Mr. Cooper, the sole owner of the Forepaugh circus, when in town yesterday, generously contributed $50 to the fund for the relief of the sufferers by the late fire.

The Misses Johnston have lost a bureau. It is dark wood and without a mirror and contains some letters and pictures. Any person knowing of the same are requested to leave word at this office.

Our attention has been called to the omission of the name of our esteemed fellow townsman Mr. P. E. Farrelly from the list of sufferers by the great fire. Mr. Farrelly's loss is $4000 without a cent of insurance.

A. S. McAllister, president of The Dalles board of trade, received a telegram today from T. F. Osborne, president of the Portland chamber of commerce, asking if The Dalles needed help and offering assistance, if needed.

Mr. A. S. McAllister and wife returned yesterday from their ranch on the John Day. Mr. McAllister first learned of the disaster that has befallen The Dalles at Cold Camp, beyond Antelope, and not till late did he learn that all his business and household perishables had gone up in the flames.

Mrs. P. E. Farrelly reports the loss of a sheet containing a lot of underclothing on the corner of the sheet is marked M. A. F.; also a barrel of soiled underclothes, sheets, pillow-cases, etc. Any one knowing of the above named articles will please leave word at this office.

A rumor was quite prevalent yesterday to the effect that on account of the fire the circus would not show here according to the bills. There is no foundation whatever for the story. Mr. Cooper assured the writer that the circus will be here on the date named in the bill and carry out everything according to program.

The State Insurance company of Salem, Or., paid all their losses in full last Saturday morning, being the first, we understand, to issue cash checks for their policy holders. Fillion Bros. received $1000, Sam Stroud $900 and Mrs. A. P. Brooks $39. The last amount was for removal expense.

An amusing incident occurred last night at the fire in J. T. Peter's stable. The furniture of a lady named Mrs. Plumel, living east of the place, had been all removed to a place of safety by the willing hands of the circus boys when some of them perceived Mrs. Plumel's family pig in a small adjoining pen and good-naturedly picked him up, although he weighs easily 200 pounds, and carried him to where the furniture was amid the loud protests of the pig himself and the hearty laughter of the bystanders.

Charley Richmond found four ivory harness rings yesterday evening which had been stolen from him in a rather singular manner. Charley had lost all his clothing save what was on his back, and as he was about to go to supper he made some remark about having no coat when a hobo standing by said: "Here Charley, I'll lend you mine."

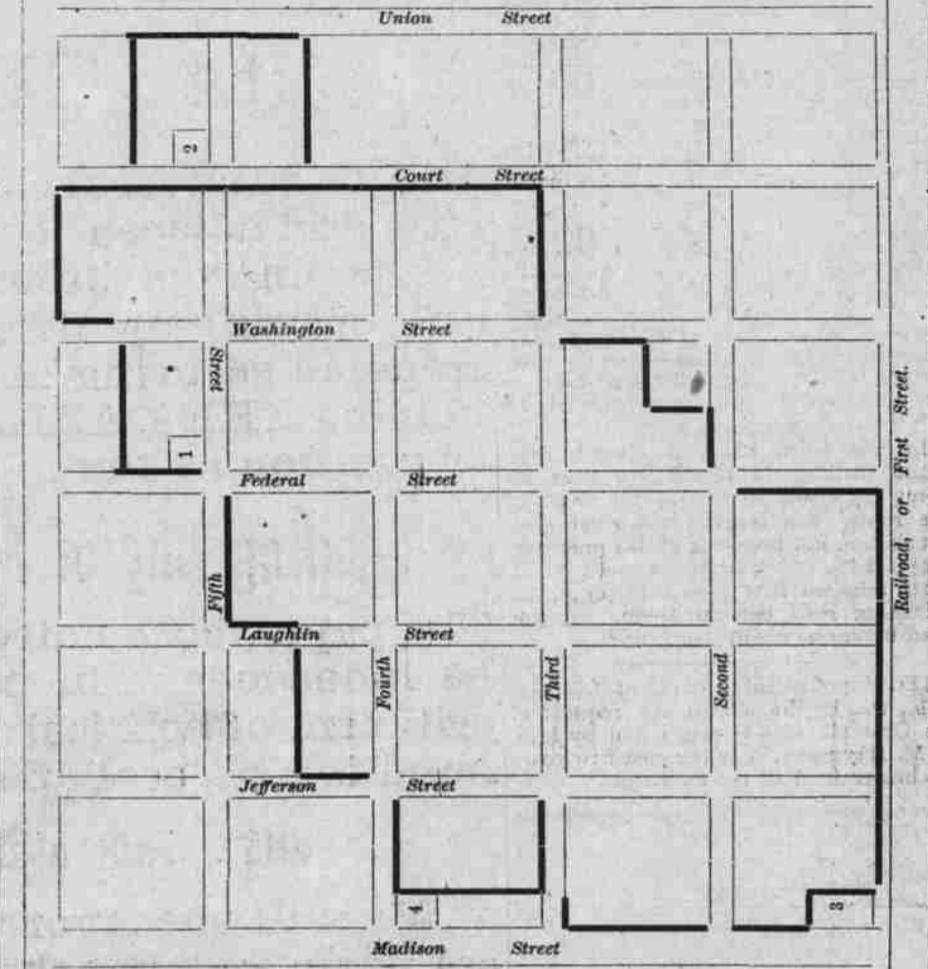

The offer was accepted and about the time Charley got down to the restaurant he discovered the missing rings in the pocket of the coat. Charley hastened back to have the fellow arrested, but he was no where to be found and he has never seen him since.

The council has appointed an additional police force of thirty men to protect the city.

The Forepaugh circus that passed through the city yesterday was undoubtedly the biggest thing of the kind that ever struck this town. They stopped here to feed and rest and while they tarried were visited by hundreds of citizens. They claim to have fifty cars, between 300 and 400 horses, and an army of 530 men and it certainly looked as if the claim were well founded.

The secretary of the relief committee, acknowledges the receipts of the following cash subscriptions: From F. A. McDonald and Mrs. Baldwin of Seattle $31. From C. W. Fulton and A. S. S. Sierneckau and committee of Astoria $212, and from Forepaugh circus $50. Outside subscriptions are thankfully received and appreciated but will not be used until it is demonstrated that our citizens cannot take care of the sufferers. The committee soliciting aid in the way of clothing and supplies are meeting with gratifying success and offers of vegetables and produce are being received from farmers in our vicinity, all having any article to contribute will confer a favor on the committee by leaving the same in the county court room. The secretary requests that all members of the relief committee be present at the meeting tomorrow evening. The last mail brought a subscription of $60. from V. C. Brock contributed by the citizens of Wasco county.

Suicide Followed Suicide.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Sept. 6.—A detailed account of the horrors at the Weston insane asylum in this state has been made public. Suicide has followed suicide, it is charged, for some time among the inmates, and they have all been attended by the most horrible circumstances. Men have killed themselves by boiling to death, and suspension by ropes from the windows. All this has been done in sight of the guards, and no investigation has been made. There seems to have been no inquests held on the dead, and a general inefficiency has been manifested in the management.

Poor Place to Sleep.

WALLA WALLA, Sept. 6.—John Kuhn-hal, a waiter, was today robbed of $69. He went into a saloon, fell asleep, and his pocket was picked. He had a check for $50 on Ladd & Tilton's bank of Portland. The balance was in cash.

At the school election today, B. L. Sharpstein, director, and Henry Kelling, clerk, were unanimously re-elected. The schools and college begin their fall terms Monday.

An Indian and Whiskey.

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 6.—Black Bear, the chief of the Indians on exhibition at Fick's garden, filled up with "firewater" late last night and whipped his squaw. When the other Indians remonstrated, the chief took another pull at his flask and started to clean out the aborigines. He made for Bear Robe in regular fashion, raising a terrible war whoop, and that Indian, not caring for a personal encounter, drew a six-shooter and fired three shots at Black Bear, two taking effect. The chief will not allow the doctors to examine him, but it is thought that one bullet will prove fatal.

San Francisco's Big Turnout.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—The fifth annual observance of Labor Day in San Francisco was marked by a partial suspension of business. The usual parade was held, and about 3,500 men were in line, the brewing and building trades being especially well represented.

In Memoriam.

CASTLE HALL OF FRIENDSHIP LODGE, No. 9, K. of P., THE DALLES, OR., Aug. 31, 1891.
 To the C. C., R. C., officers and members of Friendship Lodge No. 9, K. of P.: WHEREAS: It has pleased the Ruler of the universe to call from our midst Bro. Ward S. Stevens, G. K. of R. & S. of the grand lodge of Oregon, K. of P., therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of brother knight Ward S. Stevens, the grand lodge has lost one of its most earnest workers, whose years of faithful service as G. K. of R. & S. has endeared him to every knight in the jurisdiction;

Resolved, That in the death of Bro. Stevens the order has lost one whose example of Pythian virtues was a standard, and while living we loved and respected him, and now, being dead, we will ever keep fresh and green the remembrances of his many excellent traits of character; that though he lies silent in the tomb the memory of his chivalric conduct will always have a stimulating effect upon our lives and actions, and cause us to emulate his integrity of purpose, honesty in dealings, and charity and benevolence towards the erring and Unnecessary Sufferings.

 There is little doubt but that many persons suffer for years with ailments that could easily be cured by the use of some simple remedy. The following incident is an illustration of this fact: My wife was troubled with a pain in her side the greater part of the time for three years, until cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has, I think, permanently cured her. We also have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy whenever needed and believe it to be the best in the world. P. M. Boston, Pennville, Sullivan Co., Missouri. For sale by Snipes & Kinersly, druggists.

An Old Adage.

There is an old adage: "What every body says must be true." Henry Cook, of New Knoxville, Ohio, in a recent letter says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has taken well here. Everybody likes it on account of the immediate relief it gives." There is nothing like it to loosen and relieve a severe cold. For sale by Snipes & Kinersly, druggists. dw

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Notwithstanding the fire we still have a half million (500 thousand) feet of ROUGH AND DRESSED LUMBER Suitable for buildings of all kinds; also our PLANING MILL is the only one now in the vicinity and ready to turn out mill work of every description.

Something New.

The bankrupt sale of dry goods, etc., now going on at H. Solomon's old stand is a "new thing" for The Dalles, where a failure in business is a rare occurrence. Close and careful buyers, however, are improving the opportunity by buying goods at greatly reduced prices thereby proving the rule. "What is one man's loss is another's gain." 8-15-91

Assets over $42,000,000.00.
 Surplus over $6,500,000.00.

LAGONDA HEIGHTS, SPRINGFIELD, O., June 15, 1891.

Prof. E. L. Shuey, Dayton, Ohio.
 DEAR SIR:—Replying to your request for a statement of the facts concerning my experience with the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York in their late settlement with me, I would state that in the early part of 1881, my age being 56 years, I took out a Ten-Payment Life Policy in the amount of $7,500.00. The Tontine period expired early in January of the present year, and the Company then offered me the following terms of settlement:

FIRST—A paid up policy for.....	$40,000 00
And cash.....	9,750 00
SECOND—A paid up policy for.....	54,500 00
THIRD—Surrender my policy, and receive in cash.....	36,400 80

I was so little satisfied with the results of my investment that I chose the third, cash, proposition, but when I so decided, the company, through several of its representatives, labored to induce me to take one of the other forms of settlement, but finding that I was determined to surrender the policy and take the cash, they finally instructed me from the home office to send policy and receipt for the amount, $36,406.80, to their state manager in Cleveland, and he would remit me the amount. I followed their instructions and sent the policy and receipt through my bank in Springfield to our correspondent in Cleveland, only to have it returned from the Cleveland Bank with the information that the State manager of the Equitable states that he "had not sufficient funds to meet it." This forced me to return it to the New York office, and compelled me to wait some twenty days after maturity before receiving final settlement.

I have given no statement endorsing the Equitable, or expressing my satisfaction with their settlement with me. On the other hand I have positively refused to do so. The fact that my returns were $1,013.20 less than my total investment renders further comment unnecessary.

During the time I carried the Equitable policy and up to the day when they submitted the above proposition to me, I was kept in total ignorance of the condition of my investment.

In marked contrast with this has been my experience with the Northwestern, in which in 1882, I took a Ten-Year Endowment Policy, Ten-Year Tontine, for $10,000, that company having from their actuary; so that while my policy has not yet matured, and will not until next year, I have the satisfaction of knowing that at maturity it will net me from $4,000 to $5,000 more than the face of the policy calls for.

Very truly yours,
 ROSS MITCHELL.
