The Chronicle is the Only Paper in The Dalles that Receives the Associated Press Dispatches.

The world's fair property will be covered by $300,000,000 insurance.

Brother Jackson of the East Oregonian has discovered that man is an individual. Now let the world hold its breath while the CHRONICLE bows in admiration.

The Baker City Blade had an editorial on the 4th inst. on "Laced Aemonian Valor." We bunchgrass editors are ready to tackle any subject on earth.

The Dalles never was a boom town. Like all other solid towns it simply kept pace with the country that supported it.

BUSINESS MEN WILL STAY WITH THE TOWN.

The business men of the city who were burned out during the late fire are displaying remarkable energy in getting ready for business again.

THE DALLES MUST BE IN THE SWIM.

That the city will be largely rebuilt as soon as men and money can do it is beyond question. Stores and dwellings are needed immediately, and as soon as they are erected they will be occupied.

BRIEF STATE NEWS.

Saturday the Salem flouring mills bought 14,000 bushels of wheat at 83 1/2 cents. About 6000 bushels more were bought at 82 cents.

so terribly lacerated that amputation was necessary.

The Brownsville Times says that H. B. Moyer has in contemplation the lighting of Brownsville by electricity, and at the present time is figuring on the expenses and also the incomes to be derived from a "plant."

S. B. Cathcart is arranging to put in a stone sawmill at the head of navigation on North Coos river. There is plenty of first-class rock there with good water power, and stone could be sawed out to order at very little expense.

A regular old-fashioned thunder shower made its appearance in the Harney valley last Wednesday. The rain fell in torrents for about ten minutes, the level ground in this vicinity being entirely covered with water, and the main thoroughfare of Burns resembled a rapidly flowing stream, so great was the volume of water that ran into it from the adjacent hills.

The Lower Powder Irrigation Company has been incorporated at Baker City. The incorporators are A. T. Merwin, Herbert Cranston, and A. d'Espel; capital stock, $10,000; object, to construct a ditch or canal to convert the waters of lower Powder, the canal to be constructed and finished inside of sixty days, will be six miles in length, with capacity of about 1500 inches of water.

The party which left Pendleton a few weeks ago under the direction of Civil Engineers Adams and Gemmill to make the preliminary survey for an extensive irrigation on the Walla Walla and Touchet, have returned. A line was run for a forty-mile canal heading for the mouth of Mill Creek, on the Walla Walla river. The project is so far being carried forward by private capitalists of Umatilla county and Walla Walla.

A big enterprise is nearing completion near Central Point, Jackson county, whereby the Rogue river will be turned into a new channel. The ground has been thoroughly prospected, and shows up in good shape. All the mines of that section have taken a new lease of life since Dr. Breden's stamp mill has been turning out so rich. A number of new locations have been made and development work is the order of the day.

The Count of Paris and the Pope.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The papal court, according to a dispatch from Rome, is deeply moved by the antagonistic attitude assumed by the Count of Paris and French royalists generally toward the papacy on account of the pope's recognition of the French republic.

Hurricane off Nova Scotia.

HALIFAX, Sept. 8.—A furious south-east hurricane, with vivid lightning and torrents of rain, raged here for three-quarters of an hour last evening. The abut and part of the staying, connecting the grain elevator with the deep-water wharves, were blown down. The yachts Youla and Weonath were wrecked.

Admission Day in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—Admission Day, which has been made a legal holiday, commemorating the admission of California into the Union, was generally observed in this city. Nearly all business houses, as well as public buildings, were closed, except for a short time in the forenoon.

A Period of Great Prosperity.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—"Our traffic reports indicate very clearly that a period of great prosperity is just beginning on this coast," said Vice President Crocker of the Southern Pacific company.

The Union Pacific Loans.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Sidney Dillon, president of the Union Pacific Railway Company, said no meeting would be held today for the purpose of ratifying and consummating the agreement by which the syndicate is to advance the necessary money to keep the company's loans.

Timothy Hopkins Will Contest.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—Timothy Hopkins will contest the will of Mrs. Hopkins-Searls, and the contest will be brought in Massachusetts. Definite information of this conclusion was received yesterday by Thomas B. Bishop, attorney for the disinherited contestant.

C. G. Bills, whose insurance was $400 on about $900 worth of property, received the full amount of his insurance today from the Northern Assurance company. Mr. Bills is much pleased with the prompt and generous action of the company.

B. Wolf will give free of rent charge for six months time, any and all of his lots in the East End, to any person who wants to put up a dwelling. At the end of that time the building can be removed or purchased by B. Wolf, as may be agreed on.

A Bettingen has a full stock of stoves, tinware and hardware which he will sell at low figures. Repairing, fitting, and all work connected with the business done reasonably and on short notice.

Liberal Reward.

A liberal reward will be paid for the return of our calligraph No. 2 type, writer which was saved at the time of the fire from Filloon Bros.' office and put into a box car with other stock and fixtures from the art store of D. W. Edwards and returned next day and put out upon the side of the track and from there carried away by some one not the owner. It can be identified among a thousand.

Angs Worth Knowing.

Parties who have in their possession property from the fire whose owner is unknown should express it to the court house at the sheriff's expense.

James White has opened his restaurant at the old Baldwin place on First street, where he is furnishing good meals in every respect for the old price of twenty-five cents.

Waiter—What kind of soup will you have? Beenthere—Just plain. Waiter—What do you mean by that? Beenthere—Without any thumb in it.—Boston Courier.

"Yes," said the editor, as the mad subscriber shot him down, "we said that we were here to stay," and this proves it. Ring up the coffin factory!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Maudie—Good gracious I think there is a man following close behind us. Jennie—Well don't walk so fast, dear. He never can catch up with us.—New York Telegram.

A paper published at The Dalles gives as its reason for not publishing the city council proceedings that it is too busy with job printing. Well, that other might be "job printing," too.—Astorian.

There is a fortune for the milliner who shall devise a bonnet that can be worn in any part of a church and always present the trimmed side to the congregation.—Texas Siftings.

Ethel (fishing for a compliment)—I wonder what he saw in me to fall in love with? Clarissa—That's what everybody says. But men are curious creatures, dear.—New York Press.

Snythe—I hear that Simpkins has just got a pension. He never saw any service did he? Tompkins—No; But he lost his voice urging his neighbors to go to the front.—New York Sun.

St. Peter—Who are you? Applicant.—An humble Texas rainmaker. St. Peter—Um! You'd better apply one story below. They've been complaining of trouble there ever since the country was settled.—New York Herald.

There is a great demand for threshing machines throughout the valley, as every farmer is anxious to get his wheat threshed right away, but, from present indications, it will take some five or six weeks to get the wheat all ready for hauling, preparations for which are now being extensively made.—Kitchkat Leader.

The grangers are alive to the fact that their produce must not be handled so often by outsiders. They have added another sensible business point to their advantage by having scales placed at North Dalles so that the farmers can weigh their own grain before shipment. This is another step in the right direction.—Kitchkat Leader.

French & Co. received a telegram today from Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sherar, dated Nicholasville, N. Y. It read as follows: "One hundred dollars for relief if necessary. Charge to me. Our heartfelt sympathy to citizens. J. H. Sherar." This is so characteristic of Mr. and Mrs. Sherar that we can pay them no higher compliment than to say, "It is exactly like them." May a shadow never cross their path.

Chicago Wheat Market.
