FRIGHTFUL EARTHQUAKE.

Million Dollars' Worth of Property Destroyed and Many Lives Lost.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—The Herald has a cable dispatch from the city of San Salvador saying $1,000,000 worth of property and many lives were lost in that republic by an earthquake today. Whole towns were wiped out, and so far the advices received indicate that hardly a city in the country, except those along the coast, escaped the awful effects of the convulsion. There have been indications for several days past that a seismic disturbance of more than usual power might be expected. The volcanoes of San Salvador, San Miguel and Isalco have been unusually active. A few minutes before 2 a. m. this morning the earth began to shake. The wave had a strong vertical and oscillatory movement. The people rushed into the streets in their night clothing, and while the shock lasted only twenty seconds, before it passed away there was a panic-stricken mob making to the open country outside of the city. Men, women and children were shrieking and praying in the streets. The walls of the houses cracked, tottered and fell. There was a deep continuous rumbling as of heavy thunder. The earth rose and fell in long waves, and the people were unable to keep their feet. All through the morning there have been slight shocks, but none approaching in intensity that which was so destructive. President Ezeta is doing everything he can to stop the panic and care for the homeless people until it is considered safe for them to go back to their homes. The towns throughout the country suffered more severely than the capital. Analquito and Comasagua are completely destroyed. Cojutepedua, Santa Tecla, San Pedro and Mashuta are so badly shaken they are practically ruined, while the shock was plainly felt and much damage done at Santa Ana and other points fully sixteen miles from here. It is impossible at this writing to form any idea as to the number of lives lost. Two people were killed here. It is feared many people were killed in the smaller towns.

THE ITATA MATTERS.

A Compromise Said to Have Been Effected.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The Star this afternoon prints a statement that the Itata is to be returned to the Chilean government in accordance with the terms in compromise effected at the conference between ex-Mayor Grace, of New York, and the Chilean congressional representative here on one hand, and Secretary Tracy and Attorney General Miller on the other. It is not an unconditional surrender of the vessel and simply a backdown on the part of the United States. Though it is very generally agreed now that the Itata could not be held by the United States, the terms of the agreement are that the Chilean government is to pay the United States a sum equal to the expense incurred in pursuing and capturing the Itata, and then the case will be nolle prossed in the courts and the vessel will be turned over to the new Chilean government.

A HOME OF THIEVES.

More Dishonesty Threatened in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10.—Warrants were issued this afternoon for the arrest of mercantile appraisers of Philadelphia. The warrants are based upon charges by City Treasurer Wright that Appraisers Patton, Crawford, Houseman, Hunter and Bell have unlawfully conspired to cheat and defraud the commonwealth of Pennsylvania by making and returning false lists of taxable and false returns of the classification of such taxable, by making unlawful exemptions, by adding names of dead and fictitious persons to the list of taxable and receiving fees therefor, and in other ways cheating and defrauding the commonwealth with intent to make greater gain for themselves. Patton and Hunter have given bail for their appearance Monday; the others have not yet been found.

Another Rumor of a Compromise.

SALEM, Mass., Sept. 10.—Those in a position to be familiar with the Searles will case, say the prospect is good for a compromise before the hearing assigned for two weeks from yesterday. They say the Southern Pacific stock is held together under this will, and that rather than take the risk of breaking up this large block of stock, the parties will pay roundly and that Timothy Hopkins is really the only one who has had a judicial examination.

Poor Investments Did It.

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—A. Milford, Mich., dispatch says: "The Milford state bank failed. The announcement was unexpected and the statement is authorized that the bank will go into the hands of a receiver, who will be appointed in a few days. The amount of liabilities cannot be learned definitely. Unprofitable investments and poorly secured loans are said to be the cause of the difficulty."

A Fatal Mine Accident.

LEBANON, Pa., Sept. 11.—At the Cornwall, Oregon, banks yesterday a car heavily loaded with ore fell from a trestle over the ravine among a number of men at work below, and one man was instantly killed. An Italian, also, was fatally injured, and several others hurt.

AN ALLEGED MURDER

M. B. Curtis, the Well-known Actor Arrested for Murder in San Francisco.

An Unsteady Wheat Market—A Well-known Stockbroker of Philadelphia Takes His Own Life.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—Maurice B. Curtis (Sam'l of Posen), the well-known actor, who shot and killed Police Officer Alexander Grant, who had arrested him last night, tells the following story of the affair: "I was at the Grand Opera House last night with my wife to see Bernhardt in 'Camille.' I left the theatre about 10 o'clock to go to the Tivoli theatre with William Kreling, one of the proprietors. We had a drink together and I left him to return to the Opera House for my wife. When I had reached the corner of Third and Mission streets I was suddenly tumbled into the gutter, and after that I remember nothing only somebody pulling and jerking me about until I found myself in a wagon with handcuffs on my wrists." When Curtis was taken to jail last night he appeared to be under the influence of liquor, and incoherently told of his doings during the night, protesting he had no weapon and that he was innocent of the murder. Curtis is known throughout the United States from the character of "Sam'l of Posen," in a play which was created for him. Curtis was visited by a large number of friends at the city prison this morning. He still adheres to his former statements, and declares that Policeman Grant was shot and killed by some outsider and that he himself is innocent.

An Unsteady Wheat Market.

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—There was a big break in wheat at the opening this morning in comparison with yesterday's closing. The chief cause was the government crop report issued Saturday afternoon which showed an improvement in the condition of wheat. Lower cables were also a factor in the decline. September opened at 95½¢@96, against 97½¢ at the close yesterday, and dropped immediately to 95½¢. Heavy buying orders from outside sources soon forced the price up to 97 and at 11 o'clock it had dropped off ¼¢ from that.

Took His Own Life.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 11.—About 8 o'clock this morning the janitor of the Haehulen building discovered the dead body of Charles M. Stokes jr., the well-known stock broker, lying on the floor of his office. There was a bullet hole through the dead man's head and beside his body lay a revolver with one chamber discharged. The case was evidently suicide.

Stokes was about 60 years of age, and one of the best known stock brokers in this city. He leaves a wife and six children.

GARROTTED AND ROBBED.

A Portland Man Knocked Down and Robbed by Footpads.

PORTLAND, Sept. 11.—About 9 o'clock last night John Forbes, a well-to-do laboring man, was held up and robbed by footpads on Thirteenth and L streets. They relieved him of a valuable watch and chain. He was going home up Thirteenth street, and as he reached L he noticed two men coming toward him. He met them in the middle of the west crossing, and they parted to let them go between. One of them however, fell behind and the other went on.

The first grabbed him by the throat and planted his knee on Forbes' breast, the second man taking a hold from behind. Forbes soon fell. He was unable to cope with two of them. They had him on his back and rifled his pockets. Finding nothing they were about to leave in disgust, and as Forbes was coming to hear one say, "He has nothing." "Yes, he's got a ticker," said the other man. They secured his watch, pipe and tobacco, and he yelled out: "Murder! thieves!" A street car was passing, but no one heeded it and he was left.

He Married a King's Daughter.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—Lieutenant V. C. Brant, formerly an officer in the British government, but now a son-in-law of Massinia, king of the Umbrograto, a nation of Africa, who has about 4,500,000 subjects, is in the city. Brant, while exploring and soldiering in central Africa, was employed to organize a military system for Massinia, and married Princess Umzein, heir-apparent to the throne.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.

A Wealthy Young Englishwoman in Chicago Cannot be Found.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Miss Ava, a wealthy Englishwoman who came to Chicago recently to raise the standard of living in the slums, is reported to the police as missing. She had been stopping at the residence of Rev. Dr. Bolton. Last evening Miss Ava and Mrs. Bolton drove to the Jesuit church on the West Side. Miss Ava entered the building, telling her companion she only intended having a few minutes' conversation with a priest. Mrs. Bolton waited for half an hour, and finally became alarmed when Miss Ava did not return. She remembered that the missionary had spoken of receiving letters in which her life was threatened, and feared she had come to harm. Mrs. Bolton at once notified the police. Detectives who were sent out learned from the priest at the church that Miss Ava called, and after fifteen minutes' conversation about religious matters, had gone away. All attempts to gain any clue to the whereabouts after that time thus far have been fruitless. Miss Ava is said to be very wealthy and has devoted her time and money to indulging her hobby for "slumming." Her friends say her crusade against wrong has made her many enemies who have threatened her life. She came to Chicago the first of last month to carry on a work which she had acquired a taste for doing in London. Several days ago she purchased a house on the West Side. Mr. Mingay said he could not imagine what had become of Miss Ava. When she first came here, he said, she continually complained. She was afraid the Catholics would take her life. Tuesday she received a letter, and when she read it became excited. Mingay has no idea why she should go to the Catholic church.

A COLORED FANATIC.

Advises His Congregation to arm and Exterminate the Whites.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 10.—Rev. Taylor S. Nightingale, pastor of the largest colored Baptist church in the United States, has created a decided sensation by advising his flock to arm themselves with Winchesters for the purpose of exterminating the whites. Those who know what influence the average negro preacher has over his people will appreciate the effect of such advice. A large number of his people actually adopted his advice and have purchased repeating rifles. Another faction of the better element opposed him, however, and for opposing him the pastor excommunicated this faction, and at a church meeting last night those who belonged to it were ordered to leave. Not going quickly enough, the pastor and his supporters attempted to eject them, and a rough-and-tumble free fight took place. Today a dozen or more of each faction were arrested on warrants, and the fight waxed bitter. The whites are much incensed at the incendiary language used by the preacher, and he will be handled by the grand jury.

CHILIAN SILVER.

The Junta Will Fight for the Money Stolen.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—Council on behalf of the Chilean junta has applied to the high court for an order restraining the owners and officers of the steamer Mollie from parting with the possession of Chilean silver with which she is expected to arrive at Southampton sometime this week, except by depositing the same in the Bank of England. The junta also applies for an order restraining the Plata Za bank, which made advances against the silver in question, from endorsing bills relating thereto. The judge allowed notice to be served next Wednesday. In the meantime temporary restraining orders were granted.
