LOCAL BREVITIES.

James P. Abbott of Wapinitia gave the CHRONICLE office a pleasant call today.

Mr. John A. Wilson of Hood River is in the city attending the business in the Norton, started across the river this land office.

Water will be turned into the new supply main, for the first time, this evening.

Mayor Mason formally opened the great Portland Exposition last night. Over 8000 people were present.

J. W. Elton will go down to Portland this evening, to purchase material for pective merits and estimated cost of six houses he and his partner, W. P. Mounts, have contracted to build in the burnt district.

A number of men belonging to the ized the purchase of 3000 feet, of four Portland Asphaltium company which inch pipe for laying new mains and suphas the contract for coating the new res- planting others of a smaller size in ditervoir, arrived in town yesterday and ferent parts of the city. McPherson will henceforth be a reader of the CHRONICLE.

Master Charles P. Lewis, son of Captain Lewis, returned this week from 9-5td. Grant county, where he has been spending the holidays.

Dr. Tucker left this afternoon, over the Canadian Pacific, for a short visit to his aged parents at Kausing, Michigan, after an absence of fourteen years. He expects to return on or about October fifth.

Signal Service Observer Pague, writing to J. O. Mack of this city and thanking him for the courtesy of a complimentary ticket to the district fair says: 'You have the material in your district for a most successful fair and I hope that the people may make their fair a success."

Complaints have been made at this office that the road between this city and Eight Mile is in a bad condition, being so full of chuck holes that it is dangerous to haul hay over it. If this state of affairs is allowed to continue what will it be when grain hauling is in full blast? The road ought to be attended to immediately.

Three common drunks were arrested last night and brought before his honor the recorder this morning. Two were fined the usual amount and the third.

8:45 Wednesday evening. In Portland Saturday; Light rain. Southerly the shock lasted about fifteen seconds during which the floors of buildings swayed to and fro, bottles rattled on druggists' shelves and people felt queer in the region of the stomach. In Salem it was one abrupt shock of short duration followed by gentle undulations which exhausted themselves in about four seconds. Wonder if the Portland exposition and state fair had anything to do with it.

> V. G. Bogue an eminent engineer, formerly chief engineer of the whole Union Pacific system, accompanied by two other engineers Messrs. Oliver and morning to examine the route for the portage railroad as located by the Paul Mohr company. These gentlemen went over The Dalles and Deschutes Portage Railway's route yesterday. Mr. Bogue has been appointed to this work by the Portland Chamber of Commerce to which body he will report as to the reseach route.

An Old Adage.

There is an old adage: "What every body says must be true." Henry Cook, of New Knoxville, Ohio, in a recent letter says: "Chamberlain's Cough Rem edy has taken well here. Everybody likes it on account of the immediate relief it gives." There is nothing like it to loosen and relieve a severe cold. For sale by Snipes & Kinersly, druggists. dw
