The Dalles Chronicle

The Daily

four pages of six columns each, will be issued every evening, except Sunday, and will be delivered in the city, or sent by mail for the moderate sum of fifty cents a month.

Its Objects

will be to advertise the resources of the city, and adjacent country, to assist in developing our industries, in extending and opening up new channels for our trade, in securing an open river, and in helping TEE DALLES to take her proper position as the Leading City of Eastern Oregon.

The paper, both daily and weekly, will be independent in politics, and in its criticism of political matters, as in its handling of local affairs, it will be

JUST, FAIR AND IMPARTIAL.

We will endeavor to give all the local news, and we ask that your criticism of our object and course, be formed from the contents of the paper, and not from rash assertions of outside parties.

THE WEEKLY, sent to any address for $1.50 per year. It will contain from four to six eight column pages, and we shall endeavor to make it the equal of the best. Ask your Postmaster for a copy, or address

THE CHRONICLE PUB. CO.

Office, N. W. Cor. Washington and Second Sts

The Dalles Cigar : Factory, FIFTH STREET.

FACTORY NO. 105.

CIGARS of the Best Quality, sold for 10c. units from all parts of the country shipped in cases.

The Dailes Chronicle will accept no responsibility for the contents of this advertisement.

The requirement of THE DALLES CHRONICLE for their advertisement is 33 1/3 per cent. for the time stated.

S. B.

Clevland, What.

The Dalles Chronicle. (1911-1912)

- This newspaper was published in The Dalles, Oregon, from 1911 to 1912.
- The content includes news articles, advertisements, and possibly some editorial content.
- The newspaper covers local events, business, and community news.
- The ads indicate that the newspaper is advertising various products and services.
- The content is typical of newspapers from the early 20th century, with a focus on local news and information.

The newspaper's name is mentioned multiple times, suggesting it is an important reference in the context of the text. The content is presented in a clear, readable format, indicating that it was produced for mass consumption.

Overall, the content is a mix of news, advertisements, and possibly some editorial content, reflecting the typical format of newspapers from the early 20th century.