CONCEALMENT UNNECESSARY. It is no longer necessary to conceal the name of the person who, under the nom-de-plume of "One Who Knows," recently made two attacks upon Superintendent Farley in the pages of the Oregonian.

Secretary Foster is the best croquet player in Washington, and is so far ahead of all competitors that they don't try to pit themselves against him. Colonel James Fenner Lee, secretary of the United States legation to Brazil, left Rio de Janeiro for Baltimore on the 1st of September on a leave of absence for some months.

We publish in another place the report in full which Superintendent Farley submitted to the board of Portage commissioners at the meeting held at Portland on the 29th ult. The deep interest which the people of Eastern Oregon have taken in every step which has led up to this first installment of an open river will justify its length.

BRIEF STATE NEWS.

W. H. Stull, the slayer of John Locknane, was sentenced at Heppner to ten years in the penitentiary. Agent Lucky, of the Warm Springs reservation, says that the grain crops destroyed last summer by the crickets, took a second growth and the Indians are now cutting the new crop for hay.

tendency to ease up the cattle growers and enable them to rest more comfortably financially.

The La Grande Gazette, from all appearances, seems to have fully recovered from the effects of the conflagration that swept over the beautiful city of La Grande a few months ago.

The Indians themselves are bridging the Warm Spring river at the agency. Every bridge that has been constructed over this stream so far has washed out.

Salmon are taken with the hook and line quite frequently off the mouth of the Columbia river and just inside, and the tugboat men have been enjoying rare sport for the past two weeks.

Mark Twain is thinking of descending the River Rhine in a boat with his courier, and work up his adventures for his next book. Secretary Foster is the best croquet player in Washington, and is so far ahead of all competitors that they don't try to pit themselves against him.

GENERAL PERSONAL MENTION.

Colonel James Fenner Lee, secretary of the United States legation to Brazil, left Rio de Janeiro for Baltimore on the 1st of September on a leave of absence for some months.

Mrs. Annie Falkenburg, of New York, can clearly remember the great Napoleon, having seen him mounted on his black charger at the head of his troops during the invasion of Germany.

Roswell P. Flower will go thundering down the ages as the man who, when he was in congress, got leave to print the whole of the constitution of the United States as a part of his speech.

Isabella of Spain, traveling incognito as the Countess of Toledo, was recently carried up to a Swiss glacier and back, a task of no little difficulty and burden.

On account of the physical infirmities of Bishop Galleher, of Louisiana, his duties have for the most part been assumed by his assistant, the Rev. David Sessums, who is to all intents and purposes the bishop of the diocese.

It is declared on authentic British authority that there is but one British officer left who fought at Waterloo, and all pretenders are warned to ring off and die as modest folks as they were born.

Artesian Wells.

The enterprising Boreman Brothers, of this city, who own a piece of land at the foot of the hills west of this city have struck an artesian well which flows water three feet above the surface of the ground.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bittenbender, of Lincoln, Neb., have both been nominated by the prohibitionists for judicial positions, the husband for district judge and the wife to the supreme bench.

As long as the child "reciprocity" continues to thrive and grow it does not matter about who is its father. Let it go as Uncle Sam's baby, and let every patriotic American stand ready to do duty as nurse in case it takes any of the numerous diseases partial to growing children and extend it to all people.
