LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mr. S. R. Brooks of Three Mile gave the CHRONICLE office a pleasant call today.

Messrs. L. Rice and William Hastings of Dufur paid this office a pleasant call today.

Senator Fulton of Astoria is said to be receiving strong endorsements from the Portland and Astoria bar for the vacant circuit judgeship.

Two victims of the cup that both cheers and inebriates all at the same time, were pulled in last night and duly fined this morning by his honor the recorder.

The amount of money received in this city from insurance companies, on account of losses by the great fire, will not vary a thousand dollars, either way, from $275,000.

The whole amount of the contributions received for the sufferers by the late fire amounted to something over $5000, a considerable portion of which has been already distributed.

The marshal has received orders from the mayor to vigorously prosecute the cow ordinance. All stock found running at large, at any time of the day or night, are liable to be impounded.

P. Willig received yesterday a new fall supply of elegant coatings and pants material which he is ready to make up in the highest style of art and at reasonable prices. Call and see him.

Tomorrow, Oct. 4th, Billy Graham of the Opera Eating house will serve another game dinner, consisting of wild duck, grouse, pheasant, gray squirrel, bear and venison.

It will perhaps be a surprise to many to learn that the number of children enrolled in the common schools of this city is the largest that has ever been enrolled during the first month of the term, in all her history.

W. N. Wiley is putting up for Ward & Kerns at the old stand, a stable 50x100 feet. It will be roofed with corrugated iron, will contain 70,000 feet of lumber and will accommodate, when finished thirty-three head of horses.

There still remains at the court house, awaiting ownership, the following articles which were rescued from the fire: A walnut rocking chair, upholstered in red plush and an arm chair to match; a walnut center table; two upholstered parlor chairs a good deal worn, one brown, the other green; a child's rocker; a silver plated cruet stand, with cut-glass bottles; a lot of wool tied up in a single blanket; three comforters and three pieces of white marble.

Yesterday Emile Schanno and M. T. Nolan made a trip on the Regulator to the Cascade Locks and return. In a conversation with Mr. Schanno this morning that gentleman expressed himself as most agreeably surprised at the amount of work that has been done for the amount of the appropriation made, the apparent substantial character and excellence of the work and the reasonably short time in which it was accomplished.

The enterprise of our citizens is well illustrated by the vigorous steps that our esteemed fellow townsman, F. L. W. Skibbe is taking to restore his lost fortune. There are some men whom misfortune cannot down and Fred is undoubtedly one of them.

A Quiet Wedding.

A delightful wedding party met on the evening of October 1st, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Potter, of the Hood River valley, to celebrate the marriage of Homer McFarland of Heppner and Miss Hattie Day Potter. There were present the celebrant, Rev. W. L. McEwan, and Mrs. McEwan, Mr. and Mrs. C. McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. F. McFarland, Mr. E. B. McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. Bishop, Mrs. Middleton, Mr. E. M. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. W. Potter and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Potter.

Single Tax Again.

GRASS VALLEY, Or., Sept. 28, 1891. Editor of the Chronicle: In an editorial in your issue of September 18th, in replying to the East Oregonian, you assume that a single tax assessor must necessarily violate his oath. Let me say that all that single tax folks expect or claim at present is that the present laws should be strictly adhered to in order that people can see their injustice.

Management of the Portage Road.

Two letters recently appeared in the Oregonian on the management of the work on the portage railway at Cascade Locks. In these letters Superintendent Farley was sharply criticized. It was a public matter, a matter relating to public business, and as a responsible name—that of Turner F. Leavens—was given as the author, the letters were printed.

When these letters appeared Mr. Leavens was at a distance in the state of Washington with a surveying party. Not till he returned last Thursday evening did he have an opportunity of disavowing all knowledge or connection with either of the letters. Mr. Leavens denies having written the letters; denies all authorship, and denies having given anyone permission to use his name in writing them.

The Dalles paper makes this additional statement: The animus of the attacks is fully understood, and the time may come when their authorship will be fully exposed; meanwhile they have failed in their object, and the solitary fact that there yet remains, after the road is open for traffic, fully $8000 to furnish necessary conveniences, is itself a sufficient answer to a cowardly enough to steal another man's name to fight under.

Another Donation From Portland.

Mayor Mason received the following communication yesterday, enclosing a check for $264. The thanks of the people of this city are gratefully extended to the citizens of Portland and to Messrs. J. F. Cordray & Co. for their very generous contribution to the needs of the sufferers by the great fire.

Hon. Robert Mays, Mayor, The Dalles, Or.

My Dear Sir: Enclosed find check of John F. Cordray & Co., for proceeds of benefit given the sufferers by fire in your city. This will close present contributions. We sincerely hope the liberality of our people may relieve some of those who are now destitute in your city.

The Northwestern Life Insurance Co OF MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN.

Assets over $42,000,000.00. Surplus over $6,500,000.00.

LARGEST HEIGHTS, SPRINGFIELD, O., June 15, 1891.

DEAR SIR:—Replying to your request for a statement of the facts concerning my experience with the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York in their late settlement with me, I would state that in the early part of 1891, my wife being 66 years, I took out a Ten-Payment Life Policy in the Equitable upon their Ten-Year Tontine Plan, for $40,000. My premiums during the period amounted to $67,524.00. The Tontine period expired early in January of the present year, and the Company then offered me the following terms of settlement:

FIRST—A paid up policy for $10,000.00. And cash 9,551.60. SECOND—A paid up policy for 54,600.00. THIRD—Surrender my policy, and receive in cash 38,426.80. I was so little satisfied with the results of my investment that I chose the third, cash, proposition, but when I so decided, the company, through several of its representatives, labored to induce me to take one of the other forms of settlement, but finding that I was determined to surrender the policy and take the cash, they finally instructed me from the home office to send policy and receipt for the amount, $38,426.80, to their State manager in Cleveland, and he would remit me the amount. I followed their instructions and sent the policy and receipt through my bank in Springfield to our correspondent in Cleveland, only to have it returned from the Cleveland bank with the information that the State manager of the Equitable states that he "had not sufficient funds to meet it." This forced me to return it to the New York office, and compelled me to wait some twenty days after maturity before receiving final settlement. I have given no statement endorsing the Equitable, or expressing my satisfaction with their settlement with me. On the other hand, I have positively refused to do so. The fact that my returns were $1,013.30 less than my total investment renders further comment unnecessary. During the time I carried the Equitable policy and up to the day when they submitted the above proposition to me, I was kept in total ignorance of the condition of my investment. In marked contrast with this has been my experience with the Northwestern, in which in 1882, I took a Ten-Year Endowment Policy, Ten-Year Tontine, for $10,000, that company having from their actuary; so that while my policy has not yet matured, and will not until next year, I have the satisfaction of knowing that at maturity it will net me from $4,000 to $5,000 more than the face of the policy calls for. Very truly yours, ROSS MITCHELL.
