LOCAL BREVITIES.

Circuit court began today in Sherman county.

A. M. Branner of Nansene was in town today.

Dr. D. Siddall has returned from a week's visit to the Portland exposition.

Messrs. C. G. Roberts and George T. Prather, of Hood River, came up on the noon train today.

D. W. Edwards came up from East Portland yesterday where he has established himself in his old line of business.

Judge Bradshaw and attorneys J. L. Story, B. S. Huntington, George Watkins and W. H. Wilson have gone to Wasco to attend Circuit court.

The Dalles, Portland & Astoria Navigation company are meeting with very flattering patronage. The people are standing solidly in with them and they have all the freight and passenger business that can conveniently handle.

Fred Houghton has let the contract for the erection of a handsome cottage on the northwest corner of Sixth and Court, on the lot just below the bluff and north of the residence of his father-in-law Mr. W. Lord.

The president of The Dalles Typographical Union received yesterday a postal order from the Oregonian baseball club for $24.25. The amount was realized from tickets sold for a game between the Oregonian and Lewis & Dryden clubs and is intended for the benefit of The Dalles printers who suffered losses from the late fire.

The locomotive for the portage railroad was at Wallula yesterday, parts of it however had been shipped by another train and had not arrived. It is not expected that any unnecessary delay will occur on the Northern and Mr. Farley has a man at Wallula who will see that there is no delay after the engine has got on the track of the Union Pacific.

The tickets are now on sale for the band boys' ball and every citizen ought to buy one. Every dollar thus obtained will be devoted to the purchase of instruments and music for the band, to supply the place of those lost in the great fire. When the band is reorganized it will no longer be an adjunct of the militia but The Dalles brass band. Every citizen ought to invest at least a dollar, in the enterprise, whether he may want to attend the ball or not.

Very few know that there is an addition to Dalles City called the Bellevue addition. It is situated between three and four miles south of the court house, on a hill on the east side of Mill Creek and opposite the fruit ranch of A. Urquhart. Its surface is an incline of about half pitch, so steep in fact, that a coyote could scarcely climb it. It comprises forty acres of what was originally state land and it was purchased from the state about two years ago by a smooth tongued young gentleman from Portland who had it laid out in lots, had a fine cut made showing the lordly Columbia rolling at its foot and then sold it to the suckers in Portland at from $25 to $50 a lot. Bellevue addition is duly recorded in the office of the county clerk, the lots have all been sold and the smooth-tongued young gent aforesaid has gone east to live on the fruits of his rascality. Next.

One common drunk and one hobo were brought before the recorder this morning and fined the usual amount.

The east bound passenger was delayed 45 minutes at Vineto this forenoon by reason of a bridge at that place being out of repair.

Mr. O. Kinserly will, as soon as possible, commence the erection of two cottages on his lot on the northwest corner of Fifth and Union.

The Oregon experiment station at Corvallis, through Prof. H. T. French, will send to any farmer in the state who applies for it, and agrees to give it careful cultivation, two varieties of new wheat to test its qualities for cultivation in the state.

We regret very much to hear that Hon. E. L. Smith is still under the physician's care. He was barely able to pay a short visit to his home at Hood River, to attend his daughter's wedding, when he returned to Portland where he is now under the care of one of Portland's most eminent physicians.

The town of Condon had a fire on the night of the 27th ult., that, starting in the livery stable of Ward & Glasco, burned the photograph gallery, W. Rhinehart's dwelling, Dunlap's blacksmith shop, Ward's hotel and C. C. Shaw's barber shop. In a trunk in the photograph gallery was $1200 in coin and $1000 in currency. The gold was found after the fire. The loss was about $7000. Opinion is divided as to the origin of the fire and it is quite probable that it was merely accidental.

A hard-working son of the Emerald Isle named Pat Kennedy, for several years a resident of Pendleton, received a dispatch a few days ago from Duluth, Minn., informing him that he was one of seven heirs to property valued at $9,000,000 which was left by Pat's uncle, one Henry Fitzsimmons, a former rich resident of Calcutta, India, and which has been in the English court of chancery for years. When Pat received the news of his good fortune he simply said, "Well, if it comes O'll have a good time wid it anyhow."

The CHRONICLE regrets to hear of the death of John Bolton, of Kingsley, which took place at his residence at one o'clock p. m. on Saturday, the 3rd inst. While his demise was not unexpected it came at last suddenly. Only a few days ago a physician from this city was called in who found his system completely broken down and from the first the doctor had but faint hope of his recovery. Mr. Bolton was an honest man, a good neighbor, a kind father, and an affectionate husband. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss. The funeral took place today at 12 o'clock.

A Kind Editor. Editor Bowmer of the Weston Leader has always been noted for his kindness and liberality, and the following touching incident is only a further proof of his humanity to mankind in general and to those whom he has long loved in particular.

Recently a subscriber to the Leader died and left fourteen years' subscription unpaid. Editor Bowmer appeared at the grave in solemn black attire with his stovetop well over his eyes in a manner suggestive of tears, and, just before the undertaker screwed the lid on for the last time the grief-stricken pen-pusher gently placed in the coffin a linen duster, a thermometer, a palm-leaf fan, a recipe for making lye and a copy of the Leader printed on asbestos.

Go It. Hood river Glacier: The Hood River Glacier has the largest circulation of any paper in the county. It is more widely disseminated than all the others combined, being read from Celilo to Scappoose, and from Cooper's Spur to Skookum Chuck. This makes it the best possible advertising medium. This is not literally true, but we intend to be in the swim if it exhausts the material we wash our forms with. Dalles papers will please take notice that we intend to get there if the concentrated lye will do it.

The Red Men's lodge at Jacksonville gave up its charter last week, after an existence of twenty years. During staying times it was the strongest lodge in the county, and was in the habit of exchanging visits with Yreka lodge at annual reunions, when hundreds of people would travel between those distances to see the festivities, and the day (May 12) would be important as the 4th of July.

A little Detroit girl was bidding her boy playmate good-bye, and on this occasion her mother told her to kiss him. She offered him a roguish cheek, and when the salute was gravely given, began to rub it vigorously with her handkerchief. "Why, Laura," said her mother, "you're not rubbing it off?" "No, mamma," said the little maiden, "I'm rubbing it in."—Detroit Free Press.

Sandy Olds, the Portland gambler who murdered Emil Weber and after being tried three times got off with a year in the penitentiary, spends his time in the kitchen of that institution for the most part peeling potatoes. Sandy's time will be up next March.

The railroads of the country employ 700,000 men. Each year they lose 2,000 of their number in killed, and 20,000 of them are injured annually. It is estimated that 3,000,000 people depend on these employes for a living.

The Kaiser has ordered a crown to exactly fit his head. It is built the size he thinks his head is, it will go down over his ears.

Her Sweet William.

Klamath Star: A nice young lady who has been visiting in Linkville during the summer, but who must go home and attend to her education, gave the editor the following: "I hate to leave this gentle clime where it is summer all the time. And the fields are always fair. And the sweet William blossoms there." Your sweet William, fair lady, has killed a whole lot of time blossoming around, and the prospect is that he will kill a whole lot more doing the same thing before he gets through. It is possible that he may wreck his constitution weaning calves for his pa, or he may fall ill, well, but it is quite probable that he will continue to blossom until he is baldheaded.

A banking institution has been established at Weston, Umatilla county, with a capital of $50,000. It is a citizens' bank and is called the Farmers' Savings bank of Weston. No stockholder is permitted to hold more than ten shares, at the par value of $100 each.
