Sound health is a prime necessity for any worker in the world, no matter what the line of work may be, but it becomes of the greatest importance if the work is to be carried on in the school-room. There not only the physical, but the nervous and mental forces are taxed to their utmost.

Besides this she is to stimulate their brains, and a certain amount of time—usually prescribed by a board of education, the members of which know little of the capacity and possibilities of the youthful mind—is allotted her, in which she must, somehow or other, succeed in teaching them a certain number of facts—no allowance being made for the slowness, stupidity or disorder, which increases the friction of the work and delays the doing.

The difference between "hard" and "soft" water is that the former contains in greater or less degree earthy salts, while the latter is nearly free from them and in a greater state of purity.

Whenever water is in contact with the soil it invariably dissolves the soluble constituents, and hence it follows that water springing from rocks which are only slightly soluble, as sandstone and granite, is very pure and is called soft water, while that which is derived from calcareous formations is termed hard water, and contains lime, which produces an incrustation on the sides and bottom of the vessel wherein it is boiled.

The Cathcart case has been one of the longest trials of our time, and when everything has been "totted up," will prove to have been one of the most expensive. Sir C. Russell had 150 guineas marked on his brief, besides a special fee of 100 guineas, and fifty guineas a day during the sixteen days the inquiry has lasted.

The typewriter was invented as long ago as 1714 by one Henry Mills, who in that year obtained a patent in this country for a device that "would write printed characters one at a time, or one after the other."

There is a minister in Brooklyn who told the writer a harrowing tale of deception of which he was the victim. After he had performed the marriage ceremony for a young couple at the parsonage, the bridegroom slipped a fat envelope between the leaves of the family Bible, nodding pleasantly, as if to say: "You've well earned it."
