ARID LANDS.

An example of what can be done for the reclamation of arid lands under Klickitat county, Wash., where the voters of the middle irrigation district will soon vote upon the question of bonding legislative stimulus is being given in the district for half a million dollars for the purpose of constructing an irrigating ditch fifty miles long, twelve feet wide at the bottom and eighteen at the top, to carry four feet of water, or a sufficient quantity to irrigate 40,000 acres of land at an estimated cost of $5 an acre.

Shrewd observers of political affairs strongly suspect that David B. Hill would not be utterly heart-broken should the republicans elect their governor this year and in confirmation of their theory they point to Hill's speech at Malone in which he advocated the passage of a law reducing the rate of interest from 5 to 6 per cent.

If rain-maker Melbourne is a fraud, he has a singular way of doing business. We understand he acts upon the principle of certain physicians who advertise "no cure no pay." If Melbourne is hired to produce rain and no rain comes nobody is out anything but himself.

The enterprising editor of the Tacoma News is advocating the holding of the next national democratic convention at Tacoma. He proposes to start four special trains from Portland, Maine, New York, Washington, D. C., and some point in Florida. Each train shall pick up delegates in the district of country through which it passes. The longest trip which any man will have to make will occupy four days and the democrats of the northwest will pay all the expenses. "Tacoma," says the News man, "has more and bigger hotels than any city five times her size and we will have finished, early next year, another new one that will cost a million and a half. We will pay all hotel bills and if the national committee desires a guarantee of good faith we will place with them a certified check for $20,000 that our program will be carried out."

Those who are demanding the Sunday closing of the world's fair have met with a class of allies where they least expected. They seem to have the impression that if the fair should be kept closed on Sundays the visitors would crowd into the churches. But the Chicago saloon keepers know human nature a little better and they are earnestly seconding the pious efforts of the Sabbatharians, well knowing that the success of the Sunday closing movement means thousands of dollars in their own pockets.

BRIEF STATE NEWS.

Flour is retailing in Long Creek at $8 a barrel. However, there will be a roller mill in operation soon and the price will then come down.

Deputy Sheriff Cochran, of Eugene, who has just returned from Gardiner, says Albertson is improving daily and is now able to sit up. It will be about one week yet, however, before he is moved to Tacoma.

The parties who were boring for oil at Hubbard, in Marion county, and lost their anger at a depth of 360 feet, have begun operations again. They are Pennsylvania oil men, and are confident that there is oil in Oregon.

In the divorce case of M. W. McMurry and wife, at Eugene, an agreement has been reached, the defendant, McMurry, paying to the plaintiff the sum of $1000, and the further sum of $1500 to E. R. Skipworth as guardian of the children of the defendant and plaintiff, the latter fund to be used for their benefit.

A meeting of a number of the large taxpayers of Eugene was held Wednesday evening, and it was agreed to fight the present levy of taxes under which no indebtedness was deducted. They will employ counsel and ask the city to sue one person for his taxes, for the purpose of making a test case.

The assessment rolls of Grant county for 1890 show the net value of taxable property to be $1,209,570 while that of 1891 is $1,199,840. The tax roll shows an increase in the number of polls and taxpayers while due to an increased indebtedness, the net value of taxable property has been decreased $9730.

The woods are full of people up at the head of tide, says the Florence West. They are people from the Willamette valley mostly, and are there camping out for a few days, and are loading their wagons with fish, which they intend salting. The steamer Coos has taken up for these people as many as 500 fine salmon this week.

Ether Roeder, a woman of the street in Astoria, went to bed drunk with a lighted cigarette in her mouth. An hour afterward smoke was seen issuing from the room, and an entrance being effected the unfortunate woman was found to be dreadfully burned on her neck, face, breast and shoulders. She was removed to the hospital.

It is estimated that $40,000 will be required for county purposes. A tax levy of sixteen mills has been made—one-tenth of a mill for the state university; five mills, school; two mills, road; eight and nine-tenths mills, county. The tax roll for the county foots up $4,800,000, about $5,000,000 less than the city—that is, the entire county of Clatsop is worth $5,000,000 less than one corner of it. In mathematics, says the Astorian, "the whole is equal to the sum of its parts," but the assessors are different.

The pioneers of Coos county have decided to hold a grand rally at Coquille City on the 5th day of next November at one o'clock p. m., for the purpose of organizing a society. All those who settled in Coos county prior to 1888 are invited to attend the meeting. Judge Lowe, G. M. Deer, John Hamblock, J. Henry Schroeder, Captain W. H. Harris, Richard Cussans, Charles Merchant, Alex. Stauff, I. Hacker, David Holland, and W. P. Hermann are a committee to advance the organization.

GENERAL PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Besant will go to India on a lecturing tour and will be a new departure among the Orientals, who only allow their women folks to lecture in the privacy of their homes.

Oscar Wilde mourns the loss of his clothing, which has been stolen by vandal burglars. It should be said in their defense that they worked in the dark and could not see what they were taking.

Prince Christian Victor, of Schleswig-Holstein, is gaining military experience and finding pretty bits of fighting as an attache of the Black Mountain expedition in India, where General Ellis and his army are engaged in bringing the hill tribes into subjugation.

A small cross of rough white stone marks the spot in Phoenix park in Dublin where Lord Frederick Cavendish and Mr. Burke were butchered by the "Invincibles." A correspondent writes that the grass about the cross has been entirely tramped away by the thousands of footsteps of those who have visited the scene of the tragedy.

Though everybody knows that ex-Senator Blanche K. Bruce, the colored Mississippian, holds the position of recorder of deeds in the District of Columbia, it is not generally understood that this is the best-paying federal office after the presidency. When Fred Douglass held the place it paid him the handsome return of $40,000 a year.

I recognized in it at once an herb that the Mexicans used to give us in the early 50's for bowel troubles. (I came to California in 1859, and I knew it would help me and it has. For the first time in years I can sleep well and my system is regular and in splendid condition. The old Mexican herbs in this remedy are a certain cure in constipation and bowel troubles."
