Violent Storms on the Atlantic—He Set the Jail on Fire—Found the Right Road.

Five Men Killed in a Tunnel—A Romantic Story—The Holy Coat. Other News Notes.

HARRISBURG, Penn., Oct. 13.—The special session of the state senate was called to order this morning. The governor's message calling the session was read. In it he said the session was convened to take action in relation to the alleged misconduct of the heads of two departments of the state government, as well as other elective officers. The governor reviewed at great length the testimony taken by the various committees which have been investigating the affairs of Bardsley, the Philadelphia treasurer, who is now in the penitentiary, and severely arraigning Henry Boyer, state treasurer and Thomas McCaman, auditor general of the state, for their connection with Bardsley's misdoings. In conclusion the governor said the responsibility of determining whether a reasonable cause exists for removal, rests with the senate and public. It was expected it would be met and discharged without regard to partisan advantage and to honor the commonwealth.

A committee charged with the investigation of the department of auditor general and state treasurer, this morning adopted a report and sent it to Governor Pattison. The committee finds the evidence wholly fails to disclose any just ground for suspicion as to the personal or official integrity of the state treasurer, Boyer, and that it fails to show any act of personal or official dishonesty on the part of Auditor General McCaman or improper receipt by him of any money either directly or indirectly from Bardsley. In regard to the present system of depositing the state funds the committee suggested the laws should be speedily changed. The committee will meet this evening to hear the report of the minority.

A Rough Passage.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The story of all incoming vessels this morning is but a repetition of that of yesterday. Chief among the Atlantic steamers to put into port this morning was the Guion line steamer Alaska. She was over due sixteen hours. Her trip was a very stormy one and there was considerable suffering among the cabin and steerage passengers from sea sickness. The steamer Polynesia and Slavonia also arrived this morning. Both experienced severe storms. There are now several liners overdue but probably they will reach port all right.

Set the Jail on Fire.

CASPER, Wyo., Oct. 13.—Dr. Joseph Benson, who was confined in jail last night for drunkenness, set fire to the building and was burned to death. He said his right name was Joseph P. Riley, and that he had killed a man near Farmington, Mass., for which he was sentenced to the penitentiary for fifteen years, but escaped. He was well-known in the west, and for several years was army surgeon at Fort Robinson.

Think They Are Right Only.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 13.—The Presbyterian synod of Kansas adopted a resolution insisting upon the teaching of the English language in all public schools as the language of this country. The government was denounced for appropriating money to build Catholic Indian schools and is urged to establish unitarian public Indian schools.

A Fatal Accident.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Oct. 13.—At 2 o'clock this afternoon a cage of men at a shaft on a tunnel lost control of the cage and it fell to the bottom of the shaft, killing three colored men and fatally injuring two white men. The cage tender was in danger of being lynched by the tunnel men and is locked up in the police station for safety.

A ROMANTIC STORY.

Sequel of an Elopement of Half a Century Ago.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 12.—The court at San Diego, Cal., has just given Mrs. Whitworth, of this city, and two cousins $20,000 worth of real estate in the heart of that city. Mrs. Whitworth is a daughter of James Robinson, a teacher who, sixty-three years ago, deserted his wife and two children near this city and eloped with Sallie Snyder, a pupil. They went first to Canada. After two or three years the girl sought unsuccessfully a reconciliation with her parents. At the same time, Robinson surreptitiously visited and, unknown to them, secured a glimpse of his own family. The couple then went south, as was determined upon at the start. They settled in what is now Texas. Robinson prospered and was elected lieutenant-governor through the impeachment of Governor Smith at the time of the war over Texas. Robinson was the most prominent man in his state, and favored the independence of Texas. He was captured by Mexicans and terribly abused, until he promised to use his influence to have the state return to Mexico. This made him unpopular, and he went to California to avoid lynching. There he became wealthy and died in 1863. A son of the Snyder woman became a member of the California legislature, but died in early manhood. The Snyder woman, who all along had been supposed to be Robinson's wife, had inherited all the property, but twenty years ago sold all the realty, and a few years ago returned to Cincinnati. Mrs. Whitworth heard of it two years ago, hunted her up, and learned her father's history, and began the suit which has ended so well for her. Miss Snyder is now 82 years old, but bright as a woman of 50. She resides at Wyoming, a suburb, and though rich, still cherishes such a hatred toward her family for refusing to forgive her that she allows her only brother to reside in the county poor house.

THE HOLY COAT.

A Large Number of Pilgrims Expected Very Soon From France.

TREVES, Oct. 12.—The holy coat exhibition at Treves has not been closed as a large number of French pilgrims are expected in a day or two. The number of pilgrims has been increasing, instead of diminishing, as the close of the exhibition approaches. The total number now is about 2,000,000. About a dozen miracles are reported through the touching the holy coat, but the authorities are careful about indorsing any one. They propose to content themselves and to satisfy the faithful by simply publishing the certificates of attending physicians as to the condition of the patient before and after touching the relic. Apart from these certificates these ecclesiastics will have nothing to say. The cathedral has profited greatly by the donations of pilgrims, and a new and splendid shrine has been prepared as a place of deposit for the holy coat. This shrine has been made at Stuttgart. The pope's share of the donations is also very large, although no public account of the sum has been made.

A DELIBERATE KILLING

A Rancher Kills a Well-Known Mill Man as a Result of a Quarrel Over Some Stock.

Buildings in Napa, Cal., Badly Shaken Up by an Earthquake—France may Not Admit American Pork.

A Reverend Gentleman Missing—England Replies to the Porte—Mrs. Parnell's Condition.

KALAMA, Wash., Oct. 12.—A logging camp near Woodlawn, Cowlitz county, Wash., was the scene of a dastardly murder last Friday evening. Vic Beebe, a young man twenty-four years of age, and a son of a well-known mill man of Woodlawn, was killed in cold blood by a man named Day. In the early part of the afternoon, young Beebe had some difficulty with Day's son about some cows that were destroying Beebe's corn, and slapped young Day's face. That evening about twilight the elder Day, who is a ranchman, called at Beebe's camp and asked him to walk down the road with him toward Woodlawn.

The two had proceeded about a half a mile along the road, talking over the difficulty that had occurred in the earlier part of the day, when Day suddenly turned around, and drawing his gun, shot Beebe through the body, the ball entering the right side and coming out on the left, passing through both lungs. A boy who had joined the party saw the shooting. Day turned upon him and made an attempt to kill him also, but the cartridge caught in the barrel of the gun and failed to discharge. The boy took to his heels and reached Woodlawn, where he reported the killing of Beebe. Beebe's body was brought to Woodlawn that night and an inquest held.

Day had fled to the woods, but was captured next morning by the constable. A mob having gathered to lynch Day, the constable crossed his prisoner over the river into Clarke county and brought him by a circuitous route to Kalama, where he is now lodged in jail. Great indignation prevails throughout that section, and it is feared that Day will yet be lynched.

Day's son, who had caused the difficulty remarked when he heard that his father had killed Beebe: "Oh, that's nothing. It isn't the first time that pap has done the like."

EARTHQUAKE IN CALIFORNIA.

Buildings in Napa Shattered and Badly Shaken up.

Drug store fixtures suffered greatly, bottles were thrown from their shelves to the floor, and other damage done. The Masonic temple, a fine building was shattered. At the state insane asylum great excitement prevails. The patients are almost uncontrollable. It is reported that the building is cracked and that other damage has been done.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

By no Means Certain France Will Remove the American Pork Prohibitions.

PARIS, Oct. 12.—M. Ferry, president of the senate's tariff commission, says the commission will immediately take up the matter of American pork prohibition. Ministers Ribot and Roche will appear before the commission Thursday and insist upon the importance of an early removal of the prohibition, especially in view of its repeal by Germany. As Senator Baron Larentz controls a strong agricultural opposition, the bill, though it has passed the deputies, is not absolutely sure to pass the senate.

A Reverend Gentleman Missing.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—The Rev. J. W. Gamble, of Ridgeville, Ind., has been missing since September 28. Detectives have gone through all the records of the coroner's office and the detention hospital, but have failed to gain any information as to whether Mr. Gamble carried out his purpose.
