ANNOUNCEMENT!

As our limited partnership will soon expire it is imperatively necessary for us to close out our present immense stock of

Dry Goods, Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Boots and Shoes.

This will give the people of The Dalles and its vicinity an opportunity to purchase, for cash, at less than the closest prices of Portland Jobbers. Our stock has been carefully selected for the fall trade, comprising all latest novelties, and has been bought of first hands as low as spot cash will purchase. Making arrangements for this sweeping change in our prices will require great labor and time, and forces us to close our store Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 15, 16 and 17. Will open again Monday morning, October 19.

O'BRIEN'S MANIFESTO.

He Claims That Parnell Was to Retire From the Leadership in Favor of Himself.

A Heavy Attachment.—They are Ready to Testify.—Another Fatal Railroad Accident.

A Verdict for the Railroad Company.—Will Meet at Eugene Next Year. Lost Their Mutton.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—William O'Brien, a member of parliament, today made a public statement or manifesto in reply to the recent Parnellite defiance. He writes: "I have waited since the funeral, hoping the late Parnell's leading supporters, knowing my relations with Parnell at Boulogne, would have the manliness to disassociate themselves from the diabolical charges that Dillon and myself hounded their leader to death. At the Boulogne conference Parnell's four most influential lieutenants professed themselves as eager as ourselves to secure Parnell's withdrawal. These same men are now silent while their organ charges me with plotting to get rid of Parnell. They themselves pressed me to consent to Parnell's first proposition, which was that he should retire in favor of myself."

A letter from Parnell to O'Brien is then given in which the former expressed his gratitude for the kindness and gentlemanly spirit shown him by O'Brien.

O'Brien concluded: "Thus closed the Boulogne communication. With full recognition we parted as honorable opponents."

A HEAVY SUIT.

Over Half a Million Dollars Involved. NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—The application of Henry Sanford, president of the Adams Express Co., for attachment against the property of John Hony, deposited with the president of that company, in a suit to recover over half a million dollars was granted today. The summons attached to the papers announces to Hony that if he defaults in appearing to answer the suit, judgment will be taken against him for $712,950 with interest and costs.

They Will Testify.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—When the case of Stephen T. Gage, cited to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt for not appearing before the grand jury when summoned, was called into the superior court this morning Gage stated he would purge himself of contempt and in recognition of the decision of the supreme court, both he and Chute would appear before the grand jury and testify.

Another Train Wrecked.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 16.—The Panhandle vestibule limited east bound train was wrecked at Mingo Junction four miles west of Steubenville this morning. William Marshall, a brakeman, of Columbus, Ohio, and Joseph Veston, express messenger, were killed. Four others were seriously injured.

The Railroad Ahead.

FARGO, N. D., Oct. 16.—It is said the decision of Judge Caldwell in the Northern Pacific tax case yesterday is worth from fifteen to twenty million dollars to the railroad, although on the main the issue as to taxation of lands, the decision is against the company. The decision gives them a clear title to all land within their grant not known to contain minerals at the time of filing the maps of the definite location of the road.

Will Meet at Eugene.—Contempt of Court.

PORTLAND, Oct. 16.—The Grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, today selected Eugene as the place of the next meeting. In the case of Wo Chong vs. Astoria & South Coast Railroad Company Judge Shattuck today ordered Wm. Reid to appear in court tomorrow and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt at court.

Lost Their Mutton.

PLYMOUTH, Oct. 16.—The British Steamer Parramatta, which arrived here reports that the crank shaft of her freezing engine broke while she was in the Gulf Arden, causing its stoppage for twenty hours. The hot weather caused the carcasses of 20,000 Australian sheep in the freezing compartments to spoil.

A TROUBLESOME KING.

Ex-King Milan of Serbia Has Spent all His Money Again.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—It seems impossible says a Paris dispatch, that Milan, of Servia should have gotten rid of 400,000 within the few months that have elapsed since he drew that sum from the Servian treasury. The money was paid with the understanding that Milan should cease to trouble Servia, but should leave the country for years, if not forever, and that Queen Natalie should be made to follow his example. Milan got a check for 600,000 francs, but as he owed about 200,000 francs to the Vienna bank, on which the check was drawn, that amount was retained by the bank. Now Milan is almost penniless and ready to throw himself at the feet of Russia or Austria, according to which nation is willing to pay the highest. The probabilities are that Milan will become a pensioner of Russia.

A Brutal Negro Who Assaulted Two Women Captured and Lynched.

MACON, Ga., Oct. 15.—Samuel Wright, colored, was lynched on the public road, near Helena, early this morning, near the place where Mrs. Beck and her two daughters live. One of the girls went on a visit yesterday. About midnight Samuel Wright broke into the house, knocked Mrs. Beck insensible, and after a desperate struggle with Miss Ada Beck, in which one of her arms was broken, assaulted her. In the meantime the alarm had been spread and fifty men pursued Wright. They found him cowering in the swamps. He was marched back, identified by Miss Beck, and placed under a limb, where he was to be hanged. He confessed the crime, after which he was drawn up to the noise of firing pistols. Fully a hundred bullets were sent into his body. When a body of negroes undertook to cut the body down today for burial, they were notified that if they removed it they would share the same fate.

A Judicial Murder.

REDWOOD FALLS, Minn., Oct. 16.—A dreadful scene was enacted this morning at the execution of William Rose. The prisoner made a speech in which he protested his innocence and accused a man named Stover of the murder. The trap was sprung at 4:56 and the rope parted. The body was picked up and another noose adjusted, when the trap was sprung again, and the man was slowly strangled to death.

Fast Horses Burned.

SABINA, Ohio, Oct. 16.—The stable of Wm. Morgan, a breeder of trotting horses was burned yesterday, destroying thirteen valuable trotting and pacing horses and mares. The total loss is estimated at $75,000. No insurance. The fire is believed to be of incendiary origin.

Another Monument for Grant.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16.—It is designed by the Grand Army of the Republic to erect in Washington, D. C., a monument to General Grant. The necessary money to pay for the monument is being raised by popular subscription among the G. A. R. posts of the country.

A BRUTAL MURDER.

An Unknown Assailant Attacks a Woman and Murders Her for a Small Sum of Money.

The Pope Thinks He is Pursued by Italy.—The People Talked About the Kaiser.

The Irish Protestants are Opposed to Home Rule.—Balmaceda's Last Letter.—Other News.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Oct. 15.—An atrocious murder was perpetrated this afternoon at a little distance from here. The victim was Mrs. Amelia Gregory, 40 years old, wife of Nap. Gregory, a well-known farmer. The crime was committed between 3 and 4:15 o'clock. At 3 o'clock Mr. Gregory and his eldest son left Mrs. Gregory alone in the house and went to work in a distant field. At 4:15 the younger son, Wilbur, returned from school. On entering the house the boy was horrified by the sight of his mother lying dead upon the kitchen floor, with her head battered and crushed almost beyond human semblance. The condition of the room showed that she had made a brave struggle for life. It was soon discovered that the crime was an outcome of robbery. The farmer and his wife occupied a bedroom adjoining the kitchen. There was a little closet in this bedroom where they kept a little store of ready money in an old cigar box. This morning the box contained something over $100 in bank bills. This fact the murderer had evidently learned, and he possibly was discovered by Mrs. Gregory while in the act of thieving. The police and detective force of this city are now in pursuit of the murderer.

THE POPE'S FEELINGS.

Thinks He Is Pursued by the Government of Italy.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—In a recent interview one of the cardinals, known to be an intimate friend of the pope and one of his advisors, said the Vatican was convinced the late disorders in Rome precipitated by the French pilgrims were really instigated by the Italian government, which had become jealous of the growing influence of the pope and the amicable relations existing between France and the Vatican. The cardinal declared the Italian government would prefer the assassination or expulsion of the pope to the present situation. The pope himself recently said: "I am no longer a prisoner, but a hostage menaced with expulsion or assassination unless I capitulate before the enemy." The cardinal, continuing, said the pope would never accept the present situation, but nothing was yet decided upon in the matter of his leaving Rome. It is said in ecclesiastical circles the occupation of Rome by Italy would end like the finish of the French commune, by the massacre of the hostages.

THE KAISER IS MAD.

And Will Make It Interesting for Some One.

BERLIN, Oct. 15.—The police are anxiously hunting for the author of a scurrilous leaflet, which has been mysteriously circulated, and which contains an offensive attack on the kaiser, charging him with dissipation and immorality, and intimating that he is of unsound mind. The writer also holds up to ridicule the kaiser's alleged idea of ever equaling his ancestor, the great Frederick, and the article closes with advice to the kaiser to be careful about starting a conflagration to consume himself and his house. Such bold words are seldom heard in Germany, much less printed, and the author would be sentenced to a long term of imprisonment could he be discovered. The kaiser is said to know no forgiveness for people who offend his pride and ambition, and the police know that he appreciates and rewards the men who make the desired arrests.

OPPOSED TO HOME RULE.

Protestant Irish of the North Preparing to Defeat Home Rule.

DUBLIN, Oct. 15.—According to advices from Londonderry and other places in the north of Ireland the Protestant population of the north is very much roused on the subject of Irish home rule, in view of the liberal confidence of success in the general election. The Orange lodges are thronged with candidates for admission, and the amount of drilling that is going on is greater than in many years before. It is said that Protestant opponents of home rule are organizing associations numbering at least 80,000 capable of carrying arms. There is no concealment of their intention to offer violent resistance to the rule of an Irish parliament dominated, as they claim it would be, by the Roman Catholic hierarchy.

Balmaceda's Last Letter.

VALPARAISO, Chile, Oct. 15.—A letter of Balmaceda to his mother, written only a few hours before he committed suicide, has just been made public. It is as follows: "Dear Mother: I go on a long journey. No time remains in which to bid you farewell. My implacable enemies will not now succeed in condemning me. The only thing I recommend is that you maintain your religious faith. Your son, Manuel." "Prosecutor Farr, who was supposed to have been shot on the day the junta captured Valparaiso, is alive after all. He is now in jail. With other political prisoners of prominence, he will be tried by the tribunals."
