BALMACEDA NOT DEAD.

A Report Now in Circulation That Balmaceda is Not Dead as Was Reported.

Farmers Want a Free Delivery—The Effect of the Late Storm in Ireland.

The Farmers' Alliance on the Decline Accidental Death—Want American Pork.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 19.—Dr. Francis Rivers and Signor Carlos del Rio, late of the military staff of President Balmaceda in Chili, arrived here yesterday, enroute for New York.

They said that Balmaceda is not dead, all reports of suicide to the contrary notwithstanding, and they expected to meet him in New York or in Europe.

Want a Free Delivery.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—An organized effort is under way among the farmers to secure a free mail delivery in country towns. The farmers alliance, patrons of industry and other orders are canvassing the matter. Letters are being written to congressmen in favor of the project and petitions to congress are being circulated in different parts of the country. The farmers assert that daily mail delivery at their doors, will increase the money value of their farms and still more because it will keep them in reach with the markets and the outside world.

The Effect of the Late Storm in Ireland.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The hurricane which prevailed on the west coast of Ireland for several days past is pronounced to be the worst storm known in that part of the country in twenty years. The river Shannon overflowed its banks and submerged the large quantities of land in its vicinity, drowning a considerable number of cattle and sheep, and destroying several houses and many barns and other buildings.

The Farmers' Alliance on the Decline.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 19.—Ex-United States Senator Wade Hampton, who is visiting here, in an interview with a Sun reporter says the farmers' alliance is rapidly disintegrating in the south, and that within the next four years it will entirely disappear. The people, he says, are rapidly awakening to the absurdity of the demands the organization has promulgated.

Accidental Death.

PORTLAND, Oct. 19.—The dead body of N. S. Grover was found lying on some logs this morning. There was a severe wound on his head. It is supposed that Grover while intoxicated fell from the wharf and struck on the log below on his head. Grover was a young man unmarried and was connected with the Oregon Express and Weekly Alliance.

Want The American Hog.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—A Washington special says: Secretary Rusk received a dispatch from President Cantencin, of the Italian chamber of commerce of New York, announcing that he had received advices from Rome that the ministry had unanimously decided to abolish the decree shutting out the American pork.

The Methodist Increase.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—At today's session of the ecumenical Methodist counsel the committee on Methodist statistics reported that since the London ecumenical council there has been an increase of thirty per cent. in Methodist believers. The report shows: ministers, 42,695; members, 6,495,399; and adherents, 25,387.

Foreign Notes.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Steamers arriving from Europe today and yesterday brought in $550,000 in gold.

Dispatches from Bermuda to the Signal office of this city announces that a severe cyclone storm, dangerous to shipping is raging at Bermuda.

More World's Fair Agitation.

BUFFALO, Oct. 19.—At this morning's session of the general Lutheran church a resolution calling on the United States commission of the world's fair to close the great exposition Sunday was unanimously adopted.

DETROIT TIN PLATE.

The Steel Plates are Made in Pittsburg and Finished in Michigan.

Detroit has a tin plate factory which has been in operation for the past year. It has a daily capacity equivalent to 200 boxes, says the Toledo Blade. It manufactures milk cans and lanterns, and supplies the trade with milk-can stock in sizes to suit. It annually uses large quantities of tin-plate, most of which, since the new tariff law went into effect, has been tinned in its own factory. The black plates of steel ready for tinning are manufactured in Pittsburg, shipped to Detroit by the car load, and picked, cleaned, dipped and finished in their factory.

This is American tin plate, and that, too, of a superior quality. The plate is not put upon the market, the company using all it manufactures in its own work. In its tin plate department it has now five "stacks" of three pots each, with a total daily capacity of 200 boxes of ordinary tin plate. A sixth stack is in process of erection. This is American tin plate, made in an American factory. It is not necessary that the steel be rolled in the same establishment in which it is tinned, any more than it is necessary for a tailor to run a woolen mill to make the cloth he manufactures into clothing, or a shoe maker to run a tannery to furnish him leather. Every part of the tin plate manufactured by this company is American. The steel sheets are made of American metal by American workmen in Pittsburg. They are hauled on American railroads to Detroit and there coated with tin by American workmen, and the product is sold to the American people.

THE CONTEST IN OHIO.

Democrats Apparently Concede McKinley's Election.

A special telegram from Columbus, October 12, to the Chicago Inter-Ocean, gives this statement:

The impression that has prevailed to a marked degree during the past few days that the democratic managers have given up all hopes of carrying Governor Campbell through has now grown to a positive belief. This belief has already become general, distinctively upon the boards in the pool rooms. Last week propositions were posted, "$100 to $80 that McKinley is elected." The proposition today read, "$100 to $70 that McKinley is a winner."

It is learned tonight that no takers have put in an appearance at these figures and none are expected, although certain sporting men have offered premiums at these figures and want to put up a few thousand. One gentleman received $1000 from Chicago to bank on McKinley at the best figures. "But," added the Chicago man, "bank regardless."

A dispatch from Cincinnati tonight gives quotations as follows: "McKinley, $100; Campbell, $50, and business decidedly dull. Democrats' refuse to bid except on majority."

There is an air of depression about the democratic headquarters, and there is every indication that the heavyweights of the democracy are at the present moment conducting a secret gum-shoe campaign in the sagebrush in the hope of capturing legislative and senatorial districts from under the noses of republicans. This scheme came nigh succeeding six years ago, and it is not probable that they will be surprised this year. The campaign of McKinley, Sherman and Foraker, to say nothing of other campaigners, has been too spirited to admit of surprises.

SEDITIONS ANARCHISTS.

Rapid Foreigners Who Should at Once Be Hounded From the Country.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—Before Judge Biddle today a hearing was had of the habeas corpus cases in the interest of Julius Moskowitz, Isidore Brenner, and Morris Gillis, Russian Jews, charged with a breach of the peace in distributing anarchistic circulars, making incendiary speeches and inciting riot. The officers testified as to their utterances at a meeting. They advised their hearers not to believe in God, not to fear the police; condemned the president of the United States, and said he ought to be killed. Judge Biddle declares that he had no doubt that the preaching of their doctrines was seditious. These foreigners came to this country voluntarily, and the first thing they did was to attack our institutions. They were enemies to the human race. He held all for trial.

Weather Forecast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—Forecast for Oregon and Washington: Light rains in extreme northwestern Washington.

San Francisco Wheat Market.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 19.—Wheat, buyer, '91, 1.72½, season 1.80.

Portland Wheat Market.

PORTLAND, October 19.—Wheat, valley, 1.50; Walla Walla, 1.40@1.42½.

Chicago Wheat Market.

CHICAGO, October 19.—Close, wheat, steady; cash, 94½.

McKINLEY'S BILL AGAIN

Harrison Writes to an Ohio Editor that He is in Full Sympathy With Its Provisions.

The Democrats of Ohio Have About Given Up the Contest to the High Tariff Men.

A Democratic Victory in Ohio Means More than the Election of a Democrat Governor.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—An Ohio editor having written Mr. Blaine that the democratic papers were parading him as an opponent of the McKinley bill, he replies under date of August, Me., Oct. 14, to John Hopley, editor of the Journal of Bucyrus, O., as follows:

"You inform me the democratic paper in your town and many democratic papers throughout Ohio keep the following paragraph standing in type: 'But there is not a section or line in the McKinley bill that will open the market for another bushel of wheat or another barrel of pork.—James G. Blaine to Senator Fry, July 11, 1890.' This sentence is garbled and taken from its proper connection. What I did say is the following:

"I do not doubt that in many respects the tariff bill pending in congress is a just measure, and that most of its provisions are in accordance with the wise policy of protection, but there is not a section or line in the entire bill that will open a market for another bushel of wheat or another pound of pork.' The letter in which this paragraph occurs was written to Senator Fry July 11, 1890, and the McKinley bill did not become a law until October 1, nearly three months thereafter.

"In my letter to Senator Fry I objected to the bill because it did not contain a reciprocity clause, which would provide a market for wheat, pork, and for the other products of the farm and for various fabrics. Before the bill was finally passed a reciprocity clause was inserted and a large addition made to the free list. It will therefore be seen from what I said in my letter that the objection, which I made to the McKinley bill, was entirely removed before the bill became a law. Let me further say the reciprocity clause has given an ample market for many barrels of flour and many pounds of pork. Brazil some months ago entered into a treaty by which many American articles were admitted free. Flour, is made free and pork is admitted at nominal duty. Cuba and Porto Rico have reduced the duty on flour from $5 80 a barrel to $1 (which gives us the market) besides putting nearly a hundred articles of American production on the free list. San Domingo has made a reciprocity treaty with flour and pork on the free list, besides a large number of other articles. Other treaties for reciprocity are in progress. Germany, without negotiating a formal treaty, has removed the prohibition on pork, and our government, in consideration thereof, has left her sugar on the free list. This opens to us an entirely new market, and $15,000,000 to $20,000,000 of American pork will be consumed per annum, where not a pound has been taken for ten years. The reciprocity provision is proving very successful, especially in farm products, and more particularly in the case of the two articles mentioned in the paragraph quoted—flour and pork. I am not, therefore, an opponent of the McKinley bill, as the democratic papers in Ohio are constantly alleging. On the contrary, I have cordially supported it ever since it was perfected by the insertion of the reciprocity clause.

What a Democratic Victory Means.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 17.—A democratic success in the legislative elections this fall, it is generally conceded, would mean the enactment of a law providing for the choosing of presidential electors by congressional districts. This would practically throw Ohio into the democratic column in the electoral college, as by the present system of districts, which would, of course, be retained, fifteen of the twenty-one districts are democratic. So it is plain that there is more in the Ohio campaign than the election of governor.

Only One Vote Against It.

ELLENBURG, Wash., Oct. 17.—The proposition to bond the middle irrigation district was voted on yesterday, and there was only one vote against it in the entire district. Most of the right of way has already been secured, and bids will be called for as soon as the vote is canvassed. One of the directors waited on the Northern Pacific land officials at Tacoma, and they readily granted the right of way on all their lands through which the ditch runs. Contractors are now on the ground anxious to bid on the work and take the bonds in payment.
