On account of the unabated rush of customers we find it impossible to take time to make up the price list we intended to have in this issue. We have large shipments of goods constantly coming in which were ordered before our deciding to close out. All these goods will be sold at cost the same as the goods we have in stock. The public is beginning to find out, by the bargains they are getting, that the sale is bona fide. Those who have not already purchased will do well to come and be convinced that such bargains were never before offered in this city.

FAMINE IN SIBERIA.

The Russian Exiles in a Fair Way to Die for Want of Food. No Help Expected.

The Trans-Mississippi Congress Still in Session--Won't Let the Indians Hunt--Expect Trouble.

A Rich Mexican Shot for Raising the Price in Corn--War in Mexico--Fishing Boats Lost.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 22.—The famine has extended to Siberia and the governor has compiled a report showing that in the districts of Kokchetovsk and Petrapawlook that what food supplies the inhabitants possessed, have been entirely exhausted, and appeals have been made to public charity. Owing to the difficulty of transportation in winter, the efforts at relief seem almost hopeless. Supplies from Caucasia are improving in quantity, and it is hoped that they will avail to stave off the worst effects of the famine. Advices from the interior of the empire are continually of a worse import. The people are commencing to riot in Samara, Saratoff and Veronetz.

The Trans-Mississippi Congress. OMAHA, Oct. 22.—The Trans-Mississippi congress devoted its morning session to a discussion following the resolution: "Resolved that we petition the president and congress of the United States to once more attempt to bring about an international recognition and adjustment of silver and money, and should this effort fail, that a limited agreement be sought with the nations of Latin union, whereby the mints of those nations may again be opened for the coinage of silver."

Won't let the Indians Hunt. CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—A special dispatch from Sidney, Colo., says: "Word has just been received here that five companies of the United States infantry and cavalry are on the march from Ft. Russell, to the scene of the Ute outbreak that occurred four years ago in the northern part of this country. Word has been sent to the governor that the Indians were encroaching upon the rights of the settlers. The Indians are determined to hunt, but the settlers declare they shall not do it, off the reservation."

Served Him Right. SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 22.—Great suffering from drought is reported from Torreon, Mexico. Corn is selling at from fifty to seventy-five cents per peck. A few days ago Jose Castro, a prominent and wealthy proprietor of an Hacienda, attempted to raise the price of grain to $4 per bushel. The natives became so incensed at his action that they shot him.

War in Mexico. NOVALES, ARIK, Oct. 22.—A special says the state of Sonora, and in fact the entire republic of Mexico is again in a fever of excitement, by reason of the Zaqui Indians having declared war. The Mexican government is concentrating troops as rapidly as possible and preparations are being made for a vigorous campaign.

Two Fishing Schooners Lost. GLOUCESTER, Mass., Oct. 22.—The schooner Percy with a crew of twelve men and the schooner City Point of Portland, with a crew of fourteen men, sailed on codfishing voyages about August 25. THE COSSACKS DESCEND. The Reported Capture of Constantinople by Russian Troops. CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—A special from New York to the Evening Journal says: The following cablegram has been received, which, it goes without saying, will not be generally credited until confirmed by subsequent advices: "News was received in this city from London today that Russia has practically captured Constantinople by the greatest coup de main of the century. On Monday, a large fleet of barges and vessels appeared on the Turkish coast of the Black sea near Derkos, a town about seventy miles northwest of Constantinople, and landed 12,000 Cossacks and 22,000 infantry. They seized the railroad along the coast from Constantinople to Injada, crossed the coast range and seized another railway from Constantinople to Sofia, a town about sixty miles west of Constantinople. This commands the two roads to Constantinople, and gives the Russians control of the narrow wedge between the Black sea and the sea of Marmosa. At the point of this wedge lies Constantinople. This movement flanks all the defenses of Constantinople except those around the city and renders help from there practically useless. It is said Russia has been accumulating barges and shipping of all kinds at the mouth of the Danube for six months past without discovery, and that the whole of the 240,000 troops assembled in southwestern Russia can be transported and landed within sixty miles of Constantinople inside of the next four days before anything can be done by England, Germany, Austria or Italy."

Shot and Killed Himself. PLYMOUTH, Pa., Oct. 21.—Jacob Masterman, an aged wealthy farmer, residing in Fairmount Township, sixteen miles from here, committed suicide yesterday morning because his young wife eloped with William Belue, one of his farm hands. He tracked them to the railroad station, where he learned they had bought tickets to Philadelphia. Seven hundred dollars in money and his best team and carriage disappeared at the same time. He returned home and shot himself.

An Editor Goes Insane. BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 21.—George F. Chandler, editor of the Sunday Truth, has gone hopelessly insane. FROM FOREIGN LANDS.

Political Refugees in Chili are in a Tight Box--The Junta Hard After Them.

Germany and England Trying to Protect South American Residents--Will Pay Balmaceda's Debts.

No Land for Foreigners--Don't Like the Duke--Can't Join Hands--Rifles for Russia.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A special cablegram from Valparaiso, Chili, says: The Spanish legation continues to afford shelter to five political refugees, despite the manifest desire of the junta that they be turned over to its custody. Senor Ordonez, the Spanish minister, has been and is now acting in accord with Mr. Egan, who has laid material and pointed evidence before the provisional minister of foreign affairs referring to his rights in the premises. Mr. Egan's argument is so forcible and conclusive that it is strongly probable that a safe conduct will be granted the political refugees in the American legation after the elections determine who is to be Balmaceda's successor as president of Chili.

In regard to the row between the Chilean and American sailors the criminal judge has assured the consul-general that he will hold a full investigation into the affair, and will punish those found to have been the aggressors. The wounded American sailors are improving, and it is believed that all are now out of danger.

MAY END THE SAME.

Germany and England Seeking to Protect Residents in South America.

BERLIN, Oct. 21.—It is reported that the German government has made a proposition to Great Britain with the view of taking united action in South America for protection of their common interests. The German government is determined to maintain the demand on behalf of German subjects for indemnity for injuries caused during the Chilean revolution, as well as to secure some guarantee for the proper security of German subjects either resident in or trading with Chili and other South American countries in the future. While the proposal, so far as mooted, would appear to call for nothing further than united action in exacting damage for injury received, yet in the end it would probably amount to a protectorate over at least Chili and the Argentine Republic. It is remembered that the trouble with Mexico, which resulted in the disastrous attempt to establish an empire, began in a similar demand on that republic for the more efficient protection of foreigners and the payment of arrears of debt; the demand being sustained by a British naval and French military expedition.

Must Pay Balmaceda's Debts.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Pedro Montt, of Santiago, Chili, arrived today on his way home from Washington. "The enormous debts piled upon Chili by Balmaceda will be a heavy burden on the land for several years to come," said Mr. Montt. "Balmaceda went into a wild career of extravagance toward the last, and yet the debts he contracted the Chilean government will be compelled to pay. The junta, or present provisional government, will be supplanted by a permanent government organization to take place immediately after the coming election. As soon as the new president and the new congress shall have been elected, the work of reconstruction will progress rapidly."

No Land for Foreigners.
