McFARLAND & FRENCH.

On account of the unabated rush of customers we find it impossible to take time to make up the price list we intended to have in this issue. We have large shipments of goods constantly coming in which were ordered before our deciding to close out. All these goods will be sold at cost the same as the goods we have in stock. The public is beginning to find out, by the bargains they are getting, that the sale is bona fide. Those who have not already purchased will do well to come and be convinced that such bargains were never before offered in this city.

Four of the Southern Pacific Train Robbers Captured. Preferred Death to Capture.
Possession of a Saw Mill Causes a Riot—An Insane Woman Drowned—Got off Easy.
An Insurgent Leader in Jail—A California Assemblyman Indicted—Blew out the Gas.
San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 22.—D. Ludlow, Pacific express agent in this city, received a dispatch last night from the agent at Langley's announcing that the capture of four of the Southern Pacific train robbers took place at the "7 D" ranch on the line of Oak creek, about 100 miles north of Langley, Friday last. The capture was made by Captain Jones and a posse. None of the robbers offered resistance except John Flint, who, after a running fight of several miles, committed suicide in preference to surrender. The other three robbers are James Langstein, Jack Wellington and a man whose name is not known. The robbers had $800 when captured.

Fought for a Saw Mill.
Johnstown, Pa., Oct. 22.—The Childs and Lehman factions' dispute over the right to operate a saw mill on a tract of timber land resulted in what, for a time, threatened to be a serious riot. The sheriff of Cambria county, who was engaged by Childs, proceeded to the disputed property yesterday, and ordered his deputies to take possession of the mill. He was met by forty farmers armed with revolvers, guns, pitchforks, and every conceivable weapon. The first man to cross the line was knocked senseless, and the order was then given to the farmers to fire. Before this move, however, the sheriff's little party retreated, and the farmers are now in possession. The Childs faction will now have recourse to law. In the meantime the farmers will guard the property, and threaten bloodshed if interfered with.

An Insane Woman Drowned.
San Francisco, Oct. 22.—At Olema, Mrs. Pendergast, wife of James Pendergast, was drowned in Tomales bay yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Pendergast has been for many years subject to spells of insanity, and at times would get beyond control. In the afternoon yesterday she and her nurse, who was her constant companion, took a drive. On the way she was taken with one of these spells, grabbed the lines from her attendant, applied the whip to the horses, and drove down a steep declivity into the bay. Mrs. Pendergast was drowned, but the nurse was rescued. She is in a critical condition, however, having been injured in the descent.
