A case is now on appeal before the supreme court of Indiana, which will undoubtedly terminate in the supreme court of the United States, and which will try the question of saloon licensing on new and fundamental grounds. Certain parties in Indianapolis brought suit for demonstration of the salound of t for damages against a saloon keeper, on the ground that the location of his saloop in the vicinity of their property had depreciated its value from $5,500 to $3,000, and its rental from $35 to $20. The defense presented was the license issued by the board of county commissioners permitting the defendant to open a saloon. The plaintiffs demurred on the ground that a law licensing a business which depreciated adjoining prop-THE DALLES, Oct. 26, 1891. erty and was a nuisance is unconstitu-Weather forecast till 12 m. tional, and on its being overruled, the Monday; Cloudy weather. turn-ing to light rain; slightly cooler decided on these broad grounds. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a favorite during the winter months on account of its great success in the cure of colds. There is nothing that will loosen a severe cold so quickly, or as promptly relieve the lungs. Then it counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. It is pleasant and safe to take, and fully worthy of its popularity. For sale by Snipes & Kinersly, The Dalles, Or. d-w
