The Chronicle is the Only Paper in The Dalles that Receives the Associated Press Dispatches.

The Marion County Alliance has shown good practical common sense in opposing, as it is said its leading members have done, the putting of a third party ticket in the field. The men who feel this way believe that to vote a third party ticket is a waste of practical strength and playing into the hands of the spoils politicians. In this the Chronicle believes them to be right. We have always held that if the farmers would only organize, make themselves familiar with practical politics and take an active part in the primaries and county conventions, they would effect more good than if they ran a third party ticket in counties like Wasco where they have no hope of success.

Our two Dalles contemporaries are both urging that the governor call a special session of the legislature in order to make provision for building a portage around The Dalles obstructions. The Chronicle need scarcely say it is in hearty accord with its neighbors in this matter. In fact—though it matters little—the Chronicle spoke of the matter before either of them took it up. If we have not recently given it as much attention as they, it is because we believe the real question before the people of The Dalles at this moment is that of maintaining that part of the river we have now open.

It is no more certain that the sun shines in heaven at noon-day than it is that the Moodys are getting a rebate on rates from the Union Pacific, or else acting as the agents of the company in the purchase of wheat. Under no other conceivable circumstances can they pay Portland price for wheat at North Dalles. In any case the state railroad commissioners ought to make an investigation. There is simply no room for doubting that the inter-state commerce law is being violated to crush the people's boats.

The Salem Journal is quietly booming T. Geer for member of congress, vice Jinger Herman. Now Geer is a good fellow, as everybody knows, but it is not possible for the Journal to find something better to say about him than that whenever Timothy's name is mentioned the average democrat howls? Certain it is the average democrat is not doing much howling over the name of Binger Herman.

Rebel Turks Triumphant.
 CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 29.—The yeoman insurgents are 40,000 strong, and they have the Turkish troops besieged in the capital of the province, whence the Turks have sent an urgent plea for reinforcements. There are twenty Turkish regiments altogether in the territory, no more than sufficient to occupy the fortresses that have not yet fallen into the hands of the rebels.

A Verdict Against the Railroad.
 ALBANY, Oct. 29.—In the first of two cases of the state against E. P. Rogers, of the Southern Pacific railroad, for discriminating in freight rates, the jury today returned a verdict of guilty. Counsel for the defendant filed a motion for a new trial which was overruled. The court imposed a fine of $1000. The case will go to the supreme court. The second case was continued.

President Dill of the Clearfield Bank.
 PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 29.—In the United States district court, the grand jury found a true bill in the second indictment against President Dill of the Clearfield bank, charging Dill with misappropriating funds. It is thought that his total shortage will reach $100,000.

The Wreckers of the Ulster Bank.
 KINGSTON, N. Y., Oct. 29.—The grand jury today returned indictments against James B. Ostrander and M. T. Trampbour, wreckers of the Ulster county savings institution, for converting the money of their depositors to their own use and for perjury.

A Russian Cruiser in France.
 PARIS, Oct. 28.—The Russian cruiser Dimitry Donskoy has arrived at Brest. Upon reaching that port she was cheered by enormous crowds of people, and was otherwise given a grand reception. She exchanged salutes with the fort and with the French flagship.

New York Will Get the Library.
 NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The sum of $2,000,000 is assured for carrying out Tilden's wishes in the matter of a public library, notwithstanding the adverse decree of the court of appeals. Except for the contest the city would have received for the purposes specified at least $6,000,000. The amount will come from the share of the residuary estate that would have gone to Mrs. Laura Hazard.

The Honor Confirmed.
 MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 29.—A dispatch received at noon confirms the report of the burning of the steamer Oliver Byrne near Milwaukee Bend, early this morning. Three lives are reported lost. The boat had on board 800 bales of cotton which were totally destroyed.

No Further Discrepancies Found.
 NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Adams Express company held today, President Sanford stated the examining committee had found the books and securities intact, barring the discrepancies already made public.

Judge Hoge's Successor.
 SACRAMENTO, Oct. 29.—Governor Markham has appointed Charles Slack, of San Francisco, to succeed Joseph Hoge, deceased, as superior judge in that city. He will serve until the next general election.

Fatal Gambling Quarrel.
 HOLYOKE, Oct. 29.—Heriman Lopez and Rafael Chavez, wealthy sheep ranchers, were shot and killed this morning by cowboys named Crawford and Bell. The shooting was the result of a quarrel over cards.

Chief Justice Fuller Returns.
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Chief Justice Fuller has returned to Washington, and occupied his seat in the supreme court yesterday.

Economy in Cigars.
 A well known business man walked into a cigar store the other morning and took out two coins. One was a dollar and the other a half dollar. He laid them both down on the case and pointed to a box of imported cigars, saying, "Give me a dollar's worth of those." The clerk handed them out and the buyer laid the six that he wanted in a row along the case.

Then he said to the clerk, "Give me half a dollar's worth of any good five cent cigar." The clerk did as he was bid, and the five centers were laid along in a row also. The gentleman then took the row of imported cigars and cut the ends off of them all. Then he mixed the five centers and the twenty centers up together and put them all into his capacious vest pockets.

A friend who was standing near and who had watched the operation with a good deal of curiosity, said, "Wherefore?" "Simply this, my boy," replied the man addressed. "I am in a business where I have to give away a good many cigars. I am a man who likes a good cigar. I cannot afford to give away the kind of cigars that I smoke myself, so I buy a day's supply and cut the ends off. Then I buy some cheap ones. "When it is necessary for me to give away a cigar I pull out a handful and offer one to the person, whoever he may be. He thinks that the ones with the ends cut off I have had in my mouth, and takes one of the cheap ones, whereby I save a good many dollars in the course of a year and also keep myself on good terms with the people to whom it is necessary to give cigars."—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

How to Handle Guns.
 Having been asked by friends frequently for advice for their boys in handling guns, I send you a digest of same:
 Empty or loaded, never point a gun toward yourself or any other person.
 When a field, carry your gun at the half cock. If in cover, let your hand shield the hammers from whipping twigs.
 When riding from oneshooting ground to another, or whenever you have your gun in any conveyance, remove the cartridges, if a breech loader, it being so easy to replace them. If a muzzle loader, remove the caps, brush off the nipples and place a wad on each nipple, letting down the hammers on wads—simply removing caps sometimes leaves a little fulminate on the nipple, and a blow on the hammer when down discharges it.
 Never draw a gun toward you by the barrels.

More care is necessary in the use of a gun in a boat than elsewhere, the limited space, confined action and uncertain motion making it dangerous at the best. If possible no more than two persons should occupy a boat. Hammerless guns are a constant danger to persons boating.
 Always clean your guns thoroughly as soon as you return from a day's sport, no matter how tired you feel. The consequence of its always being ready for service is ample return for the few minutes' irksome labor.—Forest and Stream.

Delayed.
 Briggs—I saw your wife in a dry goods store yesterday morning.
 Griggs—You did, eh? She must have been pricing something.
 Briggs—Why so?
 Griggs—She was late to dinner last night.—Cloak Review.

The question of railroad rates will be one of the problems before the next legislature of Oregon and the Inland Empire should send a delegation of lawmakers to Salem that cannot be bluffed or bribed by corporations. It is time that the producers were looking after their interests a little in this matter.

A rain-making corporation has been formed at Goodland, Kansas, with a capital stock of $100,000. The object of the company is to furnish rain for the public by the Melbourne process, the latter to receive ten cents per acre for all land thus watered next season.
