McFARLAND & FRENCH.

POLITICAL GUESSES.

Both Political Parties in the East Claim the Fight.

REPORT A VERY QUIET ELECTION.

The Adoption of the Australian Ballot System Closely Watched.

A TIMBER RESERVE WANTED.

A Petition to Set Aside 750,000 Acres of Land—Effects of the Maverick Bank Failure.

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—The weather is clear and cold in all parts of the commonwealth and all indications point to the polling of a heavy vote.
At Lawrence it is estimated that Russell will have 1000 majority. At Fall River the republicans expect Allen will receive a much larger vote than Brackett did. At the polling places it is conceded that Russell's vote will be much larger than last year, and the majority is variously estimated at from 850 to 1600.

Will Receive a Dividend.
BOSTON, Nov. 3.—The members of the committee of the associated banks, express the opinion that the depositors of the Maverick national bank will ultimately receive a dividend amounting to about seventy cents on the dollar.

Both Claim the State.
BOSTON, Nov. 3.—At 2 p. m. reports from all parts of the state show a very full vote is being polled and both democrats and republicans appear confident of victory.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Election day in this city opened bright and clear and reports from all parts of the state show the weather favorable for a large vote. A unusually heavy vote is reported from all parts of the state.

A Large Majority for Both.
NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Of course nothing is yet known as to the result of today's election. The democrats assert that Flower has carried this city by 100,000 and will have 60,000 majority in the whole state. The republicans, however, claim Fassett will be elected by 170,000.

The Republicans Confident.
BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 3.—A very heavy vote is being polled in this city, and the republicans are confident of carrying Buffalo and Erie country. The vote on the city ticket will probably be close. Sheehan is running considerably behind Flower in most of the wards.

Are Staying With the Party.
SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 3.—At noon upwards of three-fifths of the city's vote was polled. The vote is on party lines on the state ticket.

The Vote Nearly Cast.
ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 3.—In each of the districts over half of the registered vote had been polled at 11 o'clock.

Can't Rush the Votes.
CINCINNATI, Nov. 3.—The weather is cool and the sky overcast. The new voting law does not seem to meet with universal favor. The vote being gathered more slowly than usual.

Like the System.
CLEVELAND, Ohio, Nov. 3.—This is an ideal election day. The Australian system which is being tried for the first time today brought out the voters early and it is thought that by noon the bulk of the ballots will be cast in many of the precincts.

The Major Voted Straight.
CANTON, Ohio, Nov. 3.—Early this afternoon Major McKinley voted the straight ticket. We was heartily cheered by those assembled at the poles.

In Ohio.
TOLEDO, Nov. 3.—The weather is cool and fair, and the vote so far as polled is very heavy. The Australian system works smoothly except in two or three large precincts.

From the Dakotas.
ST. PAUL, Nov. 3.—In North Dakota both republicans and independents claim to be getting most of the votes for congressman. The vote seems most favorable to the farmers.

ABERDEEN, Nov. 3.—The election is quiet under the Australian system. Jolly (republican) for congress, received a good vote here. Woods (democrat) was second.

In Iowa.
DES MOINES, Nov. 3.—The interest taken in the election here is intense. The weather is raw and cloudy, a slight rain is reported in the southwestern part of the state, but it will not materially effect the vote.

Both parties claim gains in the cities, and also claim a victory. The people's party and prohibition vote is light.

In Nebraska.
OMAHA, Nov. 3.—The election is progressing very slowly owing to the Australian system, which is being used for the first time. It requires from six to ten minutes for the voters to prepare their ballots. As a consequence the vote will probably be light. The reports received up to noon indicate that the republican state ticket is in the lead.

The Fight in Philadelphia.
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 3.—The weather throughout the state is bright and cool, and this every inducement for a big off year vote. The city treasury-ship fight is bringing out a large vote in this city.

Democrats Taking a Back Seat.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 3.—Dispatches received from all parts of Kansas show an orderly and hotly contested election in progress. The real contest is between the republicans and the people's party.

Ought to be Free.
SANTA FE, Nov. 3.—Three convicts escaped from the penitentiary yesterday. They used imitation pistols whittled out of wood to stand off the guard and made their flight on horses. One of the trio was shot in the arm and recaptured by the guard.

All Quiet in Mississippi.
JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 3.—The election is quietly conducted.

Want It for a Timber Reserve.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Commissioner Carter of the general land office received a petition signed by a large majority of prominent citizens of Idaho asking that a tract of land adjoining the Yellowstone national park on the west, containing about 750,000 acres and including Lake Henry, be set apart as a permanent timber reserve.

Took Healy in Hand.
DUBLIN, Nov. 3.—Mr. M. C. Dermott, a nephew of the late Parnell, today publicly horsewhipped Timothy Healy, the most bitter of the anti-Parnell leaders. The horse-whipping is the direct outcome of language used by Healy at Longford, Sunday last, when the anti-Parnell leader referred to Miss Parnell and to the widow of the late Charles Stewart Parnell.

Effect of the Maverick Bank Failure.
DANVERS, N. H., Nov. 3.—The announcement of the failure of the Maverick National bank, which had a $40,000 fund of the national bank of this town, caused a run by depositors and the bank has temporarily suspended payment. The bank is perfectly solvent.

Four Boys Drowned.
MIDLAND, Ont., Nov. 2.—Four boys, between 12 and 15 years old, name John Clarkson, Peter Hewes, Leo Johnston and William Alliston, were drowned yesterday through the upsetting of a sailboat in a squall.

London Shoemakers on a Strike.
LONDON, Nov. 2.—Seven thousand shoemakers of this city have been locked out, and unless the matter in dispute is settled by Monday next, 22,000 persons will be affected by the difficulty.

Quarantine Against Spanish Vessels.
GIBRALTAR, Nov. 2.—The health authorities of this port have declared quarantine against vessels arriving from Cadiz, on account of the outbreak of smallpox there.

A Holiday in England.
LONDON, Nov. 2.—Today is a holiday on the stock exchange, it being the semi-annual settling day of the bank of England.

Weather Forecast.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—Forecast for Oregon and Washington: Light rains except fair weather in Southern Oregon.

San Francisco Wheat Market.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—Wheat, buyer, '91, 1.78 1/2; season, 1.83 1/2.

Portland Wheat Market.
PORTLAND, Nov. 3.—Wheat, Valley, 1.55; Walla Walla, 1.45.

AN ITALIAN FIEND.

Attacks a Young Girl on Her Way Home From Church.

FRIGHTENED BY HER CRIES.
The Assailant Makes His Escape with Difficulty.

MRS. MAYBRICK'S CASE CALLED.
The Trial of the Case on Appeal Began This Morning—Russian Grain Expert Stopped.

HAZLETON, Pa., Nov. 2.—Lizzie Drom, aged fourteen years, was attacked by an Italian at Turlock last night, as she was leaving a church on Green street, in the most populous part of the city. The Italian sprang from behind a tree as she was passing, and seizing her by the throat, shoved her violently against a fence. The girl fought the villain bravely, but the firm clutch at her throat prevented her at first from making any outcry. By a desperate effort, however, she wrenched the Italian's hand away and screamed loudly for help. Her cries of "Murder!" caused a commotion among the congregation, who were just coming from the church. P. F. Boyle, president of the council, who witnessed the assault, and a number of others ran to the girl's rescue. When the fiend saw them approaching, he let go of his victim and ran down the street. A number of the congregation followed. He dodged through several streets, closely followed by his pursuers, and finally managed to make his escape. The girl was badly frightened, and part of her clothing was torn, but she sustained no serious injury from the assault. She believes she could recognize her assailant again, and the police are already looking for him. His motive no doubt was robbery, as the girl wore some jewelry, whose glitter probably attracted his attention and invited the attack. Considering the locality and time of the attempted robbery, the assault was one of the boldest ever made in this city.

MRS. MAYBRICK'S CASE.
The Trial of the Question on Appeal Began This Morning.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—In the court of appeals the Maybrick case was commenced today. Sir Charles Russell, in opening his argument, said the appeal raised a most important question. The plaintiffs, for whom he appeared, were the executors of the late Mr. Maybrick, who had effected an insurance of $10,000 with the defendants, the insurance company, in favor of his wife, Mrs. Florence Maybrick, now confined in the working jail. Defendants' counsel said he had paid on account $1000 of the amount claimed, but that they refused to pay the remainder. In support of this refusal he said defendants admitted the conviction of Mrs. Maybrick was not conclusive. Continuing, Sir Charles said on the contrary, the plaintiffs submitted the fact that the sentence was commuted was not an evidence of innocence. The real question was whether Mr. Maybrick, having effected a policy in favor of his wife, and whether, assuming he died at her hands, this was any answer to the executor's claims. The ex-attorney-general then proceeded to address the court in favor of contention. The present appeal grew out of a judgment given July 20 last, in an action brought in the interest of Mrs. Maybrick against the insurance association, to recover $10,000 insurance upon her husband's life. The court then decided, as Mrs. Maybrick had been convicted of having murdered her husband she could not recover the amount for which his life was insured, as his death was caused by the person for whose benefit the action was brought. The day after this judgment was rendered, a high legal authority made the assertion that the insurance association's refusal to pay Mrs. Maybrick the insurance on her husband's life, on the ground that his death was caused by her, would enable the convicted woman to bring out in a civil action facts traversed in the murder trial, since she could compel the insurance company to prove she murdered her husband. This high legal authority is said to have based his opinion on the fact that, according to the English law, a conviction is not proof between other parties, but only between the prosecution and the prisoner.

Cessation of Russian Grain Exports.
LONDON, Nov. 2.—In view of the cessation of Russian grain exports, the statistics of the Glasgow general grain stock for 1891, as compared with that of 1890, are of serious importance. They show for the latter year a decrease of 74,000 quarters of wheat, 89,000 quarters of maize, 10,000 quarters of barley and 46,000 sacks of flour. In oats alone a slight increase is shown.

The Painters' Strike in Berlin.
BERLIN, Nov. 2.—The painters who struck recently have mostly been replaced by non-union men.
