RESULT OF THE FIGHT.

The Republicans Loose a Few Points but Capture Most of the Offices.

THE RETURNS NOT ALL IN.

And Both Parties Consequently Claim the Victory.

CLEVELAND GIVES HIS VIEWS.

Thinks Campbell Would Have Been a Good Governor—Two Men Hold up a Bank for $4,800.

IN IOWA.

DES MOINES, Nov. 4.—The Register (rep.) says: "The republicans are hopeful of the state ticket is probably elected by a safe plurality. No definite returns from the legislative districts, but the republicans are hopeful of a republican majority in both houses."

The Leader (dem.) says: "The day was ours. Iowa rolls up an increased democratic plurality. Governor Boies for president. The democratic masses of the west still lead the people. Iowa farmers were with him. The democrats gained all over the state. Two hundred and fifty-five precincts give a net democratic gain of 540."

The situation in this state has not changed materially. Up to 1 o'clock 504 precincts out of a total of 1940 have reported. They gave wheeler (rep.) 68,000 and Boies (dem.) 69,035. The same precincts last year gave Hutchinson (republican) 59,314, Boies (democrat) 59,932, a net democrat gain of 315. The republican committee is still hopeful, on account of the county districts which have been slow in reporting. The democrats claim the whole state ticket as elected. The republicans claim all but governor, and will not concede that until the back precincts are heard from. The democrats concede to the republicans the lower house of the legislature, and claim the senate will be a tie. In the senatorial district in doubt the chances are conceded with republicans. If the republicans carry it, senate will stand republicans 27 to democrats 25.

DES MOINES, Nov. 4.—The republicans claim the election of Van Houten as lieutenant governor. The house will be republican by four. The senate is in doubt on account of the Apooose and Davis districts. In these republicans have a better chance. If the republicans carry the them senate will be a tie with a presiding officer probably a republican.

IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The Herald says: "We are convinced that the election of Flower will prove a sort of boomerang to the democratic party in the presidential campaign in next year, and a blessing in disguise to the republicans. The latest returns this morning show Flower's plurality over Fassett in the state to be 40,055. The whole democratic state ticket is elected."

In this city Flower's plurality is 58,837, showing a democratic falling off of more than ten thousand from the vote for Hill in 1888. The assembly goes democratic by eight although the republicans claim they have it.

Returns received from the associated press up to noon today show the democrat elect 14 senators and the republicans 14. Four districts are still in doubt, but the returns so far received, indicate that the democrats will carry three of these, and the republicans one. The same returns indicate that the assembly will stand 61 republicans, to 64 democrats and one county democrat who was endorsed by the republicans of the democratic seats, four are still in some doubt and of the republicans one is doubtful.

IN MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—It is estimated that in the whole state Russell received 156,000 and Allen 151,000 leaving the governor a plurality of about 5000. Lieutenant-governor Male and the balance of the republican state ticket are elected by an ample plurality. Treffy (democratic) is elected state auditor. The returns for the legislature are very incomplete. The senate will be republican. The house has complete returns from 137 members, little more than half, and these stand ninety-two republicans to forty-five democrats. The executive council will probably stand seven republicans to one democrat.

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—Governor Russell this morning claims his election by about 6000. He said: "It means that Massachusetts is earnestly for the tariff reform on the line of free raw material which has been the chief issue in this state. It also means that she is firmly and aggressively for sound currency."

The Journal (republican) at noon, concedes the election of Russell by eight thousand.

IN OHIO.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 4.—Reports indicate that the legislature will be republican on joint ballot by a majority of thirty-eight.

In Hamilton county 166 precincts show a net democratic gain of 2,278, indicating a plurality for McKinley of 5,300.

The new election law delayed the returns in Hamilton county beyond precedent. At 10 o'clock today there were a number of delinquent judges who had not reported, for whom the board of elections were about to issue warrants for arrest. The plurality for McKinley will approach 5000. The entire legislative ticket of the republicans is elected.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 4.—The returns from the elections are still coming in slowly at state headquarters of both parties. Unofficial information has been obtained from probably half of the 88 companies. Chairman Hahn of the republican committee claims the plurality of McKinley is between nineteen thousand and twenty-one thousand and that the republican majority of the general assembly will be 37 on joint ballot. Chairman Neal says McKinley's plurality will be at least 12 thousand and may reach 20 thousand, and that the republicans will have 28 on a joint ballot. One feature of the result is a complete drop out of people's party, their vote in the state will not exceed 11,500 and they claimed before election at least seventy-five thousand.

IN MISSOURI.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 4.—The election returns from Kansas are coming in very slowly. Nothing has been heard from any counties in the western part of the state. Such returns as have been received indicate that the people's party has lost its prestige. Out of fifty counties from which returns have been received six will probably elect a people's party ticket at greatly reduced pluralities.

Cleveland's Views.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Ex-President Grover Cleveland today gave his opinions of the result of Tuesday's election as follows: "Any one who still thinks the tariff reform settled and an absolute issue or that of the importance of sound and safe money question, upon which the people can be blinded, are either wilfully wrong or dangerously dull. I very much regret the defeat of Governor Campbell. He would have been a brave and honest official in this, and the splendid canvass he made entitled him to success."

While the election of Flower, Russell, and Boies ought to cause the utmost rejoicing among the democrats, they should not forget that with these things comes obligations to be true to the people, honest in the advocating of pure principles and decent in all things."

A SLECK JOB.

Two men Relieve the Summerville Bank of $4800.

LA GRANDE, Or., Nov. 4.—A robbery which exceeded the recent Enterprise affair in the amount taken was perpetrated upon the Farmers Mortgage and Savings bank of Summerville this county last night.

Summerville is a village three miles from the Elgin branch of the Union Pacific, and sixteen miles north of this city. As the mails reach the village late in the evening and leave early in the morning it was the custom of H. C. Rinehart, cashier of the bank to attend to his correspondence after supper. As he was leaving the bank about 9 o'clock last evening he was met at the door by two men with sacks over their heads, who pressed pistols to his head and ordered him to go back and open the safe. He stepped back into the room and they followed him, pulling down the blinds and lighting the lamp.

They displayed great coolness, not only taking all the money in the safe but examining the papers as well. The amount taken was $4,800 after leaving the bank they went on foot towards the timber. There is much excitement in Summerville this morning and preparations are being made to institute a thorough search for the robbers, who it is supposed are residents of the neighborhood.

HOW HE WAS KILLED.

Details by a Witness to the Killing of the Baltimore's Sailor.

WAS STABBED IN THE BACK.

Pursued by a Crowd and Cut Down With a Knife.

KILLED HER FAITHLESS LOVER.

The Italian Idea of the Chilean Affair—A Convicted Murderer Out on Bail. Brutally Murdered.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—A Valparaiso correspondent says: "I saw a most important witness of the affray in the streets of Valparaiso on board the Baltimore today. He says he saw Turnbull, the murdered sailor of the Baltimore, running up the street, pursued by a mob with drawn knives. He was overtaken by a man who plunged a knife into his body. Turnbull fell within ten feet of the witness, who stood over him and defended the prostrate man, not knowing whether he was alive or dead. He assisted him to a chemist's shop. The chemist was loath to shelter wounded men, fearing the people. The witness insisted that he should help wash and dress Turnbull's wounds. Then he took a carriage and started to the English hospital. The driver was afraid, and said the man must go to the Chilean hospital. Witness took him there. Witness was afterward arrested and insulted by an officer of the police, who put a loaded gun to his head, threatening to shoot if he opened his mouth about the matter. He claims his body was bruised by blows. He asked the protection of Captain Schley, and says he is afraid for his life ashore."

She Killed Her Faithless Lover.

PARIS, Nov. 3.—Marie Le Boeuf, a governess, committed suicide in this city after having shot and fatally wounded her lover, a government official at Nogent-Sur-Marne, named Valentine Beras. Marie Le Boeuf, it appears, became the mistress of Valentine Beras, on a promise that he would take her in marriage. Beras had, however, made a similar promise to many other women, and at last jilted Marie in favor of another. The injured woman dissembled, and under pretext of wishing a final interview with Beras before his marriage, persuaded her recent lover to visit her. Valentine Beras and Marie Le Boeuf spent last night together in a hotel in this city, and this morning Valentine was discovered in a dying condition beside Marie.

Better Attend to Their Own Business.

ROME, Nov. 3.—Italia publishes an article headed "Good Yankees," during which that paper says: "The United States have one diplomatic rule for Chili and another for Italy. They virtually closed by the McKinley bill the markets of the United States to Italian wares and products, and now the United States seeks to be high suzerain over all America. All Yankees unscrupulously follow politics as a business, even when international affairs are concerned, but the time may come when Europe will lay aside her petty differences, and call the United States to a more exact and precise notion of the law of nations."

A Convicted Murderer on Bail.

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 3.—Superior Judge Pierce and Torrance, sitting in banc, yesterday released C. W. Breedlove on bail of $10,000. Breedlove was convicted of manslaughter for his connection with the death of Sailor Brown of the Charleston, during a riot in this city some months ago, and is awaiting sentence now. This is said to be the first time a convicted prisoner awaiting sentence has ever been admitted to bail in San Diego county. A motion for a new trial is pending. Judge Putebaugh, before whom the case was tried, is ill.

An Old Couple Murdered.

GEORGIANA, Ala., Nov. 3.—Last night Thomas Sheppard and wife, an old couple of highly-esteemed people, residing two miles from town, were murdered. Their bodies were horribly butchered, the crime having apparently been committed with axes. Every trunk and drawer in the house was pilaged. People are in a state of frenzy, and a large force of men are patrolling the country in search of the murderers.

A Present From the Pope.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 3.—Rev. Dr. Rooker, vice-president of the American college at Rome, has arrived here with the promised gift from the pope for the archbishop. The present consists of a medallion of the pope painted on ivory with a gold frame.

Boston of Sailors Drowned.
LONDON, Nov. 4.—A dispatch from Portland says a boat belonging to H. M. S. Showe capsize, drowning the sailors.
