The Chronicle is the Only Paper in The Dalles that Receives the Associated Press Dispatches.

The report of Superintendent Farley containing a statement of the gross receipts of the Cascade portage for the past month, will sufficiently answer the many criticisms offered on the rates fixed by the commission, without any knowledge of the facts in the case. Had they been fixed lower they would not have met the current expenses. To make any reduction from present rates a reduction must be made in the operating expenses. This is the course recommended by the superintendent and adopted by the board. The office of the superintendent will be merged into that of manager who will have entire control. Mr. Farley's work will be done about the end of the month and he will resign. The reduction in the running expenses recommended by the superintendent amounts to between three to four hundred dollars a month. The commissioners were very anxious to accede to the suggestions of Mr. Farley and the directors of the peoples' boats, and every cent of reduction possible will be given in a corresponding reduction of rates. We may add that the directors of the peoples' boats accompanied superintendent Farley to Salem and there was nothing but the utmost harmony between all parties. The directors feel that they cannot speak too highly of the consideration shown them by the board of portage commissioners.

The East Oregonian is opposed to the calling of a special session of the legislature for the purpose of providing funds for building a portage around the dalles rapids. It thinks the remedy is worse than the disease and says we might as well "try to save a dogs life by cutting his tail off right behind the ears." The Chronicle has no idea that Governor Penneyer would think for a moment of calling an extra session of the legislature for this or any other purpose. His excellency does not like the Oregon legislature any too well to be anxious to meet it, and even if it were convened the people have no assurance whatever that it would pass the measure desired. Our only hope for a portage on this side the Columbia lies in keeping the matter constantly before the people, and pleading all candidates for the legislature at the next election to work for the passage of a portage bill. Meanwhile we again remind our contemporaries that the great question before the people of this section on both sides the river is the maintenance of the road we already have, and they can do much in this direction by endeavoring to create and foster a public sentiment in favor of the people's line of boats.

One of the most significant facts connected with the elections of last Tuesday is the evidence of the waning influence of the third party. The assertions frequently made of late that this party was losing strength have been completely verified. It has suffered almost a wholesale defeat in Missouri and a marked loss of strength in Kansas and Nebraska. Speaking of the latter state the dispatches says that the party polled a fight vote and "lost much strength through failure to keep up its organization; the farmers being busy and prosperous." There is a whole world of meaning in this last sentence. Arguments and principles that draw their strength and inspiration from poverty and hard times cannot subsist and grow when the country is prosperous.

They Speak From Experience.
"We know from experience in the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy that it will prevent croup," says Messrs. Gadberrly & Worley, Percy, Iowa. They also add that the remedy has given great satisfaction in this vicinity, and that they believe it to be the best in the market for throat and lung diseases. For sale by Squires & Kinerly druggists.

The Amer of Afghanistan.
LONDON, Nov. 4.—The foreign office is elated over the news that the ameer of Afghanistan will be a visitor to England in the spring. Every effort will be made to impress the visitor, and to show him what a great country England is compared with Russia. The ameer has ordered the purchase of some comfortable winter garments in London to be worn during his journey. The visit of the ameer will be of great political importance, and the announcement of his intention has, it is said, already created considerable irritation at St. Petersburg.
