PARIS, Nov. 13.—The recent gale caused an immense amount of damage in all parts of France and a number of persons were killed. Several vessels were wrecked at Tecamp, on the English channel, but only one man was drowned. Late smacks of Cherbourg with their crews numbering ten men are missing.

The life-saving crew at Kinsala finally succeeded in rescuing the captain and four of the crew, but seven were drowned. News has just reached this city of the loss at sea of the British steamer Fairfield. No lives lost.

The Rebellion in Brazil.

THE CALIFORNIAN BOSSES.

Chris Buckley and Sam Rainey Indicted by the Grand Jury.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—The joint indictment by the grand jury against Buckley and Rainey on Tuesday, charging them with bribery is the universal subject of conversation today about the city hall and the city generally. The grand jurors are generally complimented, and it is frankly admitted that they have now certainly proven they have been in earnest in their work. Rainey's present whereabouts is not definite. After the sheriff returns the bench warrant, which he will probably do tomorrow, the district attorney will have to write to the governor, stating the facts of the case, enclosing certified copies of the indictments, the bench warrants, the returns made thereon, depositions taken before the grand jury, etc., and cite the extradition law between the United States and Great Britain pertaining to persons wanted for felony. The governor will then inform the state department at Washington requesting them to take the necessary steps to secure the surrender of the culprits by the Dominion government. If Buckley and Rainey can only be brought within the reach of California law, it is generally supposed that this first indictment will be only one of the many indictments that will be found against them for the many jobs that they have taken a conspicuous part in.

Beautiful as Well as Religious.

PRAGUE, Nov. 12.—The Princess Marguerite of Austria, abbess of the community of noble ladies, is improving, and may, it is thought, regain her health. The princess is the most beautiful woman connected with the Austrian imperial family, and also the most religious. As head of the community in Prague, the abbess has earned a reputation for sanctity that may help to place her in the list of saints. There appears to be no romance connected with her adoption of the veil. She is now 21 years old.

REVOLUTION IN BRAZIL.

Dictator Fonseca Making Preparations to Stamp It Out.

KILLED BY A CALIFORNIA JUDGE.

The Defendant in a Suit Shot by the Judge in the Case.

MORMONS AT WORK IN RUSSIA.

The Government Has Determined to Drive Them Out—He is Paid to Stay Away.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Today's advices from Rio Grande Do Sul give the reasons for the secession of that province. One is that, owing to the distance of the province from Rio Janeiro, its interests do not attract the attention they deserve. Another is that the state prefers to govern itself, and does not agree with the general policy of guiding affairs at the north. Da Fonseca is, all rumors to the contrary, notwithstanding, in apparently good health, and able to make a vigorous campaign. It is reported in Monte Video that Da Fonseca has declared his positive resolution to put down the rebellion in the south, and to employ, if need be, every able-bodied man within reach of his authority. The dictator has abolished exemption from military service, which heretofore could be purchased in Brazil. Hereafter rich and poor will have to take their turns in the army, which is being rapidly increased. The army is more efficient than it was under the empire, and the navy has also been strengthened. There is every prospect, therefore, of a protracted struggle, should Rio Grande Do Sul persist in its determination to secede.

A private telegram received is to the effect that Rio Grande Do Sul is now entirely in the hands of the seceders from the dictatorship of Da Fonseca. The dispatch also says the military have given support to the seceders.

KILLED BY A JUDGE.

The Defendant in a Suit Shot Dead by the Judge in the Case.

PASO ROBLES, Cal., Nov. 12.—Yesterday afternoon A. M. Sherwood met Judge John Keshaw upon the street and inquired about the charge that had been examined before Keshaw and a jury, in which Sherwood was defendant, the jury having disagreed. Judge Keshaw told him that he did not know that it all lay with the prosecuting witnesses, but that he hoped the jury would be dismissed. Sherwood said he hoped not, as he wanted to be tried and acquitted. He then commenced to call the judge names and said that he had endeavored to rake up cases against him. Keshaw denied the charge, and one word brought on another until Sherwood struck Keshaw with a screw-driver, which he had in his hand, and Keshaw backed off and attempted to get away but Sherwood caught hold of him. Keshaw then drew a revolver and shot Sherwood three times, one ball entering the body near the heart. The combatants struggled for a few minutes before Sherwood loosened his grasp and fell. Popular opinion is that Keshaw acted in self-defense.

Mormon Elders at Work in Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 12.—The authorities of the famine-stricken province of Samara are dealing with a new evil in the shape of an invasion of Mormon missionaries from America. These are conducting an active campaign among the poor peasants, who are induced by circumstances to readily believe any story about the promised land being at a distance away from Russia. The Mormons invariably select for their victims families that have girls. They describe their home in America as a land flowing with milk and honey, and just the place for starving peasants. The latter are led to part with their little belongings at any price and undertake a journey to America. The authorities are at last aroused to the determination to put down Mormonism in Samara, and the missionaries will have to seek pastures new.

He is Paid to Stay Away.

VIENNA, Nov. 12.—Ex-King Milan is to receive an additional 2,000,000 francs from Serbia as part of the price for his compliance in living away from Serbia. The ex-king has no desire to return, having tasted the delights of Paris, where he has been leading a most extravagant life, having run through 1,000,000 francs in a few months. He is known on one occasion to have given a diamond ring worth 5000 francs to a favorite artist.
