THE WAR IN CHINA.

Fifteen Thousand Rebels Well Organized and Armed With Repeaters.

THE OFFICERS ARE POWFLESS.

The Uprising is Directed Mainly Against the Present Authority.

A SMALL WAR IN MEXICO.

A Wealthy Young Man Suspected—Fears Entertained That the Entire Fleet is Lost.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—A Chronicle's correspondent at Shanghai says: The capture of Tehwei near Too Chow by 15,000 rebels was a well organized rising. The rebels are armed with repeaters, and are led by capable men. The outbreak is directed mainly against the authorities, though anti foreign cries are heard.

The officials are powerless. European residents are apprehensive of a spread of the revolt. The British consul here in an interview, said he believed the recent quietude was only temporary, the spring and summer being a favorable period for outrages in China. In spite of the same official statement two Chong rioters have been beheaded and others bastinadoed.

The Mexicans Fighting.

RIO GRANDE, Tex., Nov. 16.—The news arrived today to the effect that on the 12 inst., Catarino Garza and about 100 men met several hundred Mexican soldiers near Miera. Catarino held his ground. A volley was fired at his force but without damage, and it was returned by the revolutionists, causing the death of three soldiers, and wounding one. The government forces fell back in disorder.

One of the First Families Suspected.

GALENA, Ills., Nov. 16.—Ralph White, one of the men held at Racine, Wisconsin, under the suspicion of being implicated in the train robbery at Western Union junction, is a member of one of the best and wealthiest families of this county, he being a son of J. W. White, president of the Hanover woolen company, and a nephew of Senator Cheney, of New Hampshire.

Fear the Whole Fleet is Lost.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Intense anxiety prevails among the relatives and friends of the crews of the Brightling sea fishing fleet all the vessels which were at sea when the recent storm burst upon the English coast, not one vessel of the fleet has returned to port since the gale began and it is feared the whole fleet has been lost.

Hot Blooded Young Kentuckians.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 15.—A tremendous sensation was created in society early this morning by a pitched battle between Robert Breckinridge, son of the silver-tongued congressman, Colonel W. H. Breckinridge, and Dault Arnold, a well-known society young man of Frankfort. They both attended the governor's ball, and had a misunderstanding over the hand of a blue-gloss beauty for a certain dance. On invitation of Breckinridge they stepped outside the ballroom to settle the affair. Breckinridge was pretty nearly used up, and it is rumored on the street that he has sent word to Arnold to arm himself, as he intends killing him on sight.

Deny Their Connection.

RACINE, Wis., Nov. 15.—John Henderson and his brother-in-law, Ralph White, deny emphatically that they had anything to do with the train robbery at Western Union Junction. They were suspected by the detectives, who found near the scene of the robbery, shells which fitted the gun rented by Henderson. They assert they were out hunting and never saw Western Union Junction in their lives. The officers here regard their story as true. It is reported that a suspicious character was arrested here today but there is no positive information.

A Sound Steamship Mail Route.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Representative Wilson today secured an order from the postoffice department establishing a very important steamship mail route on Puget sound. It is to carry the mail from Seattle by Bangor, Seabeck, Brinnan, Pleasant Harbor, Quackabash, Halmar, Jo-Hamlin, Dewatto, Lillawap Falls and Hoodport to Union City and back, three times a week, in safe and suitable steamboats. The contractor is D. Troutman, of Seattle.

Nine Millions Decrease.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—Considerable interest attaches to the figures showing the value of declared exports from the United Kingdom to the United States for the three months ended June 30th, last, as compared with the same period in 1890. The total figures for these three months this year were $44,725,841; last year, $53,329,068; thus showing a falling off of nearly $9,000,000. Only six of twenty-four towns exporting to the United States show an increase.

Murder and Arson Suspected.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 15.—Near Davey, about four miles from Lincoln, a fire last night destroyed the home of Mrs. Ann Morrissey. A neighbor passing the place today discovered in the ruins the charred remains of the former occupant, Mrs. Morrissey, who was well to do, and lived alone. The fact that she was in the city yesterday and received considerable money leads to the theory the fire was not accidental. The coroner will investigate.

Under the Civil Service Rules.

OMAHA, Nov. 15.—The postmaster general has ordered that sixteen mail carriers and five clerks be dismissed from the Omaha postoffice, a civil service examiner having alleged they had been appointed without conformity to the civil service rules. He recommended they be dismissed, and that men who had passed examination, and whose interests had not been protected, should be appointed instead.

Bank Examiners to Take Charge.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Comptroller of the Currency Lacey has instructed the bank examiners to take charge of the Cheyenne National bank at Cheyenne, Wyo., and the national bank at San Diego, Cal., both of which failed during the week. Lacey says he does not know whether the report that Senator Sherman is a stockholder of the Cheyenne bank is true or not.

To Take Care of the Anarchists.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The German anarchist refugees in London are stirred up by a report that the German Government proposes to submit a bill in the Reichstag considerably enlarging the power of the police to deal with anarchists and other agitators.

The whaleback steamer Charles W. Wetmore has been heard from at Valparaiso, Chile, at which place she touched on Friday. She left yesterday on the home-stretch of her 14,000 mile journey from New York to Puget Sound.

The present year has proved fatal to all three of the Waterloo officers who lived to celebrate the seventy-fifth anniversary of the battle in June, 1890. Lord Albemarle died in February, but he was much younger than either General Whitecote, who died in September, or Colonel Hewitt, who passed away very recently. The Waterloo list at the war office has been closed.

His present spouse married him about two months ago and put up $700 for the restaurant, a portion of which money he took with him. He leaves the woman with her two children and a large amount of debts on the restaurant. He wrote from Sioux City that he would come back. It has been discovered he has wives in Helena, Glencoe and Detroit.

NEWS FROM BRAZIL.

The Insurgents in Rio Grande do Sul Ready for War.

FINANCIAL SITUATION IN BRAZIL.

It Is Reported to Be in a Very Deplorable Condition.

WHY THE MONEY IS HELD.

Fell Nineteen Stories—He is Well Supplied With Wives—Storm on the Guit.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—General Astorgildo, in command of the nationalist forces in Rio Grande do Sul, has occupied several strategic points, and is preparing to meet the dictator's troops, should they really mean to try and subdue their province. It is believed, however, that the northern province of Minas Geraes and other provinces will soon be heard from in the dictator's rear, and that this may alter his present plans considerably. The people generally are enthusiastic in supporting the nationalist army, and are freely contributing food and fodder for its maintenance.

Reports of the financial situation in Brazil, picturing it in a deplorable light, were current today among Brazilian merchants and correspondents. The report was based upon dispatches, received from Rio, some sent with the government's sanction and others being private advices. The latter, as was deemed natural, told a worse story than the former, but they were all anything but encouraging, and one merchant went so far as to say that, "the situation could not be worse without bursting wide open."

It is asserted that much discontent exists among the people of Sao Paulo. The censorship exercised over all telegrams is stricter than ever.

MONEY DUE THE INDIANS.

Why the Coeur d'Alene Appropriation Has Not Been Distributed.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Mr. Wilson was in consultation with the secretary of the interior today about the payment of the money due the Coeur d'Alene Indians, appropriated by the last congress. The money is now held up because an effort is being made to provide for Quinomozie, an Indian who had severed his tribal relations and was living upon allotted land, and was not included in the list of Indians made up by the commission which negotiated the treaty. Under the law the severance of tribal relations will not prevent an Indian from sharing in all benefits given the tribe, and the interior department is waiting for the other Indians to give their consent that Quinomozie shall share pro-rata with them in the money to be paid. If he is not paid he can bring suit and recover from the United States.

Another Record Broke.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—James Charlesen broke the record today with a frightful fall of nineteen stories. He was a terra cotta operator, working inside the roof of the new Masonic temple. He and John Wilson erected a temporary scaffold, and Charlesen was standing on this when it gave away. The distance to the ground was covered in about three seconds. Every bone in his body was crushed, and the corpse presented a frightful spectacle. Wilson saved his life by clinging to the side supports. He has since disappeared, and it is said he and Charlesen quarreled a few moments before the scaffold broke.
