Press Dispatches.

THE GREATEST COUNTRY IN THE WORLD.

A well known mining expert recently read a paper at a meeting of mining men in Portland in which he claimed that we have in Oregon all the minerals known to science except a few of the most rare, of which, so far no evidence has been found. There is gold, silver, nickel, chromium, iron, lead, copper, and etc., on to the end of the list. To the metals may be added marble, freestone, lime, asbestos, roofing slate, fine clay, paint clay, cement and so on also to the end. We have four distinct kinds of Alenes in the Cascade Range between Portland and Cottage Grove all tributary to Portland and which would make her nearly as large as San Francisco in five years if the mines of Clackamas, Santiam, Blue River and Bohemia were fully developed and thoroughly worked. We have nine different varieties of marble in Oregon from pure white to jet black which in beauty and purity equal anything that Italy or Belgium ever produced. The same writer claims that we have the richest and most extensive nickel mines yet found in the world. A government expert has valued the ore at 20 cents a pound, yet the Rothschilds of London who control the nickel market of the world send their ships to New Caledonia, an island a thousand miles beyond Australia and ship ore to England that pays only three to five cents a pound. As regards coal, the writer says: "It is the most marvelous of our mineral wealth in extent and excellence, unequaled in the history of the world. Coos Bay alone has 400 square miles of continuous, unbroken coal beds all of which can be shipped to market by water. Finally the writer winds up a remarkable article with the following:

I hold that Oregon is as far ahead of other countries in mineral wealth as she is in agricultural, timber and other sources of natural wealth, that insure prosperity to a community and happiness to the individual. In the face of the facts I have presented, would it not therefore be wiser in all of us living by that wealth to whoop up Oregon, and let other countries alone to whoop up themselves?

The Polk county alliance recently passed resolutions in favor of the abolition of the state railway commission the fish commission the sheep commission and the office of attorney general. They demand that all nominees for legislative honors shall pledge themselves to oppose all appropriations for public roads or bridges, they demand the lowering of the salaries of all public officials to a liberal business rate and oppose the hiring of legislative committee clerks or any pretense whatever. The Oregon legislature may have been accustomed to employ too many committee clerks but just how the various committees are going to do without any clerks "what-ever" these good brethren of Polk county do not inform us.

The Missouri Flat, Josephine county alliance, in this state, at a late meeting, after debating the prohibition question thoroughly, "almost unanimously" passed the following resolution: "Resolved, that the Missouri Flat Alliance, No. 211, do hereby recommend to and demand of the next session of the Oregon legislature the passage of an act making it a misdemeanor for any person to drink malt or spirituous liquors and that any one violating said act shall be punishable by a fine of $50." The Josephine county fool-killer ought to be able to find a winter's job among these good brethren of Missouri Flat.

The Chronicle has not yet heard from any of the numerous farmers who were furnished with sugar beet seed from this office last spring, as to what success they may have had in raising beets. Will some of our readers who have tried the experiment send us samples of the beets that we may have them analyzed and report the results in the columns of the Chronicle.

The Oregon Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias voted that hereafter no saloonmen shall be admitted to membership in the subordinate lodges of the order in this state.

ALL SORTS.

A Marion county boy was committed to the asylum recently, who is a rare monstrosity. He is 27 years old, four feet high. His head is forty inches in circumference, requiring about a number 13 hat, while his legs are bent and weak, and he cannot walk.

Joe Turk, who used to sing Salvation Army songs along with Al. Zetterman, is in St. Paul now. He says while in Portland he converted Judge Shattuck. Joe ought to come back and get in his work on a couple more Portland judges while still the lamp holds out.

The West Side of last week contains the following: "The Monmouth Democrat will leave for Dufur, Oregon, the first of next week. We say to Editor Brooks, hail and farewell. He will make a good paper wherever he goes and he is a bedrock democrat."

The Seattle Post-Intelligencer truthfully says: "No great newspaper ever rose to influence and long maintained it whose editor made his private piques, his unquenched personal animosities, his unrelenting and unsatisfied private interests the polar star of his professional life."

The republican victory in Kansas was so overwhelming that it even surprised the victors. The republicans carried eighty-five out of the 110 counties in the state, and ten out of the eleven alliance candidates for district judge were defeated. This will be pleasing unktion for the wounds of a gentleman named Ingalls.

We have heard of many kinds of thefts. There are men who will steal almost anything, but probably the meanest thief that ever lived is the one who went to A. R. Norwood's residence a few days ago and stole a brick chimney. Take in your chimneys and deposit them in a burglar-proof safe when you leave home, or else you may find them missing when you return.—Harrisburg Courier.

A curious accident happened at the residence of Mr. A. A. Wilder last week. While the family were all in the house at the noon meal, a prairie chicken soared through an open window and alighted upon the floor, where it strutted around regardless of the presence of the family. Mr. Wilder captured it, but finally turned it loose again, when off it went, cackling, evidently well pleased with the adventure.—Milton Eagle.
