LOCAL BEKVITIES.

Mr. Wood Gilman of Gilliam county is in the city.

A. J. Dufur, jr., of Dufur gave the CHRONICLE office a pleasant call today.

Two or three good carpenters can hear of employment by calling at this office.

Two vagrants and one drunk were arrested last night and duly fined this morning.

The band boys will please meet at the store of W. E. Garretson this evening at half past eight o'clock. By Order.

Mr. A. R. Holmes in the employ of Landry & Demott of Pendleton is on a short visit to this city, the guest of Agent Sibby.

John Topar of Dufur has rented his farm and will soon remove to Champoug where he is going into the business of hop-raising.

The west bound evening passenger ran into a ditch last night near Rooster Rock. The cause of the accident was a broken axle.

Hon. Sol. Hirsch U. S. Minister to Turkey, passed through the city last night on his way to Constantinople, which he expects to reach about the new year.

A. J. Wall of Eight Mile has shipped to him yesterday from Biggs a pair of badgers, a male and female, which he will add to the other attractions of his menagerie.

Wm. Butler & Co., invites parties intending to build to examine the lumber in Mr. G. J. Farley's new residence and compare with the quality furnished by other dealers.

G. J. Farley has twenty four men working on his new residence and grounds. Four of these are from Portland and the remaining twenty are from the city and county.

Major G. W. Ingalls stopped off the noon passenger today on his way to Baker City. The major seems to be perfectly confident that a liberal sum of money will be raised for the World's fair exhibit.

We call attention to the new advertisement of Wm. Butler & Co., to be found in another column. Those requiring lumber, laths or shingles will save money by getting their figures before purchasing elsewhere.

Mr. Polk Mays, of the Wallowa valley, son of Mayor Mays is on a visit to his parents. He says they had quite a snow storm already in the Wallowa and that the thermometer ran down to zero last Sunday morning.

George Gallagher, another all round bum, who was discharged yesterday from the city jail, managed before long to get enough whisky to make him as happy as a clam at high tide. He was again juggled and given twenty days this morning.

Frank Creighton of Three Mile left at this office a few days ago a Petit prune tree, grafted last March and grown on his hill land without a drop of irrigation, that measures from the graft to the top eight feet and one inch. It is now on exhibition in the CHRONICLE show window. Who can beat it?

H. G. Jordan of Sherar's Bridge and C. P. Raysdale of Moro are at the Umatilla house.

George Herbert, the popular host of the Mount Hood hotel of Hood River, came up today on the noon passenger.

About 11 o'clock this forenoon an Indian's team and hack came dashing down the grade east of the brewery, while a number of persons living on the bluff ran to its edge to witness the runaway. As the team was passing the stock yards on the dead run a young man who was driving a cow to the pound left his charge and took after the runaways, cleverly overhauling them near Brooks & Beers feed yard.

The handsome new residence of M. V. Harrison of Hood River came very near being destroyed by fire this morning. In order to dry the walls before moving into the building a fire had been kindled in the parlor fire place from which sparks must have flown out and set fire to the floor of the room. Fortunately Mrs. Harrison discovered the flames and managed to extinguish them before any serious head-way had been made.

Dick Nolan has found the suit of underclothing that was stolen from the clothes line in his mother's yard; a few night's ago, but the clothes pins are still missing. The underclothing was found under the pillow of a man named Burns who was, up till about the time of the theft, employed as a cook in the restaurant of Pat Howard on Second street. Burns says he bought the underclothing from a strange man for the sum of 25 cents, and may be he did, but then, again, maybe he didn't.

Mr. W. H. Brooks of the late Monmouth Democrat is in the city on his way to Dufur to start a new paper in that charming little village. Mr. Brooks gave this office a friendly call today. He informs us that his plant is in transit. It was shipped from independence on the 17th. The new journal will be a purely local paper, and Mr. Brooks' efforts will be devoted mainly to build up the country and make a living for himself on the side. We heartily wish the new enterprise the success it may deerve. There is plenty of room yet left in the world for every man who tries to do good.

George Davis is a thoroughbred, that is; a genuine registered and pedigreed hobo. After having worked out a fine for vagrancy, he was discharged yesterday morning, when he immediately proceeded to beg enough money to load him up with whiskey and having become involved in a little trouble with George Gibbons at the freight depot, Mr. Davis thought it the proper caper to discharge a coupling pin at George Gibbons' head. George dodged the missile and then went after his assailant, whom he "pounded good." Then General J. H. Jackson came along with a big dray cart and loaded up the remains and put it back into the skookhum house. The recorder gave him fifteen days this morning.

Big Potatoes.

COLLINS LANDING, Nov. 18, 1891.

DEAR SIR:—I ship you potatoes as per agreement. You will find five Peerless and three Bourbank seedlings. The latter and three of the Peerless are nothing extra for size, as I have hundreds of bushels of them, but they are a little above the average. The largest one weighed eight pounds and the next largest, six and one-half pounds when taken from the ground.

Yours Respectfully, ROBERT CARR.

The above explains itself. The potatoes have arrived and the largest was found to weigh exactly seven and a half pounds, the next size six pounds and two ounces. They have doubtless shrunk the difference since being dug. Mr. Carr's place is opposite Shell Rock on the Washington side of the river. The potatoes are now on exhibition at this office and if any one can beat them any where the CHRONICLE would like to hear from him. In this connection, however, we may mention that in the year '84 six potatoes were raised on the Theodore Mesplie place, four miles from town, whose weight aggregated fifty-two pounds.

East End Notes.

The pound master has opened the fight on dogs in the East End and says he is going to carry the war into all dogdom and keep it up if it takes him all winter. It behooves everyone owning a dog that is worth saving to invest a dollar and a half with the recorder in the form of a dog license.

A gang of fighting hobos that were found hanging around the depot buildings yesterday were accommodated in the Marshal Gibbons' lodging house last night. They appear to be satisfied with the grub but complain of a shortage in blankets.

The boys in the East End are just as honest as boys usually are or as it is possible for boys to be outside the pearly gates, still it is the opinion of a prominent citizen of the East End that August Buehler's chickens would be in less danger of disappearing if the fence on which they roost nightly was just a few boards higher.

Ladies desiring scrubbing, washing or house cleaning of any kind on short notice, will please address a postal card to Mrs. Omeag. 11-20-tf.

A new assortment of ladies' jackets just arrived by express from New York, at H. Herbring's. 11-20-tf.

Circuit Court Proceedings.

The case of the state vs. Robert Alexander for larceny of a watch from the person of Charles Bunnel was argued and submitted to the jury this forenoon. The jury after being out about an hour and a half brought in a verdict of guilty. Alexander will receive sentence Monday morning. The law fixes the punishment at from one to seven years.

The case of Frizzell vs. the O. R. & N. Co., involving a question of right of way over some lands in the neighborhood of Cates' mill, below Wyeth, came on this afternoon and is occupying the court as we go to press.

The case of the state vs. William Moreton for assault with a deadly weapon was submitted to the jury, at about 6 o'clock last evening. The jury not having agreed at 3:50 this afternoon it was discharged.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

There is None Better.

Dr. E. L. St. John of Howland, Putnam county, Missouri, takes especial pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, because he knows it to be reliable. He has used it in his practice for several years, and says there is none better. It is especially valuable for colds and as a preventative and cure for croup. This most excellent medicine is for sale by Snipes & Kinersley, The Dalles, Or. d-w

Notice.

The D. P. & A. N. company have increased their force at Portland and are now prepared to handle important shipments as express or fast freight. The rate on shipments so ordered will be ten cents per hundred higher than the present freight rate. We trust the public will understand and appreciate our endeavors to give them prompt and efficient service. H. R. Sibley, Superintendent. 11-16-21.

A Favorite Remedy.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a favorite during the winter months on account of its great success in the cure of colds. There is nothing that will loosen a severe cold so quickly, or as promptly relieve the lungs. Then it counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. It is pleasant and safe to take, and fully worthy of its popularity. For sale by Snipes & Kinersley, The Dalles, Or. d-w

Notice.

To all business men and citizens. The D. P. & A. N. company will not be responsible for any debts contracted by its employees or others, unless the same are properly covered by a written requisition from this office. H. R. Sibley, Superintendent. 11-16-21.

An Old Adage.

There is an old adage: "What every body says must be true." Henry Cook, of New Knoxville, Ohio, in a recent letter says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has taken well here. Everybody likes it on account of the immediate relief it gives." There is nothing like it to loosen and relieve a severe cold. For sale by Snipes & Kinersley, druggists. d-w

Are Your Children Subject to Croup?

As a preventive and cure for croup, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has no rival. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant and safe to take. There is not the least danger in giving it to children, as it contains no injurious substance. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by Snipes & Kinersley, druggists. d-w
