New York, Nov. 28.—That the firm of Field, Weicher Lendley & Co., which failed yesterday had re-hypothecated securities held by them on a loan of $600,000, and amounting to $1,000,000, developed into a certainty this morning at the stock exchange, $80,000 of Union Pacific Denver & Gulf consolidated first mortgage five's sold out under rule on account of the firm. Upon hearing this fact Judge Dillon sent for assistant Secretary Burnham of the stock exchange and had a conference with him. As a result of the conference it was decided that the securities would not be good on delivery and notice to take effect was sent to various bankers. Sidney Dillon said: "The re-hypothecation of these securities is what I term criminal borrowing, I don't think there can be any milder view taken of the action at the office of Field, Weichers, Lindley & Co." Assignee Charles W. Gould was seen. In reply to a question he said: "I truly don't know yet in what condition things stand. The condition of Edward M. Fields, senior member of the firm, is serious, arrangements are being made to send him to a private insane asylum."

THE MOTHER AND SON IN JAIL.

Rhode Island Man Sold His Wife and Now Wants Her Property—Stabbed by a Drunken Man.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 27.—The criminal annals rarely have such a chapter as that added in the case of Reed, a 16-year-old boy arrested here Wednesday night. His father is a well-known broker living in an aristocratic district on Walnut hill. When Reed was 13, he became a cigarette and yellow-covered novel fiend. He soon developed into a first-class tough. One morning, two years ago, the city was startled by the story of a sensational robbery by the use of chloroform of Reed's father. Detectives ran the clues down, and found that young Reed had done it. The father declined to prosecute, and sent the boy to an uncle in Indianapolis. In a few weeks Reed robbed his uncle of $600 and fled, but was apprehended and sent to a reform school. There he stole tobacco and bribed a boy to bring him chloroform, which he used on the clerk to rob the office safe. He didn't get into the safe, but got enough money to escape, and then went south, where, he boldly declares, he did many jobs. Wednesday he was arrested as a fugitive from justice. He glories in all his actions, and will never be anything but a thief.

Shot By a Boy.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Nov. 27.—Frances J. Vincent, widow, and her son Albert L. Vincent, of No. 43 West Clinton street, are in jail, waiting the result of injuries to Charles Jones, caused by four bullet wounds. Jones is the manager of the Postal telegraph office in this city and is unmarried. He called at Mrs. Vincent's and asked if Miss McFarland lived there. It is a double house and that young lady had just moved next door. Mrs. Vincent, who answered the call, said shortly: "I know you; give it to him Bert." Jones, who has an impediment in his speech, tried to explain, but before he could do so the boy, who is only 15 years old, drew a revolver and began firing. One ball entered Jones' abdomen, and another lodged in his leg. The wounded man was found in a critical condition by passers-by, and the police were informed. The Vincents were taken into custody, and Jones was removed to the hospital.

He Sold His Wife.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 27.—The recent death of Mrs. Feitre Vicciene and the settlement of her estate have revealed a queer state of affairs. Two men petitioned for appointment as administrators. Afterward, it is claimed, Baten said another Italian 15 to personate Vicciene, and a divorce was granted to Mrs. Vicciene. The courts thought Baten had the best claim to the woman's estate, and he received the appointment.
