LOCAL BREVITIES.

Horace Rice of Lower Fifteen Mile came into town this morning. Fred Krusow of Grass Valley gave the CHRONICLE a pleasant call today. It is not a good time to read the Bible while your wife is out in the rain cutting stove wood. Crook county has let the contract for wooden booths for the next election, as required by the Australian ballot law. The sum of $400 has been raised towards constructing a telephone line between Wasco and Moro in Sherman county. It would not be a bad idea to hire a small boy to clean the lamps of the arc lights. It would certainly improve their light-giving qualities. Professor Ingalls has received about $30, in the form of subscriptions to a und to be used in the purchase of books of reference for the Wasco Academy. Captain John Lewis, register of the land office at this place, has obtained a month's leave of absence and will start for Minneapolis and Washington tomorrow. At the Cascade Locks one day last week a government derrick fell on an old man named Harry Crocker and resulted in a compound fracture of the fore arm. Dr. Caudiani had him sent to St. Vincent's hospital. V. C. Brock, county clerk of Sherman county, is in the city. Mr. Brock says the present year has put the farmers of Sherman county in fine condition. One man is spoken of who cleared off, by this year's crop, a debt of $7000 and has a balance now to his credit in the bank. A very large acreage has been sown to wheat this fall and Sherman county will soon have abandoned spring sowing altogether except for such crops as oats and barley. The Farmers Institute of Dufur—Continued. The closing session of the institute opened promptly at 7 o'clock p. m. with an attendance of about 300 persons. After a song from the choir Miss Annie Dufur read an essay on "The Beautiful" which was full of sublime thoughts expressed in chaste and elegant diction. This was followed by a comic essay on "Poultry Raising" by E. C. Warren which fairly convulsed the house with laughter; then a song by the choir followed by a recitation by Miss I. Thomas, and then the meeting was entertained by an address from State Lecturer Holder on the question, "Should Farmers Organize." Mr. Holder took strong ground in favor of farmers' organizations, insisting that every farming community should have its own organization. Every benefit that labor has wrung from capital has been obtained by organization. At the close of this really excellent and sensible address Chairman Dufur took the floor and among other earnest words said "Farmers are today as much slaves to the combined influence of capital as were the negroes to their southern slave owners before the war. To rid themselves of these chains farmers ought to and must join some farmers' organization. Then facing Mr. Holder who temporarily occupying the chair he asked the question, "Now Brother Holder what are you going to do about it? But before that gentleman had time to answer, Frank Lee of the Northwest Pacific Farmer sprang to his feet and exclaimed "Support the Regulator," which was answered by hearty applause from the audience. After another song from the choir the question box was opened and the following questions were read and discussed with interest and animation. Does cultivation tend to increase the growth of corn and tomatoes in Eastern Oregon. What is the best remedy for blight on tomatoes, a question which no one was able to answer? Is the grange worth what it cost? What is fiat money? "Should a man be allowed to sit on a jury who cannot read or write? Should farmers be compelled to fence against stock running at large? Is rain-making a success, and if so should not the farmers of Wasco and Sherman counties try to induce the rain-maker to come here? Why do not the farmers hold together like other working men? What is the best method for killing wild oats? How hot should water be for spraying trees? What is the best way to grow celery? How do you keep lice from fowls? What is the best way to pick a chicken? How can the step of a horse that interferes be changed? Can you balance an egg on a thread? which was answered by Mr. Heisler who performed the feat of balancing an egg on a spool of thread; to the no small amusement of the audience. The closing address was made by Professor Berchtold who complimented the institute by saying that it was the best attended of any he had known during the year. Then in a few well-chosen words the professor thanked the chair and the pupils of the Dufur school for their valued assistance in making the institute a success. He also thanked the authorities of the M. E. church for granting the use of the building; expressed on behalf of his fellow professors his deep obligation to the chairman and to the ladies of Dufur for receiving them into their homes and closed by extending a cordial invitation to any present who might find it convenient to visit the college at Corvallis and get better acquainted with the work being done there. The meeting then unanimously passed formal votes of thanks to the professors, the chairman, the choir, the school pupils, Dufur brass band, the M. E. church and the representatives of the press. The audience then rose to its feet and all joined in singing the beautiful song "God Be With You" and thus ended what all the participants unanimously voted a pleasant and profitable farmers' institute.

Struck By A Passing Tender. Ralph Fonger a wiper in the employ of the Union Pacific at this place was struck this morning by the tender of a passing locomotive and received injuries from which he died a short time after. Fonger was standing on the bridge east of the company's round house playing a horse on the spout that carries off the ashes and cinders of the locomotives, when he was struck. He was carried to the Columbia hotel where he lived long enough to tell that he had received no warning whatever by bell or whistle and that the noise made by the hose playing on the sheet iron spout prevented him hearing the approach of the locomotive from behind. Fonger was about 26 years of age and unmarried. His parents reside in St. Catherine's Canada, from which he came to this country about a year ago. He had been in the employ of P. T. Sharp of Three Mile all harvest and only left there a few weeks ago. Fonger's hip was knocked out of joint by the collision and it is believed that he must have been injured internally, as it is said blood came out of his ears after his death. Ether was administered while the joint was being put in place but the man never recovered wholly from its effects, although the doctors assure us it was administered with great care. An inquest will undoubtedly be held but the company had not notified the coroner at the time of going to press.

A Happy Discovery.

One of the sufferers by the late fire, found a trunk she had supposed lost or burned, safely stored in the baggage room at the Umatilla house this morning, waiting a claimant. The trunk was placed there by some one for safekeeping the day of the fire, and upon being opened by the happy owner was found packed with clothing and $350 in coin, just as she had left it.

DIED.

On Dutch flat, near the Dalles Lumbering Co.'s mill, November 28, 1891, of pneumonia, Minnie Clark, aged 3 years and 4 months. On Three Mile creek, November 29, 1891, of consumption, Thomas Thompson, aged 63 years. H. L. Campbell, proprietor of the Summit House, on the Barlow road across the Cascades, is building a carriage road from his house to Mt. Hood. He talks of laying out a park in the mountains between the Summit House and Mt. Hood, and building a number of cottages there. Mr. Campbell says he has responsible parties backing him, and that next year the carriage road, at least, will be completed.—Glacier.

FONSECA'S TROUBLES.

His Opponents Demand the Impeachment of Himself and Ministers.

VALPARAISO, Chili, Nov. 27.—Advices from Rio Janeiro, Brazil, state that Fonseca, besides abdicating the dictatorship, has renounced his title of commander-in-chief and retired to private life. The papers are, however, demanding the impeachment of Fonseca, and also of his ministers, on the ground that they are responsible for the money spent during his short-lived dictatorship. The governors of all the states have proclaimed in favor of the new president, Felixto. It is rumored that the federal capital will be removed from Rio Janeiro to Nietheroy. General Ossorio, who commanded the insurgent army in Rio Grande do Sul, made a demand on the Upper Uruguay squadron that it give its adhesion. This demand met with refusal and the squadron has gone to anchor in Argentine waters.

Anti-Harrison Movement.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 28.—A meeting attended by over fifty prominent republicans of the state is being held at the Grand hotel today for the purpose of organizing the anti-Harrison sentiment in the state and crystallizing it into a solid phalanx in support of Blaine at the Minneapolis convention. The meeting declared for Blaine as the most available candidate. Harry Tinch, one of the promoters of the meeting, said tonight that they had the certain assurance from Mr. Blaine that he would do nothing to embarrass the movement. He says they have control of the four northern districts of the state, and are organizing every district as rapidly as possible.

About the World's Fair.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Ex-Senator Palmer, president of the national commission of the World's Columbian Exposition, has submitted to President Harrison the report of the commission in regard to the progress and condition of the exposition work. It concludes with a strong endorsement of the action of the board of control in applying for a loan of $5,000,000 from the general government. This report and the report of the board of lady managers, previously submitted to the president, will form the basis of a special message to congress sometime in December.

Spanish Minister Ordered Home.

VALPARAISO, Nov. 28.—Senor Ordonza, the Spanish minister to Chili, has been ordered home. The Venezuelan government paid at Caracas, a short time ago, a sum of money to Spain. It is now reported that Senor Ordonza's accounts are short. It transpires however, that the errors in the accounts were made by the secretary of the Spanish legation. Minister Ordonza, while responsible for the act of his subordinates, is in no way culpable in the matter, his long diplomatic and naval services placing him beyond the breath of suspicion.

After the Mexican Bandit.

LAREDO, Tex., Nov. 28.—Captain Hardie's troop of the Third cavalry have returned from a two weeks' scout down the Rio Grande in quest of the Mexican revolutionist Garcia. He reports it impossible to secure any definite information of Garcia's whereabouts. Mexican troops are pouring in over the Mexican National railroad from the interior of Mexico, and are being hurried down the river to take the places of the frontier soldiers, whom the Mexican government evidently find to distrust.

Guatemala is Fortifying.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28.—Guatemala is going to fortify its frontier. Forts are to be built between that state and San Salvador, and the powder for the guns is going from San Francisco. Next Monday the schooner Neptune will go into the stream and load powder for the San Jose de Guatemala. It will be consigned to the Guatemalan government.

Will Probably Cause a Strike.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—It is highly probable that the action taken today by the coal mineowners, in South Wales and Monmouthshire, in abolishing the sliding scale, will tend to precipitate a strike by the miners in those sections. The announcement affects 70,000 men in the coal districts mentioned.

Ben Young, of Astoria, who has lately been taking in the Sound country, says that at Seattle "dead" is no name for the condition of the town. Business there is none, and money—why the showing of a $20 piece is enough to create a riot. Real estate is dearer than what do you call it? The banks own the town. The only way to borrow $20 is to give $21 cash security. The hotels are invaded by anxious individuals every now and then, trying to size a fellow up. It isn't safe to go out alone in daylight or dark. The "hold-up" is on the alert day and night, and the only way to travel is to take a hack or Guernsey and go about in disguise.

Thursday a large white swan was brought to Pendleton by John Jordan, who tells a singular story of its capture. The young man was near his father's place on east Birch creek, and saw some eagles chasing the swan in the air above him. The unfortunate swan, in its anxiety to escape, flew directly over the young man's head, and by a quick jump he managed to seize it by the neck and bring it down, the disappointed eagles flying angrily away. The East Oregonian thinks this story may be doubted by some, but John has the live swan to prove it.

Eastern Oregon is in it. The total yield of wheat in the Willamette valley is placed at 4,000,000 bushels. Umatilla county alone produced as much. Eastern Oregon and Washington combined produced over 10,000,000. Still those "webfeet" people have no idea of as much.—Athena Press.

The Scio flouring mills, valued at $20,000 were totally destroyed by fire last week.

"I beg to disagree with you," remarked the green apple to the small boy.

There is None Better.

Dr. R. L. St. John of Howland, Putnam county, Missouri, takes especial pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, because he knows it to be reliable. He has used it in his practice for several years, and says there is none better. It is especially valuable for colds and as a preventative and cure for croup. This most excellent medicine is for sale by Snipes & Kinersley, The Dalles, Or. d-w

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A Favorite Remedy.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a favorite during the winter months on account of its great success in the cure of colds. There is nothing that will loosen a severe cold so quickly, or as promptly relieve the lungs. Then it counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. It is pleasant and safe to take, and fully worthy of its popularity. For sale by Snipes & Kinersley, The Dalles, Or. d-w

An Old Adage.

There is an old adage: "What every body says must be true." Henry Cook, of New Knoxville, Ohio, in a recent letter says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has taken well here. Everybody likes it on account of the immediate relief it gives." There is nothing like it to loosen and relieve a severe cold. For sale by Snipes & Kinersley, druggists. dw
