LOCAL BREVITIES.

Hans Lage of Hood River is in the city.

Hon. F. P. Mays is in attendance at the circuit court.

Frank Malone, a prominent stockman of Clarno's Ferry, in this county, is in the city.

Dr. Richardson, formerly of this city, now of Salem is in town attending to some land office matters.

The office of the Electric Light Company was moved today and will now be found in the Masonic building on Third street.

Snipes and Kinersley will hold their thirteenth annual opening of holiday goods tomorrow evening, commencing at seven o'clock.

Haward Riddell left this morning for Portland where he will attend the Portland law school and also enter the law office of Dolph Bellinger & Simon.

Conductor Harry Fowler returned this morning from a four-week's trip to his old home in Illinois. Harry says he would rather be a convict in the Oregon penitentiary than governor of Illinois.

The fact that Snipes & Kinersley and W. E. Garretson have fixed the time of their grand openings of holiday goods for the same night will make it convenient for ladies who may desire to attend both openings.

A dispatch informs us that Grover B. Simpson, who married Miss Alma, youngest daughter of Mr. Joseph Beezley of this city, has been promoted by Wells, Fargo & Co. to the charge of the Nebraska division, of their express business.

The fire department has obtained permission from Max Vogt to use the hallway of the opera house building for storing its hose cart, hose and other material during the coming winter and Street Commissioner Jack Staniels has a force of men today doing the necessary fitting up.

W. E. Garretson will have a grand opening of holiday goods tomorrow night commencing at seven o'clock. Each lady entering the store will be presented with a duplicate ticket entitling her to a free drawing for a handsome and valuable silver Bon-Bon basket. The corresponding number will be placed in a basket and at a convenient time of the evening one of the ladies present will be blindfolded and will draw one number from the basket. Only one number will be drawn and the lady holding the corresponding number will be entitled to the prize.

Over three months have passed since the big fire and the sidewalks have not yet been laid on Washington street and persons who have business down town after dark must wade through mud and slush or stumble over rocks and roots to get back and forth. Ladies who have shopping or marketing to do cannot use this street at it now is, at any time night or day, without wading through mud three to six inches deep. How long is this to continue? Will the property owners have a little mercy on those who are compelled to use this street or else go round a large number of blocks to get to their place of business or do their shopping?

George Peterson of Biggs is in the city in attendance at the United States land office.

George P. Sink of Wasco and H. C. Hope of the Cascade Locks are registered at the Umatilla house.

The funeral of Mrs. Joanna Root of Pleasant Ridge will be at the city cemetery at 12 M: tomorrow, and the sermon will be preached at the brick school-house at 1:30 P. M. of the same day. Rev. A. C. Spencer officiating. All of our citizens who desire to view the remains will go to the cemetery at 12 M.

Major Ingalls came up from Portland on the noon passenger today. He attended the joint meeting held in Portland yesterday by the members of the citizens' committee and he feels confident that Portland will raise a good round sum for the World's Fair exhibit, and thus give a leverage for himself and his fellow solicitor, W. H. H. Grant, to work on the outside. It was the opinion of Major Ingalls all the time, as it was of many others, that if any considerable amount is raised Portland must first show her hand. The major thinks that before a week passes Portland will have raised $50,000, and when that is done he believes there will be little difficulty in getting outside counties to contribute their quota. Meanwhile the solicitors will await the action of Portland.

An old gentleman named Olsen who keeps the postoffice at Lyle and is well known in this city complains bitterly of the treatment he received on the evening of the 2nd, at the hands of a Union Pacific conductor. Mr. Olsen had been in the city and got on the train that leaves here at 6:40 on his way home. He was going as far as Rowena where his boat had been left in the morning to take him back across the river. The fare from The Dalles to Rowena is 35 cents and Mr. Olsen had paid it so often that he needed no information on the subject. He was surprised however to find the conductor demand 45 cents. Olsen refused to pay the extra ten cents unless the conductor would give him a receipt showing what the extra ten cents was for. This the conductor refused to do and as the old gentleman was persistent the conductor stopped the train and put him off. Olsen had to walk back to town in the dark, a distance of about two miles, where he remained overnight and went home on the Regular next morning. It is very natural to infer that Olsen does not feel in the kindest mood towards the Union Pacific.

Wamie Items.

WAMIE, Nov. 28, 1891.

There are no accidents to chronicle, the sick are convalescing, and the weather is all that could be desired.

The Rev. Mr. Lee Holgate and Mr. Mitchell held religious services in the Union church at Wamie Sunday, November 2nd, from whence they went to Wapinitia to hold services during the week.

Frank Dean of Tacoma has just arrived at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. Ledford, of Smoek Prairie, where he intends spending the winter.

Dr. Davenport contemplates going to California to spend the winter, and we shall be very sorry to lose so good a citizen and hope the winter will be a short one, that he may be permitted to return soon.

At the auction sale of the farms of P. T. Knowlton of Wamie and C. W. Magill of Wapinitia, which took place last week, cattle sold reasonably well but horses went for unusually low prices. Of course it was no estimate of stock, it being at this season of the year.

The Pine Grove and Pine Hollow schools of Wamie have closed for the term ending November 27th, 1891. Mr. O. B. Connelly, who has been teaching the Pine Grove school, has returned to his home at The Dalles with his brother, who has been canvassing the county in the interest of the state implement company.

Mr. Frank Swift and wife started to Portland Wednesday last on a visit, stopping at Dufur over Thanksgiving to trip the light fantastic and enjoy the leg of a turkey with their old friends and associates. Frank, of course, as one of the people, is too patriotic to patronize the U. P. company, so they will go by way of the "Regulator."

Grandpa Carter is building a neat little cottage on his homestead, just south of the Pine Hollow school house. Mr. Carter is nearly seventy-six years of age, but from the energy he puts forth it is evident that he has no intention of giving way to the weight of years for some time yet.

Our friend of Mosier writes us, referring to our green fields of waving wheat, that they have no such things in his country, and that he is a stranger, too; but he says they have a surplus of the shining rads instead. This is nice indeed, and we are pleased to be thus informed and if Providence favors us, with our green fields of wheat and the price of wheat should remain where it is now, "we" may another year be lucky enough to jingle a few of the thousands ourselves.

A Favorite Remedy.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a favorite during the winter months on account of its great success in the cure of colds. There is nothing that will loosen a severe cold so quickly, or as promptly relieve the lungs. Then it counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. It is pleasant and safe to take, and fully worthy of its popularity. For sale by Snipes & Kinersley, The Dalles, Or. d-w

There is None Better.

Dr. R. L. St. John of Howland, Putnam county, Missouri, takes especial pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, because he knows it to be reliable. He has used it in his practice for several years, and says there is none better. It is especially valuable for colds and as a preventative and cure for croup. This most excellent medicine is for sale by Snipes & Kinersley, The Dalles, Or. d-w

Are Your Children Subject to Croup?

As a preventive and cure for croup, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has no rival. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant and safe to take. There is not the least danger in giving it to children, as it contains no injurious substance. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by Snipes & Kinersley, druggists. d-w.

An Old Adage.

There is an old adage: "What every body says must be true." Henry Cook, of New Knoxville, Ohio, in a recent letter says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has taken well here. Everybody likes it on account of the immediate relief it gives." There is nothing like it to loosen and relieve a severe cold. For sale by Snipes & Kinersley, druggists. dw
