The Chronicle is the Only Paper in The Dalles that Receives the Associated Press Dispatches.

Hon. W. Lair Hill is in Washington and reports from there indicate that he has the lead for the federal judgeship. Senator Allen appears to have dropped out of the fight and it is not considered likely that President Harrison would be guilty of the blunder, for blunder it would be, of appointing Joseph Simon. Simon is smart beyond question but his smartness lies in the direction of tricky and unscrupulous political bossism and that is poor material to make a judge out of. The appointment of Simon would be met with a howl of righteous indignation while that of Hill would meet with general approval by everyone who acquainted with his eminent fitness for the position.

It is a safe prediction that the west won't get much from the present congress in the way of appropriations. The alleged extravagance of the "billion-dollar congress" will have the tendency to drive legislation to the opposite extreme of penuriousness and to put off the necessities of the newer states with potato peelings and cheese parings. Besides, these newer states, whose necessities are greatest, are of little consequence in the matter of president making, which will be the grand object of every important movement on the congressional checker-board.

D. P. Thompson of Portland who attended a large gathering of bankers that met at New Orleans a short time ago is reported to have said on his return that although no vote was taken on the silver question, the majority of the bankers present were in favor of free coinage of silver. This ought to prove that the "plutocrats" are not all anti-silver men as is frequently alleged. In good sooth the "plutocrats" are the very men who would gain by free coinage and the bankers and brokers and mine owners know it.

Last week silver quotations show the silver dollar, that so many desire to see coined without limit, to be worth 73 cents. Free coinage under such condition would be the prettiest arrangement in the world for the brokers and silver barons.

The newspaper reports that have followed the attempted assassination of Russell Sage are calculated to impress their readers with the striking affinity that exists between Bellamyism and lunacy.

Seattle, Washington, sends word that it has experienced two shocks of earthquake. It may be unkind, but we can not forbear the prediction that Tacoma will soon come to the front with three shocks.—Chicago News.

The East Oregonian reports that a mine of cinabar, the substance which contains quicksilver, has been discovered in a locality not yet made public, by H. Tibbetts, a Butte creek resident. The ledge is said to be six feet wide and can be traced for over a mile.

The Philadelphia Times takes the sensible view of this "gold cure" business, when it says: "These cures of cases of drunkenness treated by the bichloride of gold system suggests several things, and among others that less treating in general would in itself cure a good deal of this business."

It is not the man who curses a town and leaves it, who is most detrimental to its interests; but it is the man who ruthlessly persists in stabbing the town while he persistently refuses to confer a favor upon his fellow citizens by packing his traps and going forth in quest of greener fields and pastures new.

Preparations are being made already throughout Marion county for the general election which will be according to the Australian ballot system. Fourteen thousand pounds of steel are on the way to Salem, to be used in constructing booths for voters, which will be used in that county at the next election. At the January term the county court will name the judges and clerks of election, and make changes in the election precincts, as under this law there must not be over 250 electors in a single precinct. Four booths are allowed each precinct.

The railroad commissioners of Kansas, after careful investigation, state that the net returns from the railroads in that state in 1890 amounted to only 4 1/2 per cent. on the actual cost. As that is only about one-half the rate or interest the farmers pay for money, it is evident that the over-capitalization of railroads does not have much if any effect on charges for transportation. This is evident again from the fact that the average freight rate per mile in this country is less than one-half of that in England and just about three-eighths that on the continent, while first-class railroad travel is about one-half the English passenger tariff, notwithstanding the very much greater cost of operating a railroad in this country.

In the circuit court at Canyon City last week D. I. Asbury, editor of the News, got judgment against M. S. Hellman for $20,000 damages for alienating the affections of his (Asbury's) wife and breaking up his family. Asbury was also granted a divorce from his wife. If Asbury's wife was untrue to him, he has made a pretty good bargain in trading her off for a $20,000 judgment against Hellman, for he is reputed to be worth lots of "tfn."—Ochoco Review.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Delore and family, of Little Camp creek, were in town last Saturday. Mr. Delore's family is the largest in the county, if not the largest in the state he having seventeen sons and three daughters, and when they all come to town it makes quite a fair sized procession. Mr. Delore is 85 years of age and his wife is 73, both are hale and hearty, and appear to have a lease on life for many years to come.—Ochoco Review.

His Beautiful Typewriter.
Detroit Free Press.
It was at a small gathering the other evening when the talk turned on typewriters. "You ought to see mine," said a gentleman who operates one himself, to a lady with whom he was conversing. "She's a perfect beauty, always on hand, fresh and clean, and never loses a minute's time. She's a daisy." Does your wife know about her?" asked the lady. "Oh, yes," was the answer; "but she doesn't mind." And where does your typewriter stay when she isn't at work? "Oh, right in the office, in a neat little black-walnut case." "I wish I had my husband's typewriter in a black-walnut case," was the response.
