SENIOR MONTT'S REPLY.

The Chilean Government Has not Evaded the Question.

WORK OF THE FLAMES.

Four People Loose Their Lives in a Burning Hotel.

THE GRAND JURY ILLEGAL.

The Baltimore on her way Home—A Whole Circus Drowned—Blame the Western Roads.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—The Herald's correspondent at Valparaiso, Chili, cables the following: "President Jorge Montt has sent to the Chilean ministers in the United States and Europe, a reply to President Harrison's message to the congress of the United States in relation to the assault on the sailors who landed from the cruiser Baltimore. He declares that the Chilean authorities have never attempted to evade in the slightest particular any responsibility for which the country may be justly held, but insists that the proper and ordinary forms of Chilean procedure must be observed.

Work of the Flames.

WINNEPEG, Dec. 12.—The Larne hotel and the Ontario house at Moose Jaw burned early this morning. The proprietor, Larne, Henry Jackman and his little girl, and a young woman named Ruth McDougal were burned to death. A railroad man named McMickan and Mrs. Jackman were fatally injured while attempting to escape. The other guests had a narrow escape. The fire was not extinguished until twenty buildings, including a church, were burned.

The Grand Jury Illegal.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—The state supreme court by five justices against two, decided today that the present grand jury of the city and county of San Francisco is illegal today. The question came before the supreme court, on the application of ex-Assemblyman Elwood Bruner, for a writ of prohibition to restrain Superior Judge Wallace from proceeding against him under an indictment found by the grand jury, charging Bruner with malfeasance in office.

The Baltimore Coming Home.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The secretary of the navy received a cablegram from Captain Schley commanding the United States' steamer Baltimore, saying she had sailed yesterday for San Francisco, for the purpose of being docked and scraped. The Yorktown is now the only American war ship at Valparaiso, but she will be joined there in about ten days by the cruiser "Boston, which sailed from Montevideo a few days ago.

A Circus Reported Lost.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—It is feared that the members of Lewand's circus have been drowned somewhere off the north coast of South America. There are about twenty-five people attached to the circus, including Lewand, a well-known equestrian, and one of the Misses Stickney, also a rider. The circus is a small, one-ring affair, that traveled from place to place in a schooner which it is thought has been wrecked.

The Western Roads to Blame.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Dispatches from the west within the last two weeks declared that the heavy crops have caused a wheat blockade, and much trouble is attributed to eastern railroads. But according to railroad men here, there is no blockade; they lay the blame for such trouble as there is to the Chicago and western roads, and say they can attend to all the grain that comes to this city.

Editor Ames Dead.

BOSTON, Dec. 12.—Miss Julia A. Ames, editor of the Union Signal, of Chicago, official organ of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, died this morning at the homeopathic hospital in this city, after a short illness.

The U. P. in Hard Luck as Usual.

BOSTON, Dec. 12.—The October statement of the Union Pacific railway for the whole system shows a net earnings of $2,004,000 an increase of $505,000.

Will Be a Case of Push if He Does.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—It is not likely that the president will make any new appointments before the end of the week. There are many important new appointments to be made, the chief of which is the vacancy in the war department, caused by the resignation of Senator Proctor. S. Belkins, of West Virginia, is mentioned as the most likely to receive the appointment, but Assistant Secretary Grant is thought to stand a very good chance of getting it.

Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—When the house met today Speaker Crisp announced the appointment of the following committees:

On accounts—Messrs Rusk of Maryland, Cooper of Indiana, Moore of South Carolina, Searly of Iowa, Pearson of Ohio, Quackenbush of New York, Griswold of Pennsylvania and Cutting of California. On mileage—Messrs Castle of Minnesota, Crawford of North Carolina, Kendall of Kentucky, Caldwell of Ohio and Flick of Iowa. An adjournment was then taken until Wednesday.

Weather Report.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—The weather bureau this morning states that an unofficial report from Nevada and in the mountains in extreme Eastern California indicate that the temperature last night fell as low as 26 degrees below zero at Halleck, Nevada, and 20 at Carlin, and 16 below at Elko, with 15 below at Boca, California. The temperature was at freezing point at Fresno and Yuma this morning.

Have Learned Nothing.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Inspector Byrnes, who has charge of the official work in endeavoring to find out who the bomb thrower was, said today that he had no knowledge that the head found in Sage's office had been identified.

Steamer Boiler Bursts.

GENOA, Dec. 12.—The boiler of the Italian steamer Calabria, which left here this morning for Naples, exploded, sinking the steamer. Thirty-six persons were on board, of whom twenty-one were drowned.

A Coal Mine Accident.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 12.—An explosion in the Holloman Valley Coal Co.'s mines today killed James Kittrick and fatally injured Hugh Jones.

Weather Forecast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—Forecast for Oregon and Washington: Scattering rains in Western and Northern Washington.

Wanted at Salem.

The Harry Miller who was yesterday arrested by the sheriff of Mendocino county, Cal., a son of Joaquin Miller, is none other than the young man who escaped from the penitentiary here August 14th 1890, while working as a trusty at the reform school. He had been sent up from Portland for two years for larceny, and had only served about six months when he escaped, and Superintendent Downing is very anxious for his return, in fact, there is a reward of $50 offered for his return, which is still good. The man will probably be turned over to serve out his term here before he is tried for the present offense.

Jackson Matched With Slavin.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—Peter Jackson received last evening articles of agreement for his glove contest with Slavin at the National Club, London, on June 15 next. The articles have Slavin's signature attached, and it was not long they had arrived here before Peter's autograph also figured upon them. They call for a glove contest for a purse of $10,000, Jackson being allowed $750 for traveling expenses. Jackson will start for the East within a couple of weeks, but will not sail from New York for Liverpool until February. He will train at Brighton, England, for the match.

Should be Compelled to Stay There.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Two thousand Italians left Hoboken yesterday on the steamer Werra, of the Bremen line, for Europe. The Werra will land them in Genoa. They think they can spend the winter more cheaply in Italy than in America, doing only occasional work. They intend to return in the spring. The dock was infested with confidence men, and it is said they got a good deal from the unsuspecting Italians.

Victims of the Louisville Fire.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 11.—The missing men supposed to be in the ruins of the candy factory, have returned to their homes, and the record closed with eight lost at the Mennes and four at the Boone Paper company fires. The search has closed. The total loss is now placed at $500,000.

Chicago Wheat Market.

CHICAGO, December 12.—Close, wheat, steady; cash .913; May, 97 3/4 @ 7/8.

Portland Wheat Market.

PORTLAND, Dec. 12.—Wheat, Valley 1.65; Walla Walla 1.69.

San Francisco Wheat Market.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—Wheat, buyer, Season, 1.83 1/2.

SUPPOSED TO BE DEAD.

The Peculiar Plight of a Pennsylvania Man.

GLADSTONE AND THE WORKMEN.

He Addressed the Delegates of the Liberal Federation.

LATE NEWS FROM GUATEMALA.

President Barrillas Not a Candidate for re-Election—Queer way of Love Making.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 11.—The case of a live man formally declared dead by a court, after hearing the testimony of three witnesses was developed here today. The man thus dead to law is George Hulce. He was named as executor in the will of Mary A. Tuttle. In offering the will for probate, counsel declared his knowledge that George Hulce was dead, and asked that an administrator be appointed. Two other witnesses testified to the death, one of them asserting that he attended the funeral. The judge thereupon decided that Hulce was dead. Now it appears that he is not dead, though the witnesses who testified to the contrary were honest in their opinion. But, as the court record cannot be changed without reopening the case, and as there is no disposition to do that, Mr. Hulce, so far as the records of the probate are concerned, will remain dead.

Gladstone and the Laboring Men.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—Four hundred rival delegates to the National Liberal Federation conference partook of a breakfast this morning, at which the principal guest was Gladstone. Gladstone addressed them. He said he thought the time had come for the commencement of continuous efforts to bring about rural reforms. Speaking on the subject of working men, Gladstone said the labor question had a wide range. Home rule was a part of the labor controversy. The condition of the rural laborers was the most urgent question. Proof of this statement lay in the constant migration of these laborers. Every endeavor ought to be made to keep laborers at home. He hoped to see labor candidates for seats in parliament increase in number.

Late News From Guatemala.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 11.—Advices from Guatemala state that President Barrillas declares that he is not a candidate for re-election. He also said that after his four years abroad he would retire to private life. Excitement in Guatemala is intense, but there is no danger of a revolution. Financial difficulties are becoming thicker. The last Spanish steamer which arrived at Vera Cruz had smallpox aboard. In the state of Campeche the situation is grave, as smallpox is epidemic there.

Queer Way of Lovemaking.

COLEBUS, O., Dec. 11.—George Hamilton, of Ross county, was convicted here today of impersonating a United States officer, and sent to prison for eighteen months. His crime was committed as a part of his wooing. He fell in love with Miss Ida Somers, of Chillicothe, whom he had never formally met. He arrested her for alleged counterfeiting, representing himself to be a Federal officer, and as he was driving to town in his buggy proposed marriage to her.

The Risks Are Too Heavy.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—Much alarm is felt in shipping and commercial circles because of the resignations of underwriters at Lloyd's. Three more gentlemen engaged in the marine insurance business have concluded to withdraw, as their losses are very heavy. This makes a total of seventeen underwriters who have withdrawn from the society of Lloyd's within a few weeks, and the effect upon ship-owners and shippers is not reassuring.

He Would Not Resign.

RIO JANEIRO, Dec. 11.—Disagreements have arisen between the government and Portella, governor of the state of Rio Janeiro. The government requested Governor Portella to resign his position. This the governor declined to do. It is now expected that the government will appoint a military governor of the state, and that martial law will be proclaimed.

Killed in a Train Wreck.

CAIRO, Ill., Dec. 11.—A collision occurred last night at Mountain Glenn near Murphysboro, Ill., on the Mobile & Ohio railroad, between a freight and construction train. Four or five persons are reported killed.
