LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

R. G. Sigman and Field Sexton of Dufur are in the city.

C. A. Heath, of Grass Valley, gave this office a pleasant call today.

Mr. O. Kinerly left this morning on a short business trip to Goldendale.

Miss Minnie Mitchell is expected home from her eastern visit today or tomorrow.

Frank Amen and his daughter, Miss Ollie Amen of Aurora, Marion county, are visiting friends around Kingsley and Dufur.

Con Howe arrested a couple of "tourists" last night and the marshal has made them do good service to the city today in cleaning the mud off the crosswalks.

The Sherman county bank, of Wasco, was incorporated yesterday, with a capital stock of $20,000; incorporators, M. A. Moody, W. M. Barnett and V. C. Brock.

Holiday presents suitable for young and old, can be found in endless variety at E. Jacobsen & Co.'s who are selling their entire stock at bed rock prices. See ad.

Twenty-one cases of diphtheria are reported in Portland for the present month, but most of the cases are of a mild type and are easily handled by the physicians.

The fire that was kindled in this city on September 3rd is not yet out. This is no figure of speech, as any one can see by visiting the coal heap of the old J. L. Thompson's blacksmith shop.

Seven cars of cattle, shipped from Weiser City, Idaho, by Capt. Irwin were unloaded at R. E. Saltmarsh's stock yards last night to feed and rest twenty-four hours and will then proceed to the market below.

The parties who exhibited the deformed child in this city a short time ago have been arrested in Pendleton under the law that makes it a misdemeanor to exhibit a deformed person, punishable by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $50 or imprisonment of not more than three months in the county jail, or both.

The names of the accused are Dan Franks and Fred and Ida Brakenbush. Franks was fined $50 and Brakenbush $25. They refused to pay and were sent to jail. The women was released.

The North Dalles Shoe Factory in Trouble.

The North Dalles shoe factory was the scene of considerable excitement yesterday afternoon when a party of men under command of C. W. Wright, representing Z. T. Wright of Portland, entered the factory and by virtue of a bill of sale carried off two loads of machinery to ship to Portland. No trouble was experienced in gaining entrance to the building, as the man in charge of the machinery under Hugh Glenn, who had a lien on property, had given orders for its surrender to Mr. Wright. After the last load had been removed Mr. Whealdon entered the building and was holding the fort when a party of men went over this afternoon to get the rest of the property. The men found the doors and windows barricaded and the party of men inside, one of whom was Mr. Whealdon refused the men admission. Justice Gilmore read the riot act of the state of Washington, commanding the men inside to disperse. These inside paid no attention to it, and Mr. W. H. Wilson, attorney for Mr. Wright ordered one of the windows removed. Hans Hanson started to pry off the window frame, while the men inside kept warning those outside to desist on pain of "getting hurt." Just then Justice Gilmore turned the tables on the besieging force by ordering them to disperse. Mr. Wilson ordered his men to leave while he proceeded to write out a complaint against those inside the building with a view to having them arrested for refusing to obey the command of an officer. About a dozen persons in all, were outside, probably half of whom were there through curiosity. The besieged numbered probably four men. The attacking party were unarmed, save that they, being carpenters in the employ of Mr. Glenn had chisels and saws and other tools that might assist them in forcing an entrance to the building. There were no loud words and no riot in the ordinary sense but Mr. Wright seems determined to have the machinery and the men went about the business of getting admission in a cool and determined manner. Mr. Wilson's complaint was being written out when our reporter had to leave.

Wedding Bells.

The Parlor of the European House was the center of not a little interest last evening. The friends of Mr. William W. Floyd, of Five Mile, and Miss Nellie Fulton gathered there about 8 o'clock to witness their marriage.

The ceremony being ended, the friends were right in the midst of their congratulations to the happy couple, when it was announced that another couple were to be thus made happy in an adjoining room and the whole party, led on by a young man present (who for the first time in his life had just witnessed a marriage ceremony) rose up with eager entreaty of mine host for the privilege of being witnesses to that also, which being granted, they adjourned to the scene of interest, but the room was too small for them all, and so they returned to the parlor where Justice Doherty tied the knot for Mark Enigait and Emma Nuckles.

MARRIED.

At the European House, in this city, December 14, 1891, by Judge Doherty, Mark Enigait to Miss Emma Nuckles.

In the parlor of the European House, in this city, December 14, 1891, by Rev. W. C. Curtis, William W. Floyd and Miss Nellie Fulton, both of this city.

BORN.

This morning, to the wife of T. A. Hudson, a nine-pound son.

Here is a Truth.

To the fashion of denouncing successful men as "monopolists," "public enemies," "oppressors of the poor," etc., may be easily traced the special forms of insanity illustrated by recent developments. Half-educated, idle and shiftless men reading and hearing these things while brooding over their own miserable failures, are impressed by them. They get filled with the insane idea that they are in some way the special victims of these "oppressors of the poor," and gradually work themselves up to the madness of undertaking by violent means to avenge their own and society's wrongs. When that point is reached a single assassination or wholesale slaughter impends.

On a rough estimate there has been shipped from Rufus this season something over 250,000 bushels of wheat. Assuming that the same amount has been shipped from Biggs and 100,000 bushels from Grant, we have the sum total of 600,000 of grain shipped from Sherman county this year, besides the large amount of grain that is being held over until next spring. The amount of grain shipped this season has required something near 900 cars to haul it off or putting it in another light, the amount of grain shipped from Sherman county by wagon load a train of cars about seven miles long. With favorable conditions our county will do even better next season.—Wasco News.

This is the best short yarn so far seen in the newspapers of December, 1891: It is said that the timber on the upper Klamath river is so dense that when the trees are sawed off they just stand on the stump, not having room to fall. A young Swede by the name of Yon Yonson sawed off seven acres of trees and is now waiting for the wind to blow them over.

The New York World continues its demand that the democratic party shall "drop all eastern candidates for the presidency and seek victory by nominating a western man." It asserts that "in no other way can the fight be won next year."

The Old and the New.
"Of course it hurts but you must grin and bear it," is the old time consolation given to persons troubled with rheumatism. "If you will take the trouble to dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and lay it on over the seat of pain your rheumatism will disappear," is the modern and much more satisfactory advice. 50 cent bottles for sale by Snipes & Kinerly, druggists.

A Preventive for Croup.
We want every mother to know that croup can be prevented. True croup never appears without a warning. The first symptom is hoarseness; then the child appears to have taken a cold or a cold may have accompanied the hoarseness from the start. After that a peculiar rough cough is developed, which is followed by the croup. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse; a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent the attack. Even after a rough cough has appeared the disease may be prevented by using this remedy as directed. It has never been known to fail. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by Snipes & Kinerly, druggists. daw
