THROWN FROM A TRAIN

A Brakeman Killed by a Murderous Tramp.

FELL INTO A RAGINC TORRENT.

The Decision That Half-Breeds Are Not Indians Creates Great Excitement.

A MAN AND WIFE MURDERED.

Called to Their Door and Shot for Revenge—More Luck Than Good Management.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Dec. 18.—Frank Kimmel is a brakeman on the Fort Wayne railroad. When making his run on the freight last night he found a tramp riding on the bumpers when the train was near Warsaw. The fellow muttered an oath when Kimmel roughly told him to get off the train. "Come and put me off," he growled in response. Kimmel needed no second invitation, and going up to him shoved him off the train. The train was going slowly at the time and the tramp was not hurt. He picked himself up and shook his fist at Kimmel. The latter went about his business and thought nothing about it. The tramp, it seems, boarded the train as soon as Kimmel's back was turned. He seemed to have murder in his heart, for when the train reached St. Mary's bridge, which is sixty feet above the river, he sneaked up behind the brakeman and shoved him off the train. Poor Kimmel with an awful cry, fell head-long into the river, receiving fatal injuries. The tramp has not been arrested, but the officials are on his track.

Half-Breeds Are Not Indians.

PIERRE, S. D., Dec. 18.—Great excitement was created yesterday at Pierre and other South Dakota towns by advices from Washington to the Pierre land office that the assistant attorney-general had decided that Jane Waldron, a half-breed Indian woman, was born a citizen of the United States, and that her claim that she is an Indian by virtue of being born of an Indian mother cannot be allowed, and she can no longer be permitted to draw rations and annuity or receive land in severalty. Hundreds of half-bloods, like Mrs. Waldron, have occupied all of the choicest and most valuable tracts of the lately-ceded Sioux lands, some of which, lying opposite Pierre, have already advanced many thousands of dollars in value. The South Dakota land offices were flooded with applications all day from whites to contest these claims of the half-breeds taken under the severalty act. At least $1,000,000 is involved.

Man and Wife Murdered.

SHEVEPORT, La., Dec. 18.—An old man named Jack Smith quarreled with Wright Poland over a dog at Buckhorn, Blenville parish. To get revenge, Smith and his three sons and four other men rode to Poland's house in the night time, summoned Poland and his wife to the door and shot them dead. Mrs. Poland was about to become a mother. The children of the Polands saw their parents murdered. Charlie Wassam, a boy who was spending the night with the Polands, recognized Smith and his sons among the murderers. The old man and one son have been arrested. The other son is at large. Frank Stewart, Charles Beauchamp and L. O. Smith have also been arrested. James Stewart charged with taking part in the murders, is at large.

More Luck Than Good Management.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—R. F. Roy, secretary of the Boston iron works, last Thursday took two boxes from the company's vaults—one containing diamonds worth $3000 and the other papers worth $10,000. He deposited the boxes in the waste-paper basket, intending to put them back in the vault in a few minutes, but forgot them and left his office. The janitor, a man named Dahl, dumped the papers in a room where the waste paper is kept, and the police, who were notified of the loss found them. Dahl has been arrested, but says that he did not know the boxes contained anything valuable.

Tampico is Now a Safe Port.
