WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

THE DALLES, Dec. 21, 1891. FAIR Weather forecast till 12 m. Tuesday; Generally fair followed with rain and snow in the mountains.

MONDAY, DEC. 21, 1891.

The Chronicle is the Only Paper in The Dalles that Receives the Associated Press Dispatches.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There is an epidemic of measles in the city.

The river is practically at low water mark. Work has closed down on the government works at the Cascades.

Phil Brogan sr., a prominent stock man of Antelope is in the city.

Follow the crowd and see E. Jabobsen & Co.'s bargains in holiday goods.

Allen Grant a prominent sheep owner of Antelope came into town yesterday.

E. B. Dufur went to Wasco this morning to attend some law cases that are to be tried there today.

Ben Longley of Eagle Valley, Baker county, has captured the prize of $100., offered by W. H. Mantle of Philadelphia for the finest potato raised in the United States.

A Bi-Chloride of Gold Club has been organized in Portland with a charter membership of about twenty. The requirements of membership is a full course of treatment and graduation for any disease treated by the Keely gold cure.

The Northwest Reform Journal says: "The state alliance should and probably will declare for government liquor at cost." The alliance and reform journal will have to do without their liquor for a long time if they have to wait until the government furnishes it to them at cost.

Hon. J. H. Rinehart, the banker and miller of Summerville and father of Dr. W. E. Rinehart of this city, paid The Dalles a visit Saturday night and remained over yesterday leaving for Portland this morning. Mr. Rinehart has never been able to get any trace of the parties who robbed his bank a short time ago.

One day last week the marshal of Fossil arrested a man for disorderly conduct and using profane language. In making the arrest the marshal got hot and used some cuss words himself. Each swore out a complaint against the other and both appeared before the recorder, pleaded guilty and were fined $10 and costs apiece.

Ad Keller announces a complete stock of everything in the line of Christmas and New Year's cakes, French and home made candies and wedding and party cakes made to order besides a handsome assortment of Christmas tree ornaments. Mr. Keller authorized the CHRONICLE to say that he will make a present of a handsome wedding cake to the first gentleman and lady of this city who get married between this and Christmas morning. Here's an inducement to pop the question not often met.

A few days ago the CHRONICLE mentioned the fact that the fire that was kindled in this city more than three months was still smoldering in a coal heap at the site of the old J. L. Thompson blacksmith shop. That reminds the scribe of a similar incident that followed the great fire in Chicago. Exactly twelve months after that event and after a long and severe winter had intervened a gentleman lit his pipe from a smoldering fire among the grain of a large elevator. The fire had burned for a whole year.

The CHRONICLE invites correspondence on all subjects interesting to the public. Send us the news and send it in any form you please, only send it. We shall gladly take the trouble of making it presentable.

Mr. Geo. W. Marquam has bought the John L. Bradley farm, one mile south of Dufur and is moving his family there this week. He is an old-timer in the vicinity, but moved to the Willamette valley two years ago. Then he concluded that Wasco county was quite good enough for him, and has come back "for keeps." Dufurites tell him "welcome" very heartily.—Dufur Dispatch.

The famous Mendelssohn Quintette Club of Boston, Mass., was organized in 1848, and since that time it has had in its employ the very best talent that the world affords. It now consists of Boegner, violin virtuoso; Max Alder, violinist; Ryan, solo clarinet; Henneberg, solo fluta; Diester, violocello and Miss Barnard, prima donna. Remember that for the usual admission fee you can hear them at the court house next Friday evening.

More Candidates for the Penitentiary.

There can scarcely be a doubt that Marshal Gibbons caught two more candidates for the penitentiary yesterday when he arrested Al Mesple and Billy Avery for robbing Joseph Chamberlain, a man of probably 60 years of age whose home is near the Klickitat Landing. Chamberlain, Mesple and Avery had been in Wolf Schroeder's saloon, Saturday evening last, up till the hour of closing, sometime about midnight. The three left together and walked east on First street till they came about opposite the late residence of Mrs. Laughlin. Here Mesple and Avery enticed the old man to the north side of the railroad track where they knocked him down and pounded his face and head till he is almost beyond recognition. The men have confessed the crime, at least Mesple admits he was present when the crime was committed. By Avery's instructions the marshal went today to a point back of the Chinese wash house, near the foot of Federal street where he found Chamberlain's empty purse. It had been torn open. Chamberlain says it contained two five-dollar greenbacks, four twenty dollar gold pieces, two fives, and seven dollars and a half in silver—$107.50 in all. Only two or three dollars were found on the prisoners.

Mesple and Avery were brought before Justice Doherty at three o'clock this afternoon. Avery pleaded guilty and Mesple is having his examination as we go to press.

A U. S. Building for The Dalles.

Through the courtesy of Colonel McArthur the CHRONICLE has received a printed copy of senate bill No. 601 which was introduced in the senate by Mr. Mitchell on the 10th inst. The bill calls for an appropriation of $100,000 for the erection of a public building for a post-office and United States land office at Dalles City, Oregon. After being read twice the bill was referred to the committee on public buildings and grounds.

W. H. Mowat, the postal telegraph manager, who has been out fixing up the Ashland-Linkville line, took a deer hunt Monday, from Soda Springs up toward Pilot Rock, and brought in some fine venison, says the Ashland Tidings. W. Gee, the champion venison man, brought in another big lot of meat from up on the Umpqua divide. He has brought in altogether this year the carcasses of more than a hundred deer, and has wasted none of the meat. If there were left on his hands at any time any venison that he could not sell at once he gave it to people in town who needed it and could easily keep it from spoiling.

Reward—Keys Lost.

A bunch of keys was left on the shelf at the money order window in the post-office Saturday noon. Will the party who took them (by mistake or otherwise) kindly leave them at the CHRONICLE office and be suitably rewarded.

Ad. Keller, the baker, offers for sale a complete line of ornaments for Christmas trees. Christmas and New Year's cakes and pure French and home-made candies. Cakes for weddings and parties made to order on short notice. Give him a call. 12-21-4t.

The Old and the New.

"Of course it hurts but you must grin and bear it," is the old time consolation given to persons troubled with rheumatism. "If you will take the trouble to dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bine it on over the seat of pain your rheumatism will disappear," is the modern and much more satisfactory advice. 50 cent bottles for sale by Snipes & Kinersly, druggists. daw

A Student of Human Nature.

Mrs. Slimpurse—Why in the world did you tell Mrs. De Fashion we had summered in Europe? Mr. Slimpurse—You don't suppose I'd confess to her that we'd been economizing in Frogtown, do you? Not much.

Mrs. Slimpurse—But, dear me, she'll tell others, and before long all sorts of people will be asking us about Europe, and we haven't either of us ever been east of Sandy Hook.

Mr. Slimpurse—Don't you fear. Tell people you've just got back from Europe and they'll change the subject quicker than a wink, for fear you'll start talking about it.—New York Weekly.

Col. I. N. Muncy, the man who, for the past few years, has been engaged in advising the public to keep its eyes on Pasco, has quit the newspaper business and engaged in mining.

A Preventive for Croup.

We want every mother to know that croup can be prevented. True croup never appears without a warning. The first symptom is hoarseness; then the child appears to have taken a cold or a cold may have accompanied the hoarseness from the start. After that a peculiar rough cough is developed, which is followed by the croup. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse; a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent the attack. Even after a rough cough has appeared the disease may be prevented by using this remedy as directed. It has never been known to fail. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by Snipes & Kinersly, druggists. daw

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

For the Children.

Our readers will notice the advertisements in these columns for Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines, Iowa. From personal experience we can say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has broken up bad colds for our children and we are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without it in the house for a good many times its cost and are recommending it every day.—Centerville, S. D., Chronicle and Index. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles, for sale by Snipes & Kinersly, druggists. daw
