SATURDAY, DEC. 26, 1891.

The Chronicle is the Only Paper in The Dalles that Receives the Associated Press Dispatches.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

General James A. Varney is in the city.

Members of Wasco Lodge No. 15, A. F. & A. M. will find something to their interest in another column.

Snow commenced falling yesterday afternoon and up till this morning four inches and a half had fallen.

The CHRONICLE is indebted to the courtesy of Col. W. E. McArthur of Washington, D. C., for valuable documents received.

Do not forget that the Mendelssohn's were in Portland last night and will be here at the court house tonight. Positively one night only.

There is one thing the CHRONICLE has done that no other paper ever did; it has forced the Sun to admit that the proprietors of the CHRONICLE are composed of the best citizens of The Dalles. A few more breaks like that will cook the editor's goose.

Mr. P. T. Sharp and Miss Gracie will leave Monday morning for California to spend the winter. Mr. Sharp goes for the benefit of his health which has been quite poor for some time. Miss Sharp will remain. They go to Mr. Sharp's brother at Stockton. Mr. Sharp hopes to return in February.

There will be services of the Congregational church tomorrow (Sunday) at 11 o'clock. Subject of the sermon, "The uses and lessons of winter." Sunday school at 12:15; Young Peoples Society of Christian Endeavor at 5:30. Union services at 7 p. m. with sermon by Rev. O. D. Taylor, pastor of the Baptist church.

Somebody has said that a newspaper that is not a fighter will never be much of a success. If the converse of this is true the Astoria Town Talk must be a very successful journal. Not long ago it had to answer to a libel suit but it got off unscathed. It had scarcely recovered its breath from the big fight over the city election in which it again came off with flying colors when it had the Astorian chief of police arrested for threatening to kill the publishers. As the threat was conditioned on the publication of an article which, however, the Talk did publish, the chief was discharged. The publishers were all alive at last accounts, but the editor says he has learned that it is useless to go to law with the devil and hold the court in hell.

On Christmas eve the store of E. Jacobsen & Co. was filled to the doors with a large number of the friends and customers of that popular firm, the occasion being the drawing for the elegant shaving set and beautiful dressing case for which the firm have been distributing tickets to their customers during the last week. At 9:30 Miss Prudence Patterson was lifted on a counter and drew out of the box containing the coupons number 316, which entitled the holder of that number to the shaving set. Mr. John Bruhman, was the lucky man, and being present the set was at once delivered to him. Then the coupons for the dressing case were placed in the box and Miss Patterson drew number 307, which entitles the holder of that ticket to the dressing case. If the lady holding that number will present the same at the store of E. Jacobsen & Co., she will receive the case. The drawing passed off pleasantly and the firm are highly pleased. Over a thousand tickets on each case had been distributed to the lady and gentleman callers at their store during the last week and this is only one evidence of the fact that this firm is in the lead. They had an immense holiday trade and deserved it as first-class goods and reasonable prices should have their reward. By actual count over three hundred persons were in the store at the time of the drawing.

An alarm of fire was sounded this forenoon which proved to be a burning fire in a house belonging to Hugh Glenn, corner of Liberty and Sixth streets. The fire was promptly extinguished by neighbors before much damage was done.

There will be Methodist services tomorrow as follows: Class meeting at 10 a. m., preaching to the children at 11, on the subject of "The Star in the East," and Sunday school at 12:30. These services are held in the brick school house. Epworth League at 5:30 p. m. in Y. M. C. A. Hall. Union services at the court house at 7 p. m.

A good joke is told at the expense of Henry Villard, who is a prominent free trader. While the McKinley bill was pending in congress, negotiations were opened with a German brewing syndicate for the purchase of 25,000 acres of Northern Pacific land and the terms were agreed to conditioned on the passage of the bill. The Northern Pacific is now advertising its lands and advocating the production of barley, urging as an inducement the advantages to be derived in the production of this cereal under the new law.

The A. O. U. W. Christmas Tree.
The Christmas tree of Temple Lodge No. 3 A. O. U. W., was held Christmas eve in the K. of P. hall and was a complete success. The hall was well filled. The tree was loaded down and two large tables piled up with Christmas presents. A special feature was a drawing of presents given by the lodge. The first prize was a large album and was won by Mrs. King. The second, a silver butter dish was won by Mrs. James Harper. The third was a silver pickle dish and was won by Mrs. W. N. Wiley. The fourth a set of china cups and saucers was won by Mrs. R. F. Gibbons. A prize drawing was offered to girls under twelve years, of a handsome doll. It was won by Miss Cassie Wiley. A like drawing for boys under twelve, resulted in Master Reese obtaining a large, boy's express wagon. Rev. W. C. Curtis opened the proceedings in a neat and appropriate speech and the company separated about nine o'clock after having spent a most enjoyable time. The Christmas tree was pronounced one of the finest ever seen in this city and it seemed as if every one left the hall with arms loaded with presents.

Christmas Party.
A pleasant Christmas party met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Phillips last night. The party was in honor of the presence of Miss Emma Shepard, the niece of Mr. Phillips, as well as the celebration of the Christmas festival. About twenty-four persons, young and old, sat down to dinner after which a very enjoyable time was spent in games, music and dancing. The important feature of the evening was a Christmas tree, which groined beneath the weight of handsome and costly presents. The party wound up a little before midnight with a new game, "The Pea-nut Hunt," in which there were two prizes. The first prize was a handsome glove case and was won by Miss Shepard and the booby, an elaborately formed string doll, was won by Miss Phirman.

DIED.
In this city, December 26, of edema of the lungs, Nellie Lewis, aged 35 years.

A Narrow Escape.
UNION, Or., Dec. 24.—An old lady named Taylor came near being burned to death last night at the home of her son-in-law, Vince Reeves, who resides in North Union. She was alone in the room, and in putting some wood in the stove, her dress caught fire and was blazing up around her when, fortunately, Mr. Reeves arrived on the scene and with the aid of blankets smothered the flames. The old lady's face and hands were badly but not fatally burned.

A Chess Match Arranged.
HAVANA, Dec. 24.—The details of the great chess match for $2000 a side between William Steinitz and M. Tschigorn has been arranged, and the game will begin on New Year's Day. Great interest is felt in the contest, and the Hayanese, who are given to betting, are preparing to wager largely on it.

The Boston at Valparaiso.
VALPARAISO, Chili, Dec. 24.—The United States steamer Boston arrived here today. It is stated that the supreme court will soon hand down a decision in the Baltimore case, and that the government then will settle with the United States.

Now and then you meet a man who has soured on the world and can't see any good in nothin' nor nobody. In such cases just size him up and you'll find a chap so mean that a yellow dog will not follow him.

Scientifically, an inch of rain means 100 tons to the acre. The pressure of another man's foot on a favorite corn means something like a million tons to the acre.

Colton, Whitman county, has a new opera house.

Card of Thanks.
E. Jacobsen & Co. desire to thank their friends and customers for the substantial patronage they have received, and wish to announce to all that they will endeavor to carry only first-class goods, a large stock and at reasonable prices.

Installation of Officers.

The installation of the officers elect of Wasco Lodge No. 15, A. F. & A. M., will take place at the Masonic hall in this city on Monday evening, December 28, at 8 o'clock. All masons and their families are cordially invited to be present. 12-26-2t. O. D. DOANE, Secretary.

For the Children.

Our readers will notice the advertisements in these columns for Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines, Iowa. From personal experience we can say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has broken up bad colds for our children and we are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without it in the house for a good many times its cost and are recommending it every day. Centerville, S. D., Chronicle and Index, 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles, for sale by Snipes & Kinersly, druggists. daw

The Old and the New.

"Of course it hurts but you must grin and bear it," is the old time consolation given to persons troubled with rheumatism. "If you will take the trouble to dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bine it on over the seat of pain your rheumatism will disappear," is the modern and much more satisfactory advice. 50 cent bottles for sale by Snipes & Kinersly, druggists. daw

A Preventive for Croup.

We want every mother to know that croup can be prevented. True croup never appears without a warning. The first symptom is hoarseness; then the child appears to have taken a cold or a cold may have accompanied the hoarseness from the start. After that a peculiar rough cough is developed, which is followed by the croup. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse; a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent the attack. Even after a rough cough has appeared the disease may be prevented by using this remedy as directed. It has never been known to fail. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by Snipes & Kinersly, druggists. daw
