WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

THE DALLES, Dec. 28, 1891.
RAIN.
 Weather forecast till 12 M. Wednesday: light rain, turning to snow; winds generally north and easterly; weather cold, with fair weather following.

The Chronicle is the Only Paper in The Dalles that Receives the Associated Press Dispatches.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Joe Trippier, a prominent stockman from Wapinitia, is in the city.

The rain fell up till the present time, reckoning from the first of July, exceeds the average for many years. The best of it is, it is all going into the ground.

A meeting of teachers of the common schools of this county will be held tomorrow in the office of the superintendent to discuss the question of grading the schools of the county.

Five copies of the new school laws of 1891 are due each school district in the county. The school superintendent would like those who have not received them to come and get them.

The CHRONICLE goes to press today without its usual supply of telegraphic matter. The wires west of here are all down. Repairs are at work all along the line but had not completed their task in time for today's report.

The wind blew quite a gale at about 3 o'clock this morning. We expect to hear that numerous fences have been laid low. The front wall of the brick building owned and occupied by E. P. Fitzgerald before the fire, was blown in and leveled with the ground. The velocity of the wind was 45 miles an hour.

A meeting of delegates from various farmers' alliances in Eastern Oregon will be held in Pendleton on the 6th of January for the purpose of discussing the advisability of purchasing the right to produce rain in five counties in Eastern Oregon, by the Melbourne process. One delegate will go from this neighborhood.

Some human hog broke into Hans Hansen's cellar last Saturday night and succeeded in turning everything in it upside down, without apparently getting what he wanted. If he was after liquor he searched in the wrong place. Hans never keeps his liquor in the cellar. The pork barrel too was empty as the nice fat hog that Hans bought Saturday morning lay uncut on the kitchen table. Hans says he has always a square meal for any decent hungry man but he has nothing but buckshot for such as visited him Saturday night.

The Oregon Alpine club is practically dead. It was organized in 1887 and at one time had a membership of 375 persons. The object of the club, as stated in the amended constitution, was the foundation and maintenance of a public museum and advancement and encouragement of amateur photography, alpine and aquatic exploration and the protection of our game, fish, birds and animals. Through its efforts a law was passed prohibiting the ruthless destruction of deer. Through the efforts of the club a government expedition was sent to explore the Olympic mountains in the summer of 1890. The club had acquired a valuable collection of curios, besides birds, animals and mineral specimens, which it is proposed to turn over to any society which will agree to carry on the work within the state and assume a small indebtedness of $800.

The board of trade of this city is about to issue a circular letter, copies of which will be sent to prominent persons in the states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, with the request that they procure a liberal number of signatures to them and have them forwarded to their respective representatives in Washington. The letters will urge upon the delegation from the three states that they do everything in their power to procure an appropriation for the construction of a portage railway between The Dalles and Celilo. The letter sets forth that the portage road at the Cascades, which has been built by the state at a cost of $60,000 and which was not in operation till about the 10th of September last has, since that time, saved in freight charges to the people tributary to that portion of the river, lying between The Dalles and the Cascades, nearly, if not quite the entire cost of construction.

Installation of Officers.

A very enjoyable time was had last evening by the members of Wasco Lodge No. 15, A. F. & A. M., with their families, it being the occasion for the installation of the officers of the lodge, and also for the celebration of the annual festival of St. John, the evangelist. Shortly after 8 o'clock Past Master R. F. Gibbons assisted by W. S. Myers as marshal, duly installed the following list of officers for the ensuing Masonic year, viz: Geo. C. Blakeley, W. M.; D. L. Cates, S. W.; H. Clough, J. W.; Geo. A. Liebe, Treas.; O. D. Doane, Secy.; I. L. Burget, S. D.; H. Horn, J. D.; A. Larsen, S. S.; E. Schanno, J. S., and R. G. Closter, Tyler. The ceremonies of installation were followed by a brief programme of addresses interspersed with music, after which, those present to the number of nearly one hundred, repaired to the banquet hall where an elegant repast was served, following which games and social intercourse filled the time till a late hour.

The Whine of a Plug Hat Answered.

THE DALLES, Dec. 29, 1891.
Editor Chronicle:
 I see that the four-bit, plug hat editor thinks he is badly used because he does not get the printing of The Dalles, Portland & Astoria Navigation Co. Does he want the earth? Or, rather, as he has the railroad does he want the river thrown in. Even if he did own $200 in the new boats, pray how much do the owners of the CHRONICLE have in them? Take out what the owners of the CHRONICLE have in the enterprise and how much would there be left? Not enough to build a wharf. But apart from this consideration altogether if the printing was worth a hundred dollars a minute the CHRONICLE deserves it every cent.
 YANK M.

Is This So?
 KINGALEY, December 26, 1891.
Editor of the Chronicle:

We are reliably informed this morning that since the Union Pacific has failed to drive the people's boats off the river and is obliged to tie up the D. S. Baker for lack of patronage, the company has sold her to the Chilean government. Is this so? Is it a case of rule or ruin with them?
 Yours,
 DAN MCGINTY, JR.

Southern Oregon Mines.

Grant's Pass Courier:
 Sherer, Simmons and Williams are sluicing out $100 a day with four men at their mine, just below the mouth of Galico creek.

A party is opening the Lewis McCallister mine on Rogue river below Dutcher creek, and expect to have the diggings in order next week.

William Rubie was down from the Rubie placer mine near Wolf creek. He is running two giants with eight men. He expects to put in another giant next week, and to put on three or four more men.

A promising strike has recently been made in quartz on Coyote creek, heretofore known as the Little Anaconda. A tunnel has been run with a view of cross-cutting the ledge; 150 feet has been run and the ledge continues on. It is rich in gold, and assays all the way from $6 to $250 to the ton. Capital is assured for its development.

A Desperate Old Man.

PARIS, Dec. 28.—An old man living in the eastern department killed his son in a quarrel over a legacy. When the gendarmes arrived to arrest him, he barricaded himself in the house. He fired at the gendarmes, whereupon a second gendarme leveled his pistol at the murderer and killed him.

Refused to Pardon Him.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—The president today denied the application for pardon in the case of Harper, convicted on a charge of embezzlement of funds of the Fidelity Savings bank of Cincinnati, and sentenced in 1887 to ten years imprisonment.

Shipwrecked Sailors on a Rock.

QUEBEC, Dec. 28.—The marine department has been notified that there are shipwrecked castaways on Bird rocks in the gulf. It is thought they belong to a French lugger which left St. Pierre a few days ago.

It is reported on good authority at Rome that diplomatic relations will soon be resumed with the United States. That's so—Italy has been sulking for several months; but as the people of the United States had about forgotten the diplomatic rupture, the game of freeze-out has evidently been a failure.

By the Morphine Route.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 29.—Leah Benjamin McGregor who, with her husband, took morphine at the Hotel Ramona Sunday morning with suicidal intent, died at 6 o'clock this evening. It is now believed that McGregor first took poison and then forced his wife to take a deadly dose. An inquest will be held on both bodies tomorrow.

Installation of Officers.

The installation of the officers elect of Wasco Lodge No. 15, A. F. & A. M., will take place at the Masonic hall in this city on Monday evening, December 28, at 8 o'clock. All masons and their families are cordially invited to be present.
 12-26-21, O. D. DOANE, Secretary.

LOST.

A bunch of keys on a ring, 6 or 7 in number. Finder will be rewarded by leaving same at this office.

The Old and the New.

"Of course it hurts but you must grin and bear it," is the old time consolation given to persons troubled with rheumatism. "If you will take the trouble to dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and lay it on over the seat of pain your rheumatism will disappear," is the modern and much more satisfactory advice. 50 cent bottles for sale by Snipes & Kinerly, druggists.

Reward--Keys Lost

A bunch of keys was left on the shelf at the money order window in the post-office Saturday noon. Will the party who took them (by mistake or otherwise) kindly leave them at the CHRONICLE office and be suitably rewarded.

A Preventive for Croup.

We want every mother to know that croup can be prevented. True croup never appears without a warning. The first symptom is hoarseness; then the child appears to have taken a cold or a cold may have accompanied the hoarseness from the start. After that a peculiar rough cough is developed, which is followed by the croup. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse; a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent the attack. Even after a rough cough has appeared the disease may be prevented by using this remedy as directed. It has never been known to fail. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by Snipes & Kinerly, druggists.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
 When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
 When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
 When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

For the Children.

Our readers will notice the advertisements in these columns for Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines, Iowa. From personal experience we can say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has broken up bad colds for our children and we are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without it in the house for a good many times its cost and are recommending it every day.—Centerville, S. D., Chronicle and Index. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles, for sale by Snipes & Kinerly, druggists. daw
