Rev. A. C. Spencer has moved his family to the corner of Ninth and Berty streets, where he will be pleased to meet all his friends.
The water was shut off today below a bluff at 11 o'clock a. m., in order to make connection with the new six-inch main on Second street. The connection expected to be made by 5 p. m.
A five-minute social at the free reading room on Friday night will be given the young people of this city by the pastor of the Methodist church. No admittance fees, collections or supper, but good time is assured. All are invited to participate.
C. Nickelsen has determined to issue out a large lot of books at such prices as make one wonder how they can be sold for the money. Fifty cents for an elegantly bound, gilt-edged book of poems or a well-bound copy, in large print, of Elliott, Dickens, or Tackeray. Twenty-five cents buys a bound book of travel, history or romance. Ten cents buys a box of nice paper and envelopes. All surplus stock offered at cost so that it may not lie till another season. All the goods are fresh, as everybody knows, and this offers opportunities rarely met with in the Dalles.

A Whist Party.

A pleasant and enjoyable whist party was held at the residence of B. S. Huntington last evening. The participants were: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crossen, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. S. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Judg. Fish, and Mrs. J. C. Hostetter, and Dr. Mrs. W. E. Rinehart.

A New Drug Firm.

On the first day of the new year the business so long successfully conducted by the late Chas. E. Dunham will pass into the hands of three young men of ability who are well and favorably known. The style of the new firm will be Byrne Helm & Co. The senior member of the firm is a graduate of the Ontario college of pharmacy who has had eight years experience as a druggist. During the six months or so that Mr. Byrne has been in this city he has made many warm friends. The second member of the firm Ed Helm was raised in this county almost from childhood and needs no introduction. Everybody knows Ed. and everybody likes him. The same may be said of the "Co." who is no other than Stacey Shown. If popularity meant success, and it has a great deal to do with success, then the success of the new firm is assured beyond question. The firm will make a specialty of druggist prescriptions which will be filled at all hours of the day or night. In this connection it may be proper to say that Mr. Byrne sleeps back of the store and the ringing of the bell on the front door will wake him up at any time. Another special feature of the new business will be their cigar stock. They claim that they will keep nothing but the best brands in the market and the best for any given price to be found in the city. A full line of perfumery and toilet requisites, patent medicines and all articles usually kept in a first class drug store will always be kept on hand. In the matter of wines and liquors for medicinal use nothing but the very best of everything in that line will be kept, as anyone having occasion to purchase wines and liquors can easily prove. The CHRONICLE predicts that the new firm of Byrne Helm & Co., will at once step to the front as the most popular drug store in the city.

Wamie Items.

WAMIE, Or., Dec. 20, 1891.

Editor of the Chronicle:
In last week's issue of the Sun, the editor of that paper seems fit to indulge in some loud-mouthed and abusive talk, language, that no decent journal would think of inserting. Does he think for a moment that the readers of his insignificant sheet are devoid of common sense when he tries to palm off on them, that the Sun is the strongest advocate today of the people's line of boats? yet it prefers to let it work out its own salvation by letting the course of its managers speak for itself. They charge that the Sun is under control of the Union Pacific, is sensible and will merit the attention it deserves. The CHRONICLE as a paper, the Sun has no fault to find with, yet its whole article was a pitiful attempt at a tirade of abuse against the CHRONICLE, charging it with receiving a goodly portion of its freight by the Union Pacific transportation line. Common sense teaches us otherwise. Are we not aware that the principle stock-holders in that paper are also share holders in the Regulator and to say that they would work against their own interest is too nonsensical to mention. Keep your yuck, brother Gourlay, "gulling" us, if that is what they call it. You have got the Regulator as the people's boat to triumph on the river, so will you get the CHRONICLE as the people's paper to triumph over all its opponents. HAY SEED.

The Lane County Leper.

J. H. Babcock, the McKenzie man afflicted with leprosy has been taken away from Lane county and shipped on board a lumber vessel bound for the Sandwich islands. A cabin was built on the deck of the vessel and the man will be confined in it till his arrival at Honolulu, after which he will be taken to the government leper hospital till the regular semi-annual gathering of lepers takes place when he will be removed to Molokai, the permanent home of the lepers of those islands. Babcock's father and mother live on the islands, from which it appears he escaped, without their knowledge. Babcock was quite willing to be removed. His relatives are wealthy and he will receive the best of care. He may live from ten to twenty years, the most of the time being free from any pain whatever. The people of Lane county, where he has been a public charge, were glad to get rid of him.

For the privilege of carrying on their lottery scheme the New Orleans lottery managers offer to contribute for the public schools there $250,000, payable quarterly; to levees, $350,000; to charities, $150,000, payable quarterly in advance; to pensions for disabled, infirm or indigent confederate soldiers resident in Louisiana, $50,000; to the city of New Orleans, for drainage and other sanitary purposes, $100,000, payable quarterly in advance. The total amount of the bribe offered is $1,250,000, payable in twenty-five years.

Stranger (to Bridget scrubbing the front steps)—While you're on your knees, Biddy, pray for me. Bridget—Oh, Lord, make this fellow a gentleman! —Harper's Bazaar.

The unexpected rush of trade in my closing out sale has broken my assortment of sizes in hats, boots, shoes, etc., and I found it necessary to order a small line of such goods, to sort up and make my stock complete in sizes. The goods will arrive tomorrow on our boat, the Regulator, and the prices of the new goods—hats, boots and shoes, rubber boots, etc. will be as low as the old stock at selling out rates. J. C. BALDWIN. 12-30-11.

The Old and the New.

"Of course it hurts but you must grin and bear it." is the old time consolation given to persons troubled with rheumatism. "If you will take the trouble to dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on over the seat of pain your rheumatism will disappear," is the modern and much more satisfactory advice. 50 cent bottles for sale by Snipes & Kinersly, druggists.

For the Children.

Our readers will notice the advertisements in these columns for Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines, Iowa. From personal experience we can say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has broken up bad colds for our children and we are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without it in the house for a good many times its cost and are recommending it every day.—Centerville, S. D., Chronicle and Index. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles, for sale by Snipes & Kinersly, druggists. daw

A Preventive for Croup.

We want every mother to know that croup never appears without a warning. The first symptom is hoarseness; then the child appears to have taken a cold or a cold may have accompanied the hoarseness from the start. After that a peculiar rough cough is developed, which is followed by the croup. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse; a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent the attack. Even after a rough cough has appeared the disease may be prevented by using this remedy as directed. It has never been known to fail. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by Snipes & Kinersly, druggists. daw

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
