"STILL HARPING ON MY DAUGHTER."

One of the half dozen copies published daily from the Times-Mountaineer office accidentally fell into our hands this morning and from it we see that the editor is still living in the remote past, chewing the cud of bitter retrospection and threshing old straw that has not yielded a kernel of grain for the last two years.

When a newspaper man is liberal nothing on earth can equal his liberality. Day before Christmas the big-hearted editor of the Washington Independent announced to the country that if there were any sad hearts in the little breasts because poverty and pinching want forbid the entrance of the German "Kris Kringle" they should report to him forthwith and they would be made to rejoice if it took his last cent and exhausted all the credit of the firm.

We have received a communication from Wamble signed "Sympathizer" which we will willingly publish if the writer will forward his name to this office, not necessarily for publication but as a guarantee that the statements contained in the letter are true.

It was a singular fate that was reserved for a man named Pugh who died on the Luckimute in Polk county, last Monday, coming from Dakota the home of the blizzard and the land of the cyclone. Pugh was frightened to death because a little Chinook zephyr moved his house from its foundation.

The Keeley drunkenness cure is to be tested in court on the suit of an inebriate who paid $150 on a pledge that he should be cured, which was not done. He wants $1200 for the damage done to his constitution by the treatment.

There is a touch of deep pathos in the following from the Long Creek Eagle, published on Christmas day: Today we "prints" all take a rest. We have no chicken for the occasion, no, not even many other luxuries our neighbors enjoy.

The Washington Independent says that Washington City is the most corrupt place outside of hell.

NORTHWEST NEWS: Seeking as a home a town where there are no saloons, the Keeley institute, for the cure of liquor, opium and tobacco habits, is to be moved from Portland to a permanent location in Forest Grove.

A wedding took place recently among the high-toned Alpowai Indians. We notice that Rain-in-the-face, Stinking Breches, Hole-in-his-Shirt and Old Skookum Root, were among the invited guests.

A nautical journal published on the Pacific coast asserts that the Nicaragua canal, if completed, will never be used by sailing vessels, for a reason which applies also to the Panama canal.

find it exceedingly difficult to get into the entrance on one side, and after being towed through would have equal difficulty in getting away from the coast into the region of trade winds on the other.

Forty tons of good grain hay sold under the hammer in this city last week for $2 per ton, this being the first and only bid. It was not the desire of the purchaser to take it even at that price.

The Wallowa canyon, from the bridge on the Wallowa river to its junction with the Grand Ronde river, is the hunters' paradise. The recent snow in the mountains has caused the deer to come down into the small ravines and breaks that lead into the canyon, and they are very plentiful.

The machinery of the jute mill at the penitentiary, Walla Walla, will arrive in a few days. Wheat sacks will probably be cheaper in the inland Empire next year on account of the operation of this mill. And yet there will be no diminution of the crop of demagogues who will rail against convict labor as taking the bread out of the mouth of the poor man.

Two Men Killed by Blasts.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 30.—At 7:30 a. m., four boxes of dynamite bombs, used for blasting at Schoonmaker's stone quarry at Wauwatosa, a village five miles west of this city, exploded, blowing Albert Butlits and William Walker to atoms. John Ralalsky was fatally injured. The two men killed were in the act of loading a blasting pump when the explosion occurred.

A Train Wreck in Russia.

PARIS, Dec. 30.—Le Clair publishes a dispatch from St. Petersburg, giving details of a terrible railway accident in Russia at Rosova station on the railway between Minsk and Smolinsk, the latter city being 250 miles southwest of Moscow. An express train yesterday ran into the rear of a military train. Twenty persons were killed outright, and over 100 seriously injured.

In Kittitas County.

CLE-ELUM, Wash., Dec. 29.—The prospects are that this section will experience the greatest depth of snow in several years. At Fish lake, twenty miles above here, the snow is eleven feet deep on a level. At Lake Cle-Elum it is eight feet, at Easton seven feet and at this point about two and a half feet. Snow is still falling and slightly drifting.

Collided With a Switch Engine.

BEATRICE, Neb., Dec. 29.—A passenger train on the Union Pacific collided with a switch engine in the yards this afternoon, badly wrecking both engines and derailing the mail and baggage cars. The engineers and firemen of both engines were slightly hurt and the passengers given a lively shaking up, but none injured.

Quarantine Against Massachusetts Cattle.

BANGOR, Me., Dec. 29.—The Maine cattle commissioners have posted a quarantine against Massachusetts cattle because of tuberculosis, but the regulations shall not apply to Western cattle coming through Massachusetts into Maine for the purpose of slaughter.

The Texas Railway Strike.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Dec. 29.—The entire system of the San Antonio & Arkansas Pass railway was tied up today by the strike of its employees, who went out last night. The trouble was caused by the discharge of a conductor for an alleged violation of orders.

Will Confer Today.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 29.—The railway employees' committee here to assist the telegraphers in obtaining a settlement of their difficulty with the Southern Pacific company has appointed tomorrow afternoon as the time to confer with General Manager Towne.

Bob Sims' Brother Hanged.

SHREVEPORT, Miss., Dec. 30.—About 3 o'clock Sunday morning John Sims, Bob's brother, was taken from jail at Butler, Ala., and hanged by a dozen men. Sims protested his innocence, and said he had done nothing to deserve such a fate.

A Real Estate Man Missing.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 30.—W. T. Hall, a veteran real estate man, has been missing since December 18, and his friends entertain fears as to his safety. It is asserted the firm has been financially embarrassed of late.

Arrested for Murder.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 30.—A dispatch from a detective at work on the New Smyrna murder case states that he has arrested Irving Jenkins for the murder of a family in the Packwood house, and had him committed to jail at Delano.

The New Spanish Tariff.

MADRID, Dec. 30.—The new tariff adopted by the cabinet, and which is to be published January 1, imposes prohibitive duties on alcohol and sugar. It relieves the present burdens on rails and railway material generally.

French Prisoners at Liberty.

PARIS, Dec. 30.—Five men serving terms of imprisonment in Montpellier have made their escape. The warden of the prison and one prisoner, who is supposed to have refused to join the others, were found strangled.

Want an Indian Legislature.

BOMBAY, Dec. 30.—The Indian national congress, in session at Nagpur, adopted a resolution deferring necessary the establishment of a legislature in India to which Indian people shall elect representatives.
