LOCAL BREVITIES.

County Commissioners Frank Kincaid and Dr. H. A. Leavens are in attendance at the county court.

A telegram from Mrs. Dr. Rinehart, from Missoula, Mont., informs the doctor of her safe arrival at that place.

The editor of the CHRONICLE is indebted to the courtesy of Senator J. N. Dolph for valuable documents received.

Messrs. Orchard & Fisher have returned from below, where they went to purchase a stock of goods for their new store in the East End.

Mrs. Pressey, of Portland, and Mrs. Hall of the Cascade Locks came up on the Regulator yesterday and are visiting with Mrs. Andrews for a few days.

George Filloon brought from Iowa a real nice little dog. The animal is a present from George's brother and George thinks a great deal of him.

The city council of Portland has instructed the license committee not to grant any more licenses to saloons located within 400 feet of a school house.

Mr. Merell, who leads the union prayer meeting this evening at the free reading rooms, extends a special invitation to the young men of the city to be present.

Chairman Springer of the ways and means committee, has drafted a bill for the free admission of wool. It amends the tariff law of October 1, 1890, but has not yet been introduced in the house.

A. M. Kirchheimer, a former subject of the German Empire and Thomas Moran, a former subject of the Queen of Great Britain were admitted to full citizenship before the present county court.

The CHRONICLE acknowledges the pleasure of a call from Mr. E. Calkins of Hood River. Mr. Calkins has appeared before the county court with reference to damages for the loss he sustained some time ago when his horse and wagon backed over the bluff, at the head of the grade on the old Dalles and Sandy wagon road leading down to what is known as Haynes' Spur. When it is known that the road at this point is narrow and that the horse and wagon had a sheer fall of some seventy feet the wonder is that the horse escaped with his life. It was still more fortunate that Mr. Calkins, who lost a leg in the civil war, was able to get himself and wife free from the wagon before it went over the bluff. This reminds us to second the suggestion of the Glacier that the county court should certainly make some provision against the recurrence of such an accident at both this place and also at the eastern grade leading to the Hood River bridge. A little money spent on these grades would be wisely spent and might save a much larger sum paid as compensation for injury or loss of life. In connection with the accident that happened to Mr. Calkins we regret to learn that Mrs. Calkins still suffers seriously in her mental condition, from the effects of the shock, and Mr. Calkins fears that she will never be herself again.

Messrs. Hosiord & Jones of the Moro Observer were in the city Thursday.

Engene Gillman of Gilliam county is in the city. He goes below this evening. The many friends of Mrs. F. Dehm will regret to hear that she is seriously ill.

Miss Mattie Johnston returned last night on the Regulator from a holiday trip to Portland.

There will be preaching at the Y. M. C. A. rooms next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Revs. Hope and Wheelhouse, of Columbus, are expected to preach or in their absence Rev. J. A. Orchard.

An exchange says: In his endorsement of Hon. Joseph Simon for a federal judgeship Governor Pennoyer has disclosed a kind of back door or Sunday entrance to the Democratic party.

The Right Rev. B. Wistar Morris, D. D., will make a visitation to St Paul's Episcopal church on Sunday, the 10th inst. At the morning service, at 11 o'clock, the rite of confirmation will be administered, followed by a celebration of the holy communion.

The CHRONICLE purposes giving a write up of the business houses of this city, furnishing two or three each week as it may be convenient. No partiality whatever will be shown to any and no house of business advertised in these columns will be knowingly omitted. Any such oversight will be promptly rectified if word is left at this office.

An alarm of fire was sounded yesterday evening which called out the fire laddies only to find that there was no use for them. It was difficult to find just what or who caused the alarm but from the best information we could find it was caused by the appearance of a large volume of smoke issuing from or near the house of Mrs Morgan on Third street.

Grand masquerade Ball will be given by Jackson Engine Co., No. 1, Thursday, January 21, 1892, at the Umatilla House Reception committee: W. S. Graham, H. Clough and F. Lemke. Floor managers: Judd Fish, H. Bills, Geo. T. Thompson, J. Woods and John Hertz. Committee of arrangements: Frank Roach, Geo. Williams, Geo. Mungler, John Blaser and Geo. A. Liebe. Tickets of admission, $1. No person of questionable character will be admitted.

Jacobsen & Co. have had manufactured for them a very handsome and convenient paper box that is at once a box and a drawer combined. The box they fill with forty-eight sheets of first quality of note paper and the drawer with forty-eight envelopes of the same quality of paper and sell the combination for the low price of 25 cents. The box-drawer itself is a thing of beauty and seems worth nearly all that is asked for the whole business.

DIED.

January 7th inst., at 7:40 p. m., at the residence of her daughter Mrs. George Ruch of this city, Mrs. Ursula Michell, widow of the late William Michell, aged 80 years, ten months and two days. Mrs. Michell was born in the parish of Helston, County of Cornwall, England. She came with her husband to Wisconsin in 1847. Her husband crossed the plains and came out to California in 1851. On his way back to his family in 1853, he died at Panama and was buried there. Mrs. Michell came out to this coast in the month of January, 1865 and has resided in this city ever since. The excitement of the great fire, in which Mrs. Michell lost her residence, undoubtedly told upon a constitution enfeebled by age and her health has been gradually breaking down ever since, till last Wednesday, when it became evident to her physicians and friends that the end was approaching. Mrs. Michell was an earnest and devoted Christian woman. Left nearly forty years ago with a family of five children who all survive her, her life was given up, as few mothers has been, to their welfare. Of these, William, Phillip, John and Mrs. Ruch reside in this city, while Henry lives in Goldendale. Arrangements are not complete, at this writing, for her funeral, but it will not occur before Sunday, and will most likely take place from the Episcopal church. Full particulars, however, will be given tomorrow.

World's Week of Prayer.

Programme for Friday evening: Mr. E. H. Merrill, leader.

Topic, "The Church Abroad." Praise, for the increased preparation of the world for the gospel; for the increasing number of those who have given themselves to the work of missions.

Prayer for a signal manifestation of the Holy Spirit's power; for missionaries and native Christians; for all who are persecuted for righteousness sake and for liberty of conscience; for more co-operation and an increase of intelligent interest in the salvation of the world.

Meetings are held in the free reading room and commence at 7:30 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Mrs. Lochhead's studio at Mrs. Geo. Morgan's residence will be open for visitors on the afternoon of Saturday, January 9th. 1-7-2t

Public Installation.

Last evening Dr. O. D. Doane, of this city, went down to Hood River for the purpose of publicly installing the officers of Idlewild Lodge No. 107, I. O. O. F. The list of officers for the ensuing term are as follows:

M. P. Watson, N. G.; A. B. Jones, V. G.; J. W. Morton, Rec. Sec.; L. E. Morris, Per. Sec.; J. E. Hanna, Treas.; J. E. Tate, R. S. N. G.; W. H. Allen, L. S. N. G.; W. B. Perry, Warden; Geo. A. Herbert, Cond.; L. Neff, R. S. S.; Wm. Ellison, L. S. S.; H. L. Cunan, R. S. V. G.; R. F. Hardwick, L. S. V. G.; A. L. Maguire, I. G.; L. E. Udell, O. G.; H. Hibbard, P. G.

The members of the lodge had opened their doors to a large concourse of invited guests, and after the ceremonies of installation were concluded a very entertaining programme was presented, consisting of brief addresses, from several speakers, singing songs by the glee club, and last but by no means the least enjoyable part of the entertainment, an elegant repast was furnished and a general good time was had by those present. Idlewild Lodge is one of the newer institutions of the village of Hood River, having been instituted but a few months but has grown and flourished, and is composed of good material, and is destined to accomplish good work for the Odd Fellowship at Hood River.

Recorder's Court.

George Ernest was fined $5 and costs for begging.

Andy Broger was fined $10 and costs for being drunk and begging.

Chas. Frank was fined $5 and costs for sleeping out.

R. F. Casey was indicted under the double charge of being out late and carrying concealed weapons. He was fined $5 and costs.

You can tell more about a man's character by trading horses with him once than by hearing him talk in prayer meeting a lifetime. This, however does not detract the value of prayer meeting.—Gazette.

Being rallied about his bid for the support of the Jo Simon Democracy Governor Pennoyer slyly remarked to his interlocutor that there were a good many of them.—Salem Journal.

A Quiet Wedding.

Was interrupted an evening ago by the groom (to the horror of all) rushing madly out of the church and down the street just as the ceremony was to take place. It seems the prospective mother-in-law had instructed him to order a can of mocha and java coffee, a jar of evaporated cream, and some fine wafers, which had slipped his memory and with great presence of mind he hastened to order them from John Booth, the grocer, who delivered them in time for breakfast and helped him out of his dilemma.

The Old and the New.

"Of course it hurts but you must grin and bear it," is the old time consolation given to persons troubled with rheumatism. "If you will take the trouble to dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bine it on over the seat of pain your rheumatism will disappear," is the modern and much more satisfactory advice. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. daw.

A Preventive for Croup.

We want every mother to know that croup can be prevented. True croup never appears without a warning. The first symptom is hoarseness; then the child appears to have taken a cold or a cold may have accompanied the hoarseness from the start. After that a peculiar rough cough is developed, which is followed by the croup. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse; a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent the attack. Even after a rough cough has appeared the disease may be prevented by using this remedy as directed. It has never been known to fail. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. daw.
