LOCAL BREVITIES.

Measles are still raging on the bluff.
E. L. Boynton, proprietor of the Kingsley hotel is in town.
Robert Kelly the Kingsley postmaster and merchant is in the city.
The wife of James Ferguson the expressman is, we regret to hear, quite sick with typhoid fever.
J. H. Haverly of Boyd and J. A. Gulliford of Dufur gave the CHRONICLE office a pleasant call today.
The funeral of the late Mrs. Ursula Michell will take place from the Episcopal church tomorrow at 2 p. m.
L. A. Sears, son-in-law of J. R. Doyle of Eight Mile, formerly of Eight Mile, now of Seattle, is visiting friends in and around The Dalles.
Sam Thurman has resigned his position as brakeman on the state portage and has returned to the city where his pleasant face will be welcomed by many an old friend.
Congregational church services as usual tomorrow (Sunday) in the court house. Morning service at 11 o'clock. Sunday school at 12:15. Young people's society of Christian Endeavor at 5:30 p. m. Union service at 7 p. m.; preaching by Rev. Spencer, pastor of the Methodist church.
G. W. Johnston and son have opened a carpenter's shop at 112 Main street where they will attend promptly and to give estimates on all kinds of carpenter work. The Messrs. Johnston need no recommendation from us. They are old settlers, thoroughly honest and reliable and no better workmen are to be found anywhere. We heartily wish them the success they deserve.
Methodist services tomorrow as follows: Class at 10 a. m. Preaching at 11 from the subject "The Purpose of Missions." This sermon is by special request and all should hear it. Sunday school at 12:20. Epworth League at 5:30 p. m. Union service at the court house at 7; sermon by Rev. A. C. Spencer, subject "What shall the harvest be?" Young people specially invited to these services.
An exhibit car, built and conducted at the cost of the Leak Glove company of San Francisco and containing samples of the horticultural and mineral resources of Placer county, California, has arrived in the city, where it will remain till next Wednesday. The car will be open to the public all day Monday and Tuesday and of nights will be brilliantly lighted up by its own electric light plant. It will well repay a visit.
A private letter from Wamic has the following: Gordon & Stogsdale have dissolved partnership. Gordon remains in the business and will move his goods to Tygh Valley. That means no store at Wamic for the present. Mrs. Mollie Brattain is very sick with rheumatism. Fears are entertained that Tom Driver's daughter Edna, who has been sick for some time, is paralyzed on one side. Ike Drivers, Dan Palmateer and Sam

Douglass' children are down with measles, and a few cases of la grippe are reported but none are very serious.
The case of McMasters vs. Taylor, which has been in the United States court for over a year and has had five different hearings, has been decided by Judge Deady, McMasters being awarded $755. McMasters resides in Rochester, N. Y., and when out here some time ago employed Rev. O. D. Taylor of this city to purchase some land for him. The outcome of this and other transactions was not satisfactory and Mr. McMasters sued Mr. Taylor in five counts to recover $5000. The court awarded McMasters $755.

A Few Suggestions.

Editor of the Chronicle:
If you consider the following of any interest, use it, if not then you may do us your pleasure with it.
What can we do? Where can we go? These questions have been asked by several of The Dalles young people and seem to be unanswered. Before the fire there were plenty of places to go to; and plenty to do, to pass the time among the younger classes, but at present there is no place to hold socials, dances or any other class of amusements.
Now it seems to me that the long evenings can be passed in a pleasant and enjoyable manner by the young folks by organizing themselves into a mutual enjoyment society. The society to meet at the homes of the members in succession and by each member taking part in the evening's enjoyment to the best of their ability. Some by furnishing something in the way of refreshments, some by furnishing music, others by furnishing games and all by furnishing good will. By this means the pleasant and sociable times of last winter may be revived. There is plenty of talent among the young people of this city which should be cultivated and these meetings would be a good place to bring it out.
Let us hear from some of the young people on this subject. An exchange of ideas on the matter will do no harm and may result in many pleasant hours of sociability and mutual benefit before the close of the winter.
C. S.
The CHRONICLE would be pleased to see the suggestions of "C. S." carried out and gladly throws open its columns for the free discussion of the best way to do so.

The Doctor got one Himself.
Last Thursday after the CHRONICLE man had read an item in the Sun which made the assertion that no circular had been issued by The Dalles board of trade urging the representatives of Oregon, Washington and Idaho to use their best efforts towards procuring an appropriation for the dalles portage, he stepped into the county court room and while passing the compliments of the season with County Commissioner Leavens, the author of the Sun item entered the court room and approached to within convenient distance of the two conversationalists. At this moment Dr. Leavens, who was unacquainted with the Sun man, picked up from his desk a copy of that journal and made as though he intended to pass some criticism on its contents. The CHRONICLE man tried to nudge the doctor to defer the criticism but their elbows were too far apart. Then the CHRONICLE man tried to wink at the doctor but that gentleman was bound to find the item he was looking for and never lifted his head. At last having found the item that contained the denial that the circulars had been sent out, the doctor pointed to it with his finger and addressing the CHRONICLE representative said: "Look here Gourlay, this fellow says these circulars have not been sent out; by geehawtaker sir, I got one myself!" Tableau.

World's Week of Prayer.

Programme for Saturday evening: Rev. O. D. Taylor, leader.
Topic: "The Church at Home."
Praise for a clearer recognition of need and a growing run of responsibility.
Prayer for a larger apprehension of the mission of the church; to save not only the individual but also society; to purify all human institutions and relationships; for increased co-operation in behalf of city, country and frontier.
Meetings are held in the free reading room and commence at 7:30 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all.
The Governor Signed It.
When Dr. W. E. Rinehart heard of the circular issued by the board of trade of this city urging our representatives in congress to do all in their power towards obtaining at this session an appropriation for a portage railroad at the dalles he obtained one of them and sent it, accompanied by a friendly letter, to Governor Penoyer. This morning the doctor called at the CHRONICLE office and showed us this same circular, bearing on it in the well-known chirography of his "excellency the still better known name" Sylvester Penoyer.

Drive Whist Party.

A most enjoyable drive whist party was held at the residence of Hon. A. S. Bennett last evening. The following persons participated in the game: Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Schenck; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crossen; Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Beall; Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Brooks; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lochhead; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hostetter; Misses Lewis, Brooks and Marden and Messrs. Frank Garretson, Louis C. Ainsworth and John Hertz. At the close of the game the first prize was awarded to Mrs. H. M. Beall and the booby to Miss Ira Brooks.

Lost Her Husband.

A lady and gentleman were taking their vacation traveling in the Alps. He was a very daring fellow and in one of his exploits was buried beneath an avalanche of snow.
His wife together with some scientists figured it out that at the rate the glacier was moving he would be discovered in forty years so at the end of forty long years she returned and found her husband (as she had predicted) looking as young and handsome as the day he was covered up. She fed him extract of beef and Quaker oats when revived him and they lived happily together and bought their groceries from John Booth the grocer for ever afterwards.

They Speak From Experience.

"We know from experience in the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy that it will prevent croup," says Messrs. Gaddy & Worley, Percy, Iowa. They also add that the remedy has given great satisfaction in this vicinity, and that they believe it to be the best in the market for throat and lung diseases. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

For the Children.

Our readers will notice the advertisements in these columns for Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines, Iowa. From personal experience we can say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has broken up bad colds for our children and we are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without it in the house for a good many times its cost and are recommending it every day.—Centerville, S. D., Chronicle and Index, 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles, for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. dw

A Preventive for Croup.

We want every mother to know that croup can be prevented. True croup never appears without a warning. The first symptom is hoarseness; then the child appears to have taken a cold or a cold may have accompanied the hoarseness from the start. After that a peculiar rough cough is developed, which is followed by the croup. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse; a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent the attack. Even after a rough cough has appeared the disease may be prevented by using this remedy as directed. It has never been known to fail. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. daw
