BIG TIMES IN OHIO. McKinley Inaugurated Today Amid a Grand Display.

THE NEW GOVERNOR'S VIEWS. The Mexican Revolution is Causing That Government Lots of Trouble.

OBJECT TO HIDING OUTSIDE. The Brakemen on the Southern Pacific Strike—Severe Storms in Europe—Minor Mentions.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 11.—William McKinley, jr., was inaugurated as governor of Ohio today, with the most imposing pagantry in the state's history.

Notwithstanding the severity of the weather, the city was crowded with people from all parts of Ohio, and a large delegation from the neighboring states was also in attendance.

At noon, after a happy introduction speech by Governor Campbell, the chief justice of the supreme court administered the oath of office to Major McKinley. He then delivered his inaugural address. The inaugural address of Governor McKinley said, in regard to redistricting the state, that it is intended to make the districts, so far as their relation to the political divisions of our people, so impartial that no further legislation will dare to disturb them until a new census and new congressional appointment will make a change imperative.

Partisanship is not discouraged, but is encouraged in all things where the principle is at stake. But partisanship which would take from the people their just representation in case of congressional redistricting by last legislature, is an abuse of power which the people are swift to rebuke. It will be your duty to reemfranchise citizens of Ohio who were disfranchised by the last legislature gerrymandering.

THE MEXICAN REVOLUTION. It is Giving the Government All its Wants to Attend to.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—Private letters to the associated press from Monterey, Mexico, dated January 3rd, say: "The government is keeping the sharpest watch on the telegrams and letters to and from the United States, and even on newspapers, to suppress all news about the Garza revolution, and although the government pretends that the movement is of little account, and in some instances, direct against the United States, yet it is well known that the movement has taken formidable proportions and threatens to extend.

Though Garza is intelligent and brave, he is not the real leader of the movement. The leader is one of the most prominent men in the republic. What aids, or rather what will aid the revolutionists, is the general depression which reigns, and which makes itself felt more and more every day. The prisons are full of people who were driven to crime by this distress.

Object to Hiding on the Outside. PORTLAND, Jan. 11.—The brakemen of the Southern Pacific struck this morning and refused to take out the train.

The strike was brought about by the receipt last night of an order from headquarters that one brakeman should remain outside or on top of every train. Immediately upon receipt of the order a meeting of the brakemen was held and it was decided that they would walk out, unless the order was rescinded. About two o'clock this afternoon the railroad officials secured a new crew and under police protection started out the Roseburg freight. The railroad officials say that by tomorrow night they will have new men to handle all the trains. The brakemen are talking of making a general appeal to the union to call a strike over the entire division between here and Ashland.

The Iowa Legislature Meets Today. DES MOINES, Iowa, Jan. 11.—The legislature convened this afternoon at two o'clock. The house is republican by four majority. The democrats have twenty five in the senate and the republicans twenty-four, and the Independents, one.

Washington News. WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The vice-president laid before the senate today several official and other documents, including one from the interior department, asking for an appropriation of $150,000 as a deficiency to supply subsistence to the Sioux Indians.

The senate judiciary committee today decided to lay over without action until next Friday, nomination of circuit judges. This was done at the request of Voorhees, who desires to enter a protest against the confirmation of Wood.

Storms in Europe. LONDON, Jan. 11.—The severe snow storm of last week, continues throughout the kingdom. Traffic is seriously interfered with. A dispatch from Valencia, Spain, says a violent storm, has caused much damage there.

At Tyrone, Ireland, a funeral procession became lost in the storm and the horses became exhausted and it was found necessary to abandon the hearse in a snow drift.

Need Not Criminate Themselves. WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The United States supreme court today in the interstate commerce case of Carles, councilman, applicant, vs. Frank Hetchcock, marshal of the United States district court, for the northern district of Illinois, decided that witnesses cannot be compelled to testify in any criminal cases where the answers might tend to criminate them in any way.

More Judges Like Him Needed. DENVER, Jan. 11.—Judge Rising this morning denied the motion of Dr. Grave's counsel for an arrest of judgment and sentenced the condemned man to be hanged within two weeks, beginning from January 31.

Got Tired of Being Mad. ROME, Jan. 11.—It is again stated that negotiations between Italy and the United States for the re-establishment of friendly relations are making good progress.

The Funeral of Admiral Rodgers. WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The funeral services over the remains of admiral Rodgers was held this morning. A number of prominent people were present.

A New Register Appointed. WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The president today sent the senate the nomination of Ralph K. Nichols, to be register of the land office at North Yakima, Washington.

Death of Mrs. Lindley. NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Grace Field Lindley, eldest daughter of Cyrus W. Field, died this morning, after a lingering illness.

A Puma Hunt in Ohio. LEIPSIK, O., Jan. 9.—The greatest hunt ever undertaken in this state took place near here today, when seventy men and fifty hounds turned out to run down two pumas, which have been preying on live-stock in the neighborhood.

The beasts were encountered early in the afternoon, much to the sorrow of both hunters and hounds. The fight was kept up till dark, and the result was that seven hunters are dangerously injured, at least two of them fatally, and nine of the hounds are dead. The pumas are now surrounded in a swamp, and the fight will be renewed at dark.

Well Known in Chicago. CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—Slaughter, the anarchist under arrest in England, is remembered here as having gone around the city before the Haymarket massacre giving lectures on "Socialism." Police Inspector Schuack says he left here immediately after the Haymarket riot and was a warm friend of Schwab and Fielden.

Three Trainmen Killed. LITTLE ROCK, Jan. 9.—A freight train jumped the track on the Little Rock & Fort Smith railroad, near Reynolds spur, last night. The engine and seven cars rolled down a steep embankment. Engineer Brown, Fireman Freeman and Brakeman Kennedy were killed. The damage to the railroad property will be about $6000.

The Wife of the Chief Told the Story. SALT LAKE, U. T., Jan. 9.—The gang of counterfeiters, which flooded the city with spurious $5, $10 and $20 gold pieces during the holidays, was bound over to the grand jury today. The wife of the chief counterfeiter, in her evidence, detailed the gang's operations.

IT WAS PREMEDITATED That is What the Evidence in the Baltimore Case Shows.

THE SAILORS WERE WARNED. The Behring Sea Question in No Danger of Being Settled.

A GOD WORD FOR EGAN. Captain Schley's Opinion of His Conduct—The Result of a Yuma Hunt in Ohio.

VALLEJO, Cal., Jan. 9.—Today was the third of the investigation into the attack on the sailors of the Baltimore. Judge-Advocate Remy presided alone, District Attorney Garter being absent. Testimony was taken very rapidly, over twenty witnesses being examined. Nearly all the crew have now testified, and Monday the officers will probably take the stand. The case of the United States as stated by President Harrison in his message, has been absolutely proved. There can no longer be any doubt but that the mob was organized beforehand. Nearly every sailor was warned by at least one person, that the Baltimore men would be attacked at dark. The clerk of the bank where they changed their money warned some of them. An English sea captain stopped others on the street and warned them, and many others in all classes of society also gave warnings. As a result many of the sailors kept away from the low part of town and went to the fashionable residence and business part, only to be followed and attacked by the mob. There were at least four different localities, some of them over a mile apart, where the attacks on the sailors were made simultaneously. The shameful part played by the Valparaiso police and soldiers becomes more and more evident daily. Nearly every witness was abused and insulted by them, while the evidence that they shot and killed Riggan is conclusive. As to the sobriety of the Baltimore men, Captain, Schley said today:

"Eight out of ten of my sailors are not drinking men. They confine themselves almost entirely to beer and such light drinks, and the liberty party was especially composed of men who bore reputations for sobriety."

THE BEHRING SEA DISPUTE. Great Britain Shows No Disposition to Hurry a Settlement.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The Behring sea negotiations are not proceeding with the smoothness which would encourage the belief that before the next sealing season opens the rights of the United States in the northern ocean will be clearly defined. No real obstacles have been recently interposed, but the government is struggling with poor success to disturb the inertia of the British government and secure a forward movement on its part towards the beginning of the long expected arbitration. It is two months now since the last definite proposals on the subject were exchanged. Secretary Blaine had so far yielded to Minister Salisbury's request as to consent to a reference of the questions under contention to a tribunal composed of seven persons. One of these arbitrators was to represent Canada, one Great Britain, two the United States, and the remaining three to be selected from other nations. Up to this point everything progressed smoothly and uninterruptedly, but when it comes to an agreement upon three neutral arbitrators there was a hitch. Great Britain could not be induced to submit any names of persons acceptable to her and has not up to this time.

A WORD FOR EGAN. Captain Schley Thinks He Is The Right Man in the Light Place.

VALLEJO, Cal., Jan. 9.—Captain Schley said today: "When I went to Chili I was prejudiced against Minister Egan, but I found him a quiet, intelligent, estimable gentleman, firm, yet not boisterous, and in every way determined to do his duty to the United States. His letters to the Chilean government were diplomatic masterpieces, unanswerable in logic, firm and decided, and yet thoroughly polite and respectful. I soon concluded he was the right man in the right place. British Minister Kennedy declared in my presence that he had written to Lord Salisbury that Egan's conduct throughout had been dignified and commendable and that in him the United States had a minister of whom any nation might well be proud."

Weather Forecast. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—Forecast for Washington and Oregon; Fair followed by rain in western portions.
