Ed Wicks of Mill Creek is reported to be very sick. George Noland and Willie Staats of Dufur were in town today.

We regret to learn that A. J. Dufur Jr., of Dufur has been quite sick. Amos Root and W. T. McClure of Mosier were in the city yesterday.

Ed Henderson of Dufur who has been quite sick with typhoid fever is able to be on his feet again. Be sure to go early to the Mic-Mac concert next Saturday evening.

The social of the Epworth League on Friday night at Y. M. C. A. Hall, will consist of a short program of music and impromptu speeches on the lives of illustrious women.

The mildness of the present winter may be gathered from a fact related to us this morning by George Noland of Dufur. He says the blossoms on the Hawthorne trees on Three Mile creek near the bridge are bursting out and may be easily seen by a person passing on the road.

Washington news looks warlike enough. The Rubicon of war or peace may be passed at any moment. Chili seems cursed with a fatal blindness.

A war with the United States could have but one result in the long run. Chili would be but a crippled dwarf in the clutches of a lusty giant.

Mr. Hobert of this city has returned from a month's trip to Vancouver's Island and the Sound country. He was there in the service of the Baldwin Locomotive works of Philadelphia.

Bert Campbell the express man had a runaway the other day which resulted fortunately in nothing worse than a badly demoralized set of harness.

Steps are being taken to induce the young folks of The Dalles to take part in the Demorest medal contests, which are held all over the United States.

The following telegram was handed us as we go to press: WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 20.—My bill appropriating one hundred thousand dollars for public building at The Dalles has just passed the senate.

JOHN H. MITCHELL. BORN. In this city on Jan. 19, 1892 to the wife of P. A. Johnson, a son.

It is said that Governor Penoyer is quite sanguine of getting that dalles portage appropriation through this congress.

fest their interest by their presence at the contest.

Hon. M. P. Isenberg of Hood River is in the city.

Leon Rondeau of Kingsley was in town last night.

V. C. Brook, county clerk of Wasco county, was in town today on his way to Portland.

The snow is nearly all gone off the Tygh Ridge country and the ground is all bare between here and there.

The new armory in the Wingate building has been nicely filled up with racks for 100 guns and seats for about 200 persons.

Henry Mulkins of Dufur has retired from the presidency of the Slickstone Express company and is now running the Central hotel in that burg.

If Miss Sarah E. Walker, who is to sing at the Mic-Mac concert on Saturday evening, is kindly received in The Dalles it is possible she may be induced to remain here, to assist in elevating the musical taste of our people.

It was rumored on the street today that Judge Thornbury and Dick Clover have been ordered to report at once at Washington for service in Chili.

The anarchist is haunting society in every part of the world. Full of rum, bomb and rebellion, he is constantly thrusting his rude entertainments upon those great people who give and receive luxurious banquets and state receptions.

E. Warren of Dufur, author of a popular work on "Henology," has accepted the presidency of the Slickstone Express company vice Henry Mulkins, resigned.

A quiet little social whist party was given last night by Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Nicholas, at their residence on Third street.

Two Indian boys came into town last night by the "blind baggage" route, in company with a tramp. Con Howe gathered the three into his cooler, and the recorder this morning fined the tramp the usual sum while the Indian boys are held for further inquiry.

WAMIC ITEMS. Editor of the Chronicle: Dr. Vanderpool was in our midst Jan. 8th calling on and prescribing for the sick, which are not a few at present.

At Sam Douglass' house seven may be seen, lying with the measles. Sam will tell you that they are quite entertaining but not one of the most pleasant visitors to receive in the family.

ASA STODGILL has sold his interest in the Wamic store to F. S. Gordon who will move it to Tygh where he intends to carry a good stock of dry goods, groceries, etc.
