The Dalles Chronicle

The leading paper

Of the Leading City of Eastern Oregon.

During the little over a year of its existence it has earnestly tried to fulfil the objects for which it was founded, namely, to assist in developing our industries, to advertise the resources of the city and adjacent country and to work for an open river to the sea. Its record is before the people and the phenomenal support it has received is accepted as the expression of their approval. Independent in everything, neutral in nothing, it will live only to fight for what it believes to be just and right.

Commenting with the first number of the second volume the weekly has been enlarged to eight pages while the price ($1.50 a year) remains the same. Both the weekly and the daily editions contain more reading matter for less money than any paper published in the country.
