Don't forget to hear "Aunt Dinah's Quilting Party" by the colored maidens next Saturday evening at the Mic-Mac concert. Aunt Dinah, dressed in a rich and becoming costume will herself lead all the choruses.

General Howard does not believe that a war with Chili is at all probable while it is within the realm of possibility. He thinks the real weakness of this country is in its movable army. The navy has made great strides during the last five or ten years but the army remains in the same condition as to numbers it was in twenty years ago.

The prosperous outlook before the farmers of this county has had a noticeable effect on the price of land. Men who were anxious to sell out a year ago now want to hold on or are asking a higher price. A well known farmer from Tygh Ridge informs the CHEONICLE that quarter sections of agricultural land in that country have advanced fully $500 each, above what was being asked for them this time a year ago.
