IS BEFORE CONGRESS.
And Unless Something New Transpires This Week will Settle the Matter.
NO APPOINTMENT AS YET.

The Ninth District Judge is Yet an Unknown Quantity.
MEXICO DON'T WANT GARZA.
The Behring Sea Settlement—To Survey the Rogue River—Lumbermen Object.

THE WEEK IN CONGRESS.
Much Will Depend Upon the Disposition of the President's Message.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The course of proceedings in congress during the week depends largely upon the manner in which the president's message and the Chilean correspondence is received. The probability however is strongly against the matter being precipitately taken up for consideration by either branch of congress, or any discussion on the subject immediately on receipt of the message. The usual formal course will doubtless be followed by referring the message and the accompanying correspondence to the appropriate committee. Pending its consideration in the committee, the message and correspondence

THE BEHRING SEA SETTLEMENT.
NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—Among the passengers who arrived today on the steamer Etruria was Sir George Baden-Powell, the British Behring sea commissioner, who will endeavor to bring about an amicable settlement regarding the fisheries trouble. Sir George will probably go to Canada from here to confer with the Canadian authorities after which he will go to Washington.
Lumber Manufacturers Object.
CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 24.—The lumber manufacturers have decided to make a determined fight to prevent the placing of lumber on the free list. A call for a convention, signed by twenty-three manufacturers, mostly located in the South, to be held in Washington February 23, was issued today.

A Semaphore on Cape Espartel.
TANGIERS, Jan. 24.—The sultan of Morocco has granted permission to Great Britain to erect a semaphore on Cape Espartel, near the Straits of Gibraltar. This concession is made on condition that in the event of war the semaphore must be closed at the demand of any European power.
A Good Word for Egan.
NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—A Washington dispatch quotes Assistant Secretary of State Adee, in speaking of Minister Egan, as saying:
Mr. Egan's course has been one only to merit praise. I consider Egan one of the best ministers we have had in the service. Throughout this case he has acted in a most statesmanlike manner. The publication of the correspondence will show that the dispatch, in which Matta accused Egan of virulent language, is as far from that characteristic as it possibly can be.

Miss Mitchell's Marriage.
PARIS, Jan. 23.—The date of the marriage of Miss Mattie Mitchell and the Duc de la Rochefoucault is fixed for February 11 at the church of St. Clotilde. President and Mme. Carnot have signified their intention of being present, and so have M. Ribot, minister of foreign affairs; L. Constans, minister of the interior, and all the best known names in the American colony, including Mr. and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid.
Judge Strahan Will Retire.
ALBANY, Or., Jan. 23.—A close friend of Judge R. S. Strahan said today that he will not be a candidate for re-election, but that at the close of his term on the supreme bench, he will retire from public life and remove to Portland to resume the practice of law.
In a recent revival service in Chicago, 1500 of those present testified that they were converted before the age of 20, 180 before they were 30, and only one after reaching 50 years of age.

will be printed. The disposition of the most influential men is adverse to unusual haste in the consideration of the subject. It is expected the message and correspondence will be sent to congress tomorrow. Such is the intention of the president this evening, and unless the case suddenly assumes some new phase, requiring an addition to the message, it will be laid before both houses tomorrow afternoon.
No Reward for Garza.
LAREDO, Tex., Jan. 24.—Mexican Consul Diaz said this afternoon that his government has offered no reward for Garza, but would doubtless take a hand should he be captured and put him on trial. Then the principal charge against him would be treason. The report that if captured by the United States authorities he would be at once extradited is erroneous, as he must first be tried in the United States for a violation of the neutrality laws. After his trial on such a charge will be time enough to talk about extradition.

More Serious Than Ever.
CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—The Times' Washington dispatch says: "That there is more serious danger of trouble with Chili than at any previous time is conceded by those who hold the machinery of war or peace. This afternoon the president met Mr. Tracy, Commodore Folger, of the naval ordinance department, and Commodore Ramsay at the office of Secretary Tracy. They had a conference of two hours. One serious indication of trouble is that high officials are beginning to tell the truth to the few people whom they know well."
To Survey the Rogue River.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Representative Hermann has introduced a bill in congress, directing an examination and survey by the war department of Rogue river, from its mouth to the town of Grant's Pass, in Josephine county, and also to include its entrance with a view to an elaborate showing of that waterway and any obstacles which may exist to an improvement to navigation, to be exhibited by maps and a written report to the secretary of war and by him sent to congress.

The Outcome of the Ultimatum.
CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—The Daily News Washington special says that Representative Hopkins, of Illinois, said today: "I do not think President Harrison's message will call upon congress for a declaration of war, but practically it will suggest such a course, dependent upon Chili apologizing. I expect, as a result of the message, a joint resolution will be passed by the house and senate, declaring that hostilities be commenced at the end of a certain period, unless in the meantime Chili shall have made such reparation as this country shall deem satisfactory."
NO APPOINTMENT YET.
The Successful Ninth District Judge is Still Unnamed.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—There was about $3000 spent in telegraph tolls when Judge Hanford was appointed United States district judge of Washington. Now that there is a prospect that Hanford may be appointed circuit judge and another vacancy created for the district judgeship, it seems that there is a struggle for this place which is not yet vacant. The Washington senators, when they went to the president with the final proposition for the appointment of W. Lair Hill stated that in case it was not the intention to appoint him that they would like to name a second choice. The president told them significantly that it would do no harm to present another name, and Judge Hanford was recommended, with the further provision that in case he was promoted, Judge Pritchard, of Tacoma, should be his successor. This has not proved altogether satisfactory, because there are a number of men who think they ought to be Hanford's successor if he is appointed. Among these are United States District Attorney Winston, who is now in Washington, and Sam Hyde. Both of these gentlemen are from Spokane, and only one can be appointed, even if a vacancy should occur. Besides neither can now secure the recommendation of the senators, because they are on record for Pritchard. The Oregon delegation stand by Simon, and have not changed one iota. They once having agreed upon him, they take no back talk and do not consider any other man. It is either Simon or no Oregon man.

THE WINTER IN IDAHO.
Snow From Two to Five Feet Deep and Stock Starving to Death.
HE HEARD THREE SHOTS.
A Child Testifies Against his Father in a Murder Trial.
REPRESENTATIVE ROBINSON DEAD
The Times Correspondent—A Revolutionist Shot—A Good Word for Minister Egan.
BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 23.—Thousands of cattle are slowly starving to death in the hills of Southern Idaho. The loss to stock-raisers will be tremendous. Every blade of grass upon the ranges is under from 22 to 60 inches of snow. The present winter has not been equaled in severity since 1870. The rigorous season was not anticipated by ranchers, and they delayed bringing the cattle to the low lands. The delay has proven fatal, and a well-known stockman said today that every domestic animal left in the hills is sure to meet death, either from cold or hunger. Nearly every rancher will lose more or less heavily, though many of them had the good fortune to drive portions of their cattle into the valleys before the great snow came. Boise meat dealers announce that the price of meat will soon be raised 2 cents per pound. Miners in the mountain districts cannot work, as the claims are hidden by snow. No snow-slides nor loss of human life are reported.

HE HEARD THREE SHOTS.
A Child Testifies Against his Father in a Murder Trial.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 23.—The trial of Dennis McCarthy for the murder of his wife September 7, 1891, was begun this morning in the circuit court, and a great crowd of people gathered in the room, where so many tragedies have been rehearsed, to hear the testimony in this. During the trial a touching scene took place. The 7-year-old son of the murderer was placed on the witness stand. When Prosecutor Parsons began to put questions in a kindly tone the little fellow broke down and wept. Between the sobs he said that he saw his father trying to discharge his revolver a second time. He heard three shots and his mother was dead. He was shown a knife and asked whether he had seen his father have it, but said he had not. He was not cross-examined. Late this evening the jury returned a verdict of guilty, and fixed the punishment at death.
Ex-Representative Robinson.
BROOKLYN, N. Y., Jan. 23.—Ex-Representative William E. Robinson, better known as "Richelieu" Robinson, died in this city this morning of old age and heart failure. He has been failing in health for some time.
Mr. Robinson was born near Cookstown, Ireland, May 6, 1814. He emigrated to this country in 1834, graduated at Yale college, and was a student at the Yale law school. He was a writer for the New York Tribune over the signature of "Richelieu," and for other journals. He was elected a representative from New York in the fortieth congress as a democrat, serving from March 4, 1867, to March 3, 1869.

Will be Shot Tomorrow.
SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 23.—A dispatch was received here this evening from Monterey, stating that Nieves Hernandez, one of the popular and widely-known officers in the Mexican army, was sentenced today to be shot, for alleged complicity in the raid made by Garza and his force of men at Mier, Mexico, December 13. Colonel Hernandez' court-martial began a few days ago, and was conducted with the utmost secrecy. The jury rendered their verdict today at noon, and the death sentence was pronounced. Hernandez bore the sentence with the bravery born of a soldier, and will be shot at sunrise Monday.
The Times' Correspondent.
NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—The Herald's Santiago special says: I understand British Minister Kennedy has made representations to his government relative to Thompson, the correspondent of the London Times, to the effect that he has endeavored to influence public feeling through the Times and the local papers against United States Minister Egan, relating to matters entirely foreign to questions at issue between the United States and Chili, and dragging into the controversy the British minister and the English government. There are strong and well-founded rumors that the Times will recall Thomson.
